Bears Said to Be Very Plentiful in Santee Swamp.

Game in Santee swamp is very plentiful. Mr. Frank McKnight, an old hunter, was in our office yesterday and told us he has never seen in all his experience so many signs of deer and bear. On last Friday while hunting squirrel he came across three bears. One barrel of his gun was loaded with No. 4 shot, the other with buck. He shot first with the buck-shot, and he thinks he killed the bear, but not having a dog along he could not find it, but the bear he hit with the smaller shot he got. It was crippled only enough to walk, and he tracked him by the noise in the bushes. Mr. McKnight said if he had a dog with him he could have taken home all three of the bears.—Manning Times.

A wireless message should be sent to the mighty bear hunter in the Louisiana swamps to quit wasting his time there and hasten to Manning. Under the guidance of My Dear Appelt and Hunter McKnight he ought to get all the bears he wants.

A bridge near Society Hill collapsed with a team of six mules that were hauling an engine and boiler across the bridge. One mule was killed and the driver was badly injured.

Columbia is busy making preparations for the State fair. The railroads have promised every accommodation possible and the attendance will likely be a record breaking one. The fair opens Oct. 28.
