MERRY CHRISTMAS

A GIFT

THAT MEN and BOYS APPRECIATE

It matters not how many other gifts you have planned for him, no Man's or Boy's Christmas is complete without a Tie. :: :: ::

Count up the "Hims" in the family, the "Hims" who are friends—special of course—every one of them must have a tie.

Our Tie show is worth coming to see. The handsomest silks the looms ever produced. The neatest shapes the Makers ever turned out. 25c, 50c, to $2.

Of course, there are our Bath Robes, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Suspenders, Mufflers, Shirts, Collars and Cuffs, Hosiery and many, many other things in Toggery—all new, and all handsome—but the tie he must have.

Eagles Elect Officers.

At a well attended meeting of Eagles Wednesday held in the lodge room, the annual election of officers took place after which a big barbecue was served which did much towards making the evening the delightful one which it was.

During the evening Mr. John H. Clifton made a rousing good speech to his fellow Eagles about the order, which was much appreciated. Several candidates were obligated during the latter part of the evening, at ter which the business session was adjourned for the social session.

The officers elected for the ensuing year were:

Worthy President, Carl T. Mason; Vice-President, J. W. Bradford, Jr.; Secretary, H. A. Fields; Treasurer, Geo. E. Beaumont; Chaplain, S. Lee Young; Conductor, Francis Teicher; Inside Guard, C. H. Schwerin; Outside Guard, Scott Bostic; Trustees, Singleton Bradford, J. R. Mercer and W. C. Wise.

Honesty needs no pains to set itself off.—Edward Moore.
