MARRIED.

Mr. R. B. Kennedy, of this city, and Miss Estelle Griggs were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. W. J. Griggs in Wadesboro, N. C., on Wednesday morning at 11.30 o'clock. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of the friends and relatives of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy arrived in the city this morning.

When Mr. J. C. Huger was en route from New York to Charleston on a Clyde Line steamer a few weeks ago he threw overboard a tightly sealed bottle containing his card and a note requesting the finder to notify him where and when the bottle was picked up. When the bottle was thrown overboard on the morning of August 23rd, the steamer was north of Cape Romaine, and about forty miles out to sea. About a week after reaching home he received a post card dated August 30, stating that the bottle had been found on the beach of Edisto Island that day. The bottle drifted more than a hundred miles in less than a week.

The Recorder's Court turned $40 into the city treasurer Monday.

The demand for cotton seed is boosting the price.

Sumter is threatened with another outbreak of automobile fever.

It was reported Tuesday that a white man had been found dead beside the railroad track near the Potomac bridge and a crowd of negroes quickly gathered to investigate. While they were standing around the corpse in open-mouthed wonder the corpse came to life, very angry at being disturbed. He said he was not dead by any means—only very thirsty for about four-fingers more of "fuss X."

The Shaw & McCollum Mercantile Co., are advertising their fall line of coat suits, which are now on display. This line has been selected with care and taste and is just what the most discriminating shoppers will want.

'Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaints. It cures griping, diarrhoea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first unnatural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults. It always cures. Sold by W. W. Sibert.

Advancing Their Interests.
WE ENDEAVOR to advance the business interests of our customers in every legitimate way. In so doing, our motives may be somewhat tinged with selfishness, for, upon the prosperity of its patrons hinges the success of every bank.
First National Bank, Sumter, S. C.

For Very Particular Men
Hart Schaffner & Marx
Clothes

IT pays to be particular about clothes; and because that's so, it pays us to have particular clothes for such wearers. The small touches of style, of shape, of finish of the pockets or cuffs; the selected weaves, colors, patterns; the things that give fashionable distinction to a man's dress—it's our business to know about such things, and to have them ready for those who appreciate them.

You want Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes, because you want to be well dressed; because it pays to be. If we have a chance at you we'll make you one of the best dressed men in town.

Suits $20 to $32.50.
This store is the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes.
