PERSONAL

Miss Emma Bruner is spending a while in Orangeburg with relatives.

The following left Monday afternoon for Washington: C. T. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Van Deventer, S. C. McKeown, Ralph Hill, Walter M. Sanders.

Rev. E. A. McDowell who was seriously hurt in the auto accident in Anderson last Sunday is well known in this city, having recently spent two weeks here with his sister, Mrs. J. J. Team. His many friends here regret exceedingly to know of his misfortune and wish for him speedy recovery. A telephone message from Ninety-Six Tuesday says that the condition of Mr. McDowell is very satisfactory.

Messrs. A. M. Lee, of Charleston and Walter Hazard, of Georgetown spent Tuesday in the city.

Henry Muldrow of Darlington is visiting his brother Mr. Olin Muldrow.

Mr. J. E. King went to Columbia on business Wednesday.

Miss Mitt DuRant went to Bishopville on a visit Wednesday.

Miss Esther Gaudlock, of Gaffney, is visiting Miss Mabel Parrott.

Miss Aletha Reardon and Mr. A. Fisher spent Wednesday in Columbia.

Mr. Ray Wolf, of New York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leop. Strauss.

Mr. S. W. Stubbs is attending the missionary meeting at Edgefield.

Messrs. S. L. and W. L. Brunson, Misses Ethel and Mabel Brunson went to Columbia Wednesday.

Miss Moneta Osteen returned Tuesday from Montgomery, Ala., where she had been visiting relatives.

Prof. W. S. Schumacher has gone to New York for a month's stay. While in New York Mr. Schumacher will study under one of the ablest violinists in this country.

Misses Bertha Griffin and Odell Barwick, of Pinewood, attended the closing exercises of St. Joseph's Academy, on Monday evening, and spent Tuesday with Miss Corrie Griffin.

Mr. Julian Schwartz went to Columbia Thursday.

Mrs. O. C. Scarborough of Summerton and Miss Camilla Klige of this city have gone to Camden as delegates to the Baptist Missionary Rally.

Mr. J. C. Vanstary, of the office force of the Hotel Sumter, has resigned his position and accepted the position of assistant manager of the Connelly Springs Hotel, Connelly Springs, N. C. Since his stay in Sumter Mr. Vanstary has made many friends who regret his departure, but congratulate him on his advancement.

Mr. A. H. Walton, formerly connected with the Farrymore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, N. C., has accepted the position of Clerk of the Hotel Sumter.

Hon. Joseph F. Rhame, former senator from Clarendon County and one of the leading attorneys of the Manning bar, spent Thursday in the city.

Mr. W. G. Stubbs went to Gaffney Wednesday.

Postmaster Geo. D. Shore went to Columbia Thursday to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the Postmasters' Association.

Mr. C. A. Bruner, of Sumter, a very popular travelling salesman for Witherpoon Brothers & Co., is in the city attending the meeting of the Undertakers' Association. He is at the Argyle Hotel.—News and Courier.

Mrs. A. J. Outlaw, of Camden, is the guest of her brother, Mr. P. R. May on E. Liberty St.

Miss Hattie Hussey left Tuesday morning to attend the teachers' summer school at Spartanburg.

Grandison Rembert, colored, was captured Saturday night in the act of robbing the cash till of the Sumter Drug Co. He went into the drug store ostensibly to buy a bottle of oil, and while Dr. Kingsmore's back was turned reached across the counter jerked open the cash drawer and made a grab for the money. He had, however, lost sight of the fact that the clerk was behind the prescription case watching him, and as his hand went into the drawer the clerk grabbed him. Rembert made a break for the door but the clerk held on and at the door Officer Tribble came to his assistance and Rembert was taken to the guard house. He was later released on the deposit of $25 cash bond, for his appearance for trial Monday, but he did not appear, so his bond is accordingly forfeited.

Mr. C. G. Rowland, President of the Farmers' Bank & Trust Co., who returned from Summerton Wednesday, states that he has rented the store next to the Summerton Mercantile Co. for a temporary home for the branch bank and the bank will open for business on July 1st.

MARRIED.

A beautiful and impressive marriage ceremony was solemnized in the Episcopal church Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, in the presence of a large number of the friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The groom was Mr. Team Gettys, attorney, of Columbia; and the bride was Miss Annie C. Rees, daughter of Mr. W. J. Rees, of Stateburg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. Covington. Mr. M. P. Howell, attorney, of Walterboro, was best man; and Miss Mayo A. Rees, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Ushers for the occasion were Messrs. H. D. Bull, of Stateburg, N. P. Gettys, of Lugoff, Townsend, of Columbia, E. L. Craig, of Columbia.

After the ceremony an elegant reception in honor of the bride and groom was given to the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. R. Sumter. After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Gettys left on the 9:10 train for a visit to Asheville, N. C. The best wishes of their many friends attend them. They will return to Columbia, where the groom is a rising young attorney of the firm of Nelson, Nelson & Gettys.

At the home of the bride's father, on Sumter street, on June 24th, Miss Mattie, daughter of Mr. M. J. Michaux, was quietly married to Mr. J. W. Daniels, of Columbia, only members of the two families being present. Rev. W. M. Hook performed the ceremony. After spending two weeks in the mountains, they will be at home to their friends in Columbia, where Mr. Daniels is in business.

On the evening of the 23rd Mr. and Mrs. Michaux gave an informal reception in honor of the bridal party. The out of town guests were Mr. Guy Daniels and Mrs. Williamson, of Newberry, Mrs. Brannen, of Roanoke, Ala., sisters and brother of the groom; Misses Alice and Mattie Andrews, of Oswego, and Miss Carrie Joye, of Sumter.

DEATH.

Mrs. Josephine Carr died Tuesday morning in the 88th year of her age. Her remains were carried to Charleston for burial, at the Friendly Union Cemetery, Magnolia avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. H. J. Seymour died at his home on East Hampton Avenue at 6.45 p. m. Wednesday after a brief illness, aged 57 years. He had been in failing health for some months, but was able to be out and at work last week. Since Saturday last his condition has been critical and for the past day or two he had grown steadily worse and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Seymour was a native of the Concord section of this County, but had made his home in this city for more than fifteen years. He was a member of the city police force for a number of years and was a faithful and efficient officer, always fearless in the discharge of his duty. For the past two years he has held the position of clerk in the County dispensary. He was married three times and is survived by his third wife and six children. The funeral was held from his late residence at 10 o'clock Friday morning and the interment was made at the cemetery.
