Mr. Clarence Joseph, of Charleston, was in the city to attend the Brown-Sweetman wedding Wednesday night.

Miss Lucile Iseman, of Manning, is in the city for a short stay.

Rev. J. S. Beasley is in the city.

Mr. M. S. Poole, of Laurens, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. R. J. Hand.

MARRIED.

Mr. J. C. Cotton and Miss Webster of this city were married Wednesday evening at the Washington Street Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. F. M. Satterwhite.

Wednesday evening the Presbyterian church was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when the Rev. Mr. J. P. Marion happily united in the holy bonds of matrimony Miss Lorraine Sessions and Mr. Clair McKnight.

It was a golden-rod wedding. The maid of honor and bridesmaids carried shower bouquets of that beautiful and stately flower, and in the decorations of the church they were beautifully conspicuous in the back ground of amity in which they were artistically arranged.

Mr. H. M. Stuckey presided at the organ, and as the strains of the wedding march pealed forth to announce the opening of the impressive ceremony, the bridal party entered the church. The ushers, Messrs. William Crowson and Bartow Walsh preceded the bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Marie DeLorme entered with Mr. H. W. Forrister, and Miss Jennie Walsh with Mr. Murr Hill. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Ethel Caruthers, of Tampa, Fla., and then the flower girls, little misses Daisy China and Beuna Delgar. The groom was accompanied by his best man, Mr. Robert Jackson, and met his bride at the altar, where she was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. Charles Dwyer.

The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. J. P. Marion, after which the bridal party enjoyed a reception at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles Dwyer.

Mr. and Mrs. McKnight left for Columbia that night, from which place they will go to Washington for their honeymoon.

There was a pretty wedding solemnized at the First Methodist church Wednesday night when Miss Jennie Brown, the eldest daughter of Mr. Geo. A. Brown, became the wife of Mr. Eli W. Sweatman. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. Mr. M. H. Hook. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The bridal procession was formed as follows: first came the little flower girls, Misses Mamie Raffield and Nellie Zeigler; Miss Gertrude Holiday with Mr. G. M. Brown, Miss Minnie Ruth Jones with Mr. Ernest Stafford.

The bride entered with her sister, the maid of honor, Miss Relda Brown and the groom with his best man, Mr. Clarence Joseph, of Charleston. Rev. Mr. Hook very impressively made the young couple man and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweatman left for Savannah for their bridal trip.

Judge R. O. Purdy received notice Thursday that his plantation near Pineopolis, Berkeley county, was seriously damaged by the storm Tuesday night. Mr. Purdy left that morning for Pineopolis to make a personal inspection of the place to ascertain the extent of his loss. So far as learned no buildings were blown down nor were any of his farm stock killed, but the loss on crops in the fields would be serious, amounting to several thousand dollars.

THE BANK OF MAYESVILLE.

President McCall Sells Controlling Interest to Mr. R. I. Manning, Who Becomes President.

From Sumter Daily Item, Sept. 5.
Mr. S. M. McCall has sold a controlling interest in the Bank of Mayesville to Mr. R. I. Manning and others who are closely affiliated with the Bank of Sumter in a business and financial way.

At a meeting held in Mayesville yesterday Mr. McCall tendered his resignation as president and director of the bank and Mr. Manning was elected a director, and subsequently at a meeting of the directors, he was elected president to succeed Mr. McCall.

The Bank of Mayesville under the new management will do a conservative business in friendly relation with the Bank of Sumter and will grow with the growth of the business of Mayesville. The directors of the Bank of Mayesville are business men of that town who will take pride in the development of the institution and will so conduct its affairs as to make it of the greatest benefit to the town and surrounding country.

Mr. McCall, the retiring president severed his connection with this bank in order that he might have more time to devote to his other business interests. Under his management the bank has been more prosperous than at any previous time, and it is due to his careful business management that the bank is now on a safe and sound footing.

There were only three arrests made Wednesday—a white man and a negro for fighting and a negro for cursing on the street.

HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

From The Daily Item, Oct. 7.
The regular business session of the Woman's Home Mission Society of the South Carolina Conference met in the Methodist church this morning at 9:45 o'clock, Mrs. W. L. Wait, president, in the chair.

After the devotions, the organization was effected in a quiet and decorous manner.
Two of the executive officers are not present. The others are in their places.

Forty-five delegates responded to roll call. The reports of officers show growth in numbers and finances.

An excellent paper on tithing was read by Mrs. E. T. Hodges.

The afternoon's discussion of "The United States as a Mission Field" by the preachers will be profitable to all.
Rev. J. W. Snider, from Anderson, will talk to tonight on the mill problem. Every one is invited to be present.

An unknown negro attempted to cash a forged check for $288 at the Bank of Sumter Wednesday, but made a botch of it. The forgery was a crude affair and when the negro saw that Teller Bartow Walsh hesitated about paying the money he made a dash for the door and escaped before a policeman could be called to assist him. The check purported to be drawn by Levi Bros. in payment for four bales of cotton, but was so poorly written on an ordinary counter check that it would not have deceived any one at all familiar with the checks usually issued by Levi Bros.

They who forgive most shall be most forgiven.—Bailey.

MALLEABLE RANGE DEMONSTRATION.

The Housekeepers of Sumter Invited To Attend Instructive Exhibit at DuRant Hardware Co.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the DuRant Hardware Co., which appears today. All housekeepers are interested in cook stoves and ranges and they are invited to attend the demonstration of the "Malleable" Range, which will be held in the store of DuRant Hardware Co. next week from Monday to Saturday, inclusive. The "Malleable" Range will be seen in service and Three Minute Biscuits and Coffee will be served to all callers. The demonstration will be interesting and instructive and the souvenir cook book which will be given each caller will be found a useful adjunct in house-keeping.

GIN HOUSE BURNED.

Supervisor P. M. Pitts Has Heavy Loss.

A very serious fire occurred about five miles from Sumter Wednesday, October 6th, 4 a. m., at the place of the County Supervisor, Peter M. Pitts involving a total loss of $1,700. Gin house, saw mill fixtures and seven bales of cotton being consumed with no insurance. Mr. Pitts does not believe it was of incendiary origin but was probably ignited by lighting as there was quite an electric display during the night and morning. The fire had made such headway that it was impossible to save anything from the burning buildings. Great regret is expressed by the many friends of Mr. Pitts.
