DEATH AT WEDGEFIELD.

Wedgefield, S. C., Dec. 3.—Mr. John R. Cain died yesterday at Wedgefield and was buried in the Cain family burial ground today. He was forty-nine years old. Mr. Cain was well known throughout the county and had a wide circle of friends who will hear of his death with regret.

Hot Supper at Herriots.

The King's Daughters will have a hot supper on next Friday night, Dec. 7th, at Mr. W. H. McCutchen's, at Herriots. Public cordially invited.

Mr. W. H. Seale, County Supervisor, made an inspection of the jail and the Court House building Monday morning. He found the jail in a better sanitary condition than it has been in for years; he questioned the prisoners as to their treatment and comfort. Two negro boys, detained as witnesses in the Gaillard case, are still confined in the jail, one of whom was not even put on the stand. Mr. Seale will take proper steps to have these boys set at liberty, if consistent with the ends of justice. The work on the Court House is progressing rapidly and satisfactorily.

POSTMASTER SHORE AGAIN.

Washington, Dec. 4.—George D. Shore's nomination to be postmaster at Sumter for another term of four years was sent by the president to the senate today.
