JUDGE WELLS MARRIED.

Surprised His Friends When He Went For His Bride.

Judge H. L. B. Wells surprised his friends very much when he went to Columbia Sunday and met Mrs. Wells. He and Mrs. Helen H. Rush, of Savannah, Ga., formerly of Boston, Mass., were married on May 14th, in Charleston by Rev. Watson B. Duncan. Mrs. Wells was compelled to go back to Savannah and pack up, so Mr. Wells returned to Sumter and waited for her. He kept his secret well. Sunday he went to Columbia and returned with his bride, who met him in the capital city.

DEATH.

Onida, the 11-year-old daughter of Dr. an Mrs. B. B. Breeden died at the home of her parents in Bennettsville Tuesday after an illness of about two weeks of typhoid fever. The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. Breeden will learn of their bereavement with feelings of sympathy and regret.

If the proper effort is made an interesting and exciting series of automobile races can be arranged for the entertainment of the visitors who will be in the city during Firemen's week. Several of the motorists are already interested and with a little encouragement they will take hold with a vim and make the motor car races the event of the occasion.

Death of Mrs. J. H. Leasia.

Orangeburg, May 30.—Mrs. Effie Edwards Leasia died at Riverside Infirmary in Charleston on last Wednesday after a long and painful illness. She was the wife of J. H. Leasia, who was originally from Saginaw, Mich., but who has resided at Ferguson in this county for a number of years in charge of the lumber plant located at that place. Besides her husband two little children are left.

Mrs. Lesia was the daughter of the late Cecil S. Edwards and a niece of Julius A. Edwards, Mrs. V. Smith and Miss Fannie R. Edwards.

TWENTY-FIVE MINERS KILLED.

More Than a Score of Workmen Killed in Explosion at Devil's Slide, Utah.

Ogden, Utah, June 1.—Twenty-five workmen were killed in an explosion today in a quarry of the Union Portland Cement works at Devil's Slide, Utah, 30 miles east of Ogden.

The explosion blew down the telegraph and telephone poles and communication with the scene of the accident was limited to a brief message sent out by a courier from Morgan, Utah, soon after the disaster.

Most of the killed are Japanese and Greeks, who made up the quarry gang of 75 or 100 men. He injured are reported to number a score or more.

The victims were blown to pieces. On the hill-side overlooking the scene, portions of limbs and arms were picked up. Some of the bodies were blown a hundred yards.

A premature explosion in a tunnel in the hill above the cement plant was the direct cause of the explosion below. More than 30 kegs of powder were stored near where the men were working.

Ollie Dickson was before the Recorder Tuesday for carrying concealed weapons and resisting arrest. His plea was that he found the pistol. That story did not go. He got $15 or 15 days for carrying the pistol and $10 or 10 days for resisting arrest. He took the days.

The Georgetown firemen will come to the tournament on a special train and bring a big crowd of their friends with them.

The Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce is hopeful of inducing the railroad authorities to put on the chair car between Charleston and Greenville.

The protracted meeting at the Christian church is still in progress and is attracting good crowds. Mr. Elmore is preaching some able sermons in the series, sermons that are well worth hearing.

Mayor Jennings is having his awnings fixed to conform with the law. Council instructed him to have the awning ordinance enforced, and he is beginning with himself. The other offenders will be getting notices in a day or two.

The hotels and boarding houses will have to stretch their accommodations June 21st and 22nd to house all the firemen, politicians and sight-seers who will be in town.

AN OPPORTUNITY—In January after the last horse show in Sumter I purchased the handsome horse which was awarded the blue ribbon (first prize) by the judges, they having decided that he was the best single harness horse on exhibition. He is without blemish, kind and sensible and the kind of horse that is not often on the market. Having determined not to keep a horse, I am offering him for sale. C. P. Osteen, M. D., Sumter, S. C.

WANTED—To buy hardwood logs, Poplar, Cypress, Ash and White Oak logs for our mill at Sumter. Write or call on us. Thomas Lumber Co., Calhoun & A. C. L. Ry Sumter, S. C. 5-21-10W.

WANTED—The Farmers of Sumter County to know they can get protection for their crops against destruction by hail by a policy in the Carolina Hall Insurance Company. G. E. Haynsworth, Agent, 26 1-2 N. Main St., Sumter, S. C. 5-6-10.

THE CORPORATION TAX CASE.

United States Supreme Court Places 15 Cases on Its Docket For Re-argument in Fall.

Washington, May 31.—Just before adjourning today until October the Supreme Court of the United States restored the 15 corporation tax cases heard last spring to the docket for reargument before a full bench.

No specific date was set for the reargument.

Chief Justice Fuller made the announcement of the restoration. "For argument before a full bench" was the only reason assigned for the unexpected action of the court.

How the court stands on the case no one of the bench pretends to know.

The action today will allow Gov. Hughes of New York, recently appointed to the bench, to participate in the consideration of the law.

Secretary MacVeagh said that notwithstanding the failure of the Supreme Court to pass on the constitutionality of the corporation tax, the treasury department would proceed to collect it as required by law. Should the court, after reargument declare the tax not constitutional the money collected will be refunded without the necessity of congressional legislation, the statutes making ample provisions for the return of taxes paid wrongfully or in error.

The corporation tax is collectible June 30. The assessments on that account have aggregated a trifle in excess of $27,000,000, while the tax paid to date amounts to $675,325.

If the dog license tax ordinance has not been repealed, and the writer has no recollection of such action by city council, it is unlawful for dogs to run at large unless they wear a collar and a license tax tag.

Rutledge Dollard caught a four foot alligator in Green Swamp some days ago and presented it to Mr. Tom Rowland, who has it in his office. It is something of a "white elephant" on his hands, as he is afraid of it.

rubbing a raw spot with sandpaper, and the committee that canvassed the town were lucky to escape with their lives.

Hazel Moore, a fifteen year old negro from Columbia, was before the Recorder Wednesday for stealing about $4.00 from a hackman. He was given ten days on the gang and advised to go back to Columbia when he gets off. He proved to be a pretty good runner when Officer Ward started to arrest him in front of the city hall. He broke and ran by the new reel house, through yards and gardens, and was finally caught in a yard on Kendrick street.

The Doctrine of
Two Summer Suits!

IN SUMMER your suit is constantly in your own and your associates' sight. One suit gets tiresome—and tired; needs a rest, cleaning and pressing. The logical solution is two suits—

One a Blue Serge ::::

THEN you are right and ready for any emergency. One suit always pressed and fresh. Frequent changes will do both yourself and the suits good.

WE'VE right serges for you—closely twilled from fine spun pure worsteds, some fancy blues, some plain—a plenty of both.
