PERSONAL.

Mrs. Ole Edward Thompson and Mrs. Ethel Gordon, of Langdon, N. D., are visiting Mrs. Chas. McCormick.
 Mrs. W. A. Player and Miss Wilds, of Darlington, aunt and cousin of Mrs. D. J. Winn, Jr., are visiting her.
 Rev. Wm. Haynsworth and wife, of Fayette, are visiting in the city.
 R. O. Purdy, Esq., went to Kingstree Saturday on business.
 Dr. Jesse Clifton, of Orangeburg, is in the city today.
 Mr. A. K. Sanders, of Hagood, spent Sunday in the city.
 Judge Geo. E. Prince and Court stenographer L. E. Wood left for Florence on Monday to attend court there.
 Mr. W. W. Lyon, engineer of the sewage works in this city, has gone to Gauley on business.
 Mr. John M. Cooper, of Mayesville, was in the city Monday.
 Mr. W. N. McElveen, of Mayesville, spent Monday in town.
 Mrs. D. Dore and two children, Edie and Veneta, of Rocky Mount, S. C., are visiting Mrs. V. H. Auld.
 Mr. J. W. Degrethrey, of Charleston, has taken charge of the Model Laundry of this city.
 Sergeant Barwick, of the police force, who has been laid up for over a week with a bad foot, in which he struck a nail, is out again, much to the delight of his many friends.
 Rev. H. H. Covington has gone to Columbia to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the Episcopal Church of South Carolina.

The hotels in Sumter are crowded every night with traveling men and others, which testifies to Sumter's popularity as a stopping place for these people and its importance as a highway center.
 A gentleman, who has been living in Sumter for a good many years, said the other day that the number of strange faces on the streets was becoming more and more every day.
 "And you know," he said, "most of these people are living right here in Sumter. There can be no doubt about the rapidly increasing population of Sumter." This fact is very noticeable and everybody can see people on the streets who are total strangers to them and yet they are citizens of Sumter. A few years ago, everybody knew each other, but not so today.
 No move has yet been made for the closing of the stores and other places of business on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 28, but there is no doubt that the merchants and business men will agree to close, for in addition to the day being a legal holiday, there will be attractions in the city that all of the citizens will want to attend.
 A negro with a trick colt attracted a good crowd at the corner of Main and Liberty streets last Friday. The colt was very cleverly trained and was fair to become a valuable horse in time.
 Charlie Ellerbe, colored, of Claremont, shot Julius Thompson, colored, in the face, on last Thursday night on Mr. DeSaussure Bull's plantation, and escape. He was captured Sunday night in Savannah, Ga., and will be brought back here for trial. The Thompson negro is said to be seriously wounded.
 A petition is on file in the office of the county board of commissioners in regard to the child that was found in the piazza of the house of Sam McLeod, colored, in Mayesville, during last summer. The board is asked to provide and take charge of the child. This case occasioned much comment in Mayesville at the time until it was proved that the child was of mixed blood. McLeod has had charge of the baby ever since it was found on his porch.
 The concrete walks around the new court house are nearly completed and other work of improvement on the grounds will soon be underway.
 An every night all year round medicine, pleasant to take, positive results. It's Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, the greatest family remedy.
 35 cents, tea or tablets. Sibert's Drug Store.

MARRIED.

Married, by Rev. F. M. Satterwhite, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Sunday afternoon, Miss Ada Brown and Mr. Alvin Geddings, both of Sumter.

Married on Nov. 7, at 5 p. m., at the residence of Rev. S. D. Bailey, Miss Katie Rose, of Sumter, and Mr.
 Parker Childress, of Davis' Station.

MRS. ELEANORA RICHARDSON.

Mrs. Eleanora Richardson died at the home of her son, Mr. R. C. Richards, in this city, at 7 o'clock Wednesday night. She was in the eighty-eighth year of her age, being born at Stateburg on August 8, 1819.
 She leaves two sons, Hon. H. B. Richards and Mr. R. C. Richards. Her daughters, Mrs. J. C. Manning, Mrs.
 J. M. Richardson, Mrs. A. M. Brailsford and Mrs. Jas. D. Peas, of Camden, are all dead. Mrs. Richardson was Miss Eleanora Norville Spann, of Stateburg. Her husband has been dead many years and was one of the most substantial men of his county.
 Mrs. Richardson had many friends who will be grieved to learn of her death, for she was a veritable "mother in Israel."

The funeral services were conducted Friday at 9 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Comforter and interment was made at St. Mark's Clarendon.

Death of Mr. Jacob Bradwell.

Mr. Jacob Bradwell, a well known resident of this city, who was engaged in the meat market business, died on Saturday afternoon. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Tom Jones, on Council street, and interment was made at the Sumter cemetery.

The deceased was about 45 years of age and was single. His friends will be pained to learn of his death.

O'Donnell & Co., announce in their advertisement today that they will accept cotton warehouse receipts as security for accounts due them and will assist those indebted to them to hold their cotton for higher prices. O'Donnell & Co., are showing their public spirit and if all the merchants of the South would follow their example it would not be necessary for a single bale of cotton to be forced on the market.

"The great trouble with South Carolina, today is the fact that credit is too cheap." This remark was made by a gentleman from the country in conversation today, and he came near "hitting the nail on the head." Just now when money is so tight and financial centers have had such a severe shock, the above remark seems very much to the point, for there can be no doubt that the giving of so much credit has injured the commercial and financial world and especially South Carolina.

The need of more trackage at the depot is very apparent since the increase in the number of trains and the Coast Line will have to spread out soon.

The new train to Bennettsville, which was put on Monday morning, is doing a good business, as was expected, and is already proving a great convenience to the traveling public.

Street Commissioner White is repairing the sidewalk on the south side of West Liberty street between Main and Sumter streets. A composition of clay and sand will be put down which makes a very fine sidewalk.
 The work was delayed today on account of the weather.

The work of building the aseptic tank for the sewerage at Turkey Creek has commenced and good progress has been made on the tank so far.
 The laying of the pipes is, also, progressing well. The county catang is now engaged on this work and the added force makes a considerable difference in the progress of the undertaking.

The hay crop that has been harvested in Sumter County is probably the largest and best in the history if this section. The season has been ideal for harvesting hay and all good farmers have enough for their own use and a surplus for sale. During the past spring and summer thousands of dollars worth of Western hay was sold in this city, but next year the importation of hay should be small. The hay crop added to the biggest and best crop of corn ever produced in Sumter County put the farmers in fine shape for next year's business, provided they can obtain a fair price for the remainder of the cotton crop.

Time For Rain Coats.

Now is the season when you will need a good, serviceable, rain coat.
 This is the time of the year when we have all kinds of weather and the rain coat is most serviceable. The D.
 J. Chandler Clothing Company are offering today some very dependable rain coats and you should see their values and prices before buying elsewhere. See them today.

THE Rain Coat is the most dependable Coat for the uncertain Fall weather.

At this season the weather changes without much notice.

We get warm days, cold days, rainy days, foggy days; everything, in fact, in the line of "weather" that can be handed out.

Nothing will serve and protect you better than one of our good—

Dependable Rain Coats.

The styles are such that they are in order everywhere—some three-quarter length, others in full lengths. Every one of them in good form.

The materials are Dark Oxford mixed, Black Cheviots and many new weaves and mixtures. All correctly Cravenetted.

$10, $12.50, $15 to $27.50.

We know that our Rain Coats are excellent, and we are anxious to show them.

PROCEEDINGS OF COURT.

The jury in the case of Consumers' Lumber Company vs. Southern Rail- way, in the court of common pleas, returned a verdict Thursday for plain- tiffs. The next case begun was that of J. F. Riley vs. Rocky Bluff Lum- ber Company, Lee & Moise represent- ing the plaintiff and L. D. Jennings, Esq., the defendants. This case was in progress when court adjourned for dinner recess.

The jury in the case of Riley vs. Consumers' Lumber Company, in the common pleas court, returned a ver- dict for the plaintiff. In the case of Margaret Bell vs. Southern Railway, the plaintiff received the verdict. E. M. Thomson, Esq., appeared for the railway company and L. D. Jennings, Esq., for the plaintiff.

In the case of DesChamps vs At- lantic Coast Line Railroad Company, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff. This case involved the damages to a pair of computing scales. The plaintiff received by the verdict the sum of $50.

The fall session of the court of common pleas adjourned Friday after- noon. Saturday's session was taken up in the hearing of equity cases and ar- guments on appeals.

Hot Supper.

The ladies of Rembert's Church will give a hot supper at the residence of Mr. Edward Dunne on the night of the 15th instant, for the benefit of their church. The public is cordially invited. 11-6-2t

Saturday was a good day for mer- chants. The weather being so fine the people all came to the city and fall purchases were in order. Sum- ter's business is growing every day and especially on Saturday things are very lively in this city.

The picture of the proposed hand- some new First Methodist Church has been received by the building commit- tee from Architect A. W. Todd, of Charleston, and judging from the pic- ture, this church will be one of the most attractive and substantial houses of worship in this State. The architec- ture is of the Gothic type, which is so well suited to such buildings.

It expels all poisons, stimulates the internal organs, cleanses the system and purifies the blood. Such is Hol- lister's Rocky Mountain Tea, the most effective preventive of disease. 25 cents, tea or tablets. Sibert's Drug Store.
