Col. J. R. Muldrow, of Salem, was in the city today.
Mr. Walter Epperson, of Pinewood, was in the city today on business.
Sergeant A. H. Weeks went to Augusta this morning to attend the Georgia-Carolina Fair.
Rev. Frank Wardlaw, who is traveling in the interests of mission work for the Presbyterian Church in this State, was in the city today.
Miss Florrie Yates, Mrs. J. G. Mason and her two daughters, Misses Ethel and Alice, from Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting their uncle, Mr. W. H. Yates, at No. 9 W. Calhoun street.
Mr. T. J. Neville, advertising agent for the Charleston Gala Week, is in the city distributing advertising matter for this big occasion in Charleston, which takes place Nov. 18-21. This will be the best gala week in many years and a large attendance is expected.
Miss Augusta Folsom has returned home from Charleston, after having attended the Sneed-Hines wedding in that city, and also spending a few days in Manning with relatives.
Invitations have been received in this city announcing the coming wedding of Miss Lillian Farrow Irby, of Laurens, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William C. Irby, to Rev. James Preston Marion, of this city, the ceremony to be held on November 20, in the First Presbyterian Church, of Laurens.

There was a meeting of the county board of commissioners yesterday but only matters of a routine nature were transacted and nothing was given out for publication.
A man in Orangeburg says that Sumter is the third cleanest city in the United States, Washington, D. C., coming first, and Wilson, N. C., second. Thanks.
Monday was sale day, but there was only one sale made. Master H. Frank Wilson sold one piece of property in the case of Marlon Moise vs. Sam H. Ward. This property was situated in Privater township and contained 54 acres. It was bought in by Lee & Moise, attorneys, for $100.
Sergeant Weeks returned from Columbia on Saturday night, none the worse for his experience at the circus when he went up against the "graffers." He got what he went for, as he usually does, and none of the "great Hagenbeck & Wallace slick-handed artists" are any terror for him. Darlington is in the hands of those people today.

MARRIED.

Miss Ruth White, of this city, and Mr. Allen Rumley, of Georgetown, were married this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. John Haynsworth, on East Calhoun street. Dr. C. C. Brown officiating. The bridal couple will leave on the evening train for Georgetown.

REV. J. P. MARION DEAD.

Father of the Pastor of the Presbyterian Church in This City Has Passed Away.

The following special from Lancaster announces the death of Rev. J. P. Marion, of Richburg, Chester county, father of Rev. J. P. Marion, Jr., of the Presbyterian Church of this city:

Lancaster, Oct. 31.—The Rev. J. P. Marion, a Presbyterian minister, well known throughout the State, died this afternoon at his home in Richburg, Chester county. He was 60 years old, and leaves a widow and several children, among them Rev. Preston Marion, of Sumter. The burial will be at Richburg tomorrow afternoon.

The many friends of Mr. Marion will be pained to learn of the death of his father and he has their deepest sympathy in his bereavement. He was at Anderson attending Synod, but was notified of his father's illness and left for his bedside Thursday morning.

DEATH OF AN INFANT.

Julius, the year old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. McCallum, Jr., died at their home in this city Monday night. Death of Mrs. J. A. Carraway.

Mrs. J. A. Carraway, of Oswego, died at her home on Oct. 10, after an illness of nearly a year. She was buried at Bethel Church cemetery. The deceased was in the thirty-first year of her age at the time of her death, and leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss. She was a woman of high Christian character and of a lovable disposition. Her many friends will miss her from their midst.

MR. HUNTER MOORE DEAD.

Was Well Known in Sumter and Lived at Bishopville at One Time.

Orangeburg, Nov. 4.—Died at his mother's home on St. John's street at 6 o'clock, Oct. 27, A. Hunter Moore, the only son of Rev. A. W. Moore, editor of the Centenary, Florence. Mr. Moore held some responsible positions on different papers in the State, at one time being with the Evening Post of Charleston. Like his gifted father, he was genial in manner, making many friends, who will regret to hear of his death.

A prominent cotton buyer said today that for every bale of cotton that was sold today, two were being stored in the warehouse.

A concrete paving is being laid around the new Presbyterian Church, which will add greatly to the appearance of the handsome building.

The storing of cotton is going on rapidly every day and the farmers are evidently preparing to hold the balance of their crop for higher prices.

Street Superintendent White is having the sidewalk from DeLorme's Pharmacy to the postoffice improved by building it up with clay and sand.

The hunters report a good supply of partridges this fall and parties of sportsmen can be seen now every day going out after the birds. Sumter has some very successful shots.

The John H. Sizer Lumber Co., who have been operating mills in this vicinity, and a large band mill near Conway, have sold out their entire interest to the Trexler Lumber Co., of Allentown, Pa. Mr. John H. Sizer, who has held the position as general manager, has resigned. Mr. W. F. Alexander, will succeed him.

Attention is directed today to O'Donnell & Co.'s hosiery advertisement. Two lots of these goods are offered at a price that cannot be duplicated, and, as the supply is limited, only those who are prompt to take advantage of the offer will secure a share of the bargains.

Jake Gamble, a colored laborer at the Southern Cotton Oil Company's mill, went to sleep under the lint last night. In turning over in his sleep, probably he raised his arm and it was very seriously cut by the saws, which are similar to gin saws. The physicians in attendance hope to save his arm, but it is rather seriously injured. Those who found the unfortunate negro had much trouble in getting him out from under the machinery.

Don't be discouraged if other remedies have done you no good. Try Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, the greatest blessing to suffering humanity. The surest protector against disease. 35 cents, tea or tablets. Sibert's Drug Store.

Nine-tenths of the men of this Country wear ready-for-service Clothes. Two-thirds of these Men wear the good kind of Clothes while the other third keep the shoddy factories going. It is only a question of time when the third last mentioned learns that it is poor economy to buy cheap Clothes and then they will join the vast majority in the purchase of good Clothes—the kind they ought to wear. We beg to make it understood that we do not handle the kind the one-third wear, but we have everything in the good lines—they are a credit alike to Maker and Wearer.

Handsome Fall Suits, $12.50, $15, $18 to $27.50.
Elegant Overcoats $10, $15, $18 to $25.00.
Correct Blocks in Fall Hats.
Every Good Style.
Choice Toggery of all sorts—right from the hands of the best makers.

This is the store for good things. We give every good patron the kind of a square deal that will win his trade, his influence and his everlasting friendship.

IMPROVED POSTAL SERVICE.

Night Clerk Now on Duty and the Office Lobby Open All Night—Quick Distribution of Mail.

The postoffice is now open all night and there is now no ground for complaint by those who have lock boxes that they cannot obtain mail at any hour of the day or night. The night clerk for which Postmaster Shore has been working for more than a year to obtain a salary allowance, has at last been authorized by the Department, and was placed on duty Sunday night. The rules of the Postoffice Department permit the lobby of the postoffice to remain open at night only so long as an employe is on duty in the office, and hereofore the lobby has been closed at 9 o'clock when the last clerk went off duty. From this time forward the lobby will be open day and night, and all matter deposited in the office during the night will be made up and despatched. For instance mail for the early morning train to Augusta may now be deposited in the office at any hour of the night and get off on the next morning train, instead of having to be mailed before 9 p. m. as heretofore. Another advantage is the immediate distribution of mail received on the 9.44 p. m. train. The night clerk will receive this mail and distribute it in the lock boxes as soon as it arrives and those who may expect mail by that train can obtain it about 10.40 o'clock, if they have lock boxes.

Let us speak of men as we find them, and censure only what we can see. Remembering that none can be perfect unless they use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea.
