

The Watchman and Southern.

Entered at the Postoffice at Sumter, S. C., as second class matter.

PERSONAL.

Mr. G. M. Sanders and the Misses Sanders, of Stateburg, were in the city Friday.

Miss Emmie Sanders, of Yemmesee, is spending a few days in the city on her way to Saluda.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Owens have gone to Johnson City, Tenn., to visit their daughter, Mrs. Weaver, and to give Mr. Owens a chance to recuperate after his recent illness.

Miss Elzoiner Hughson has returned from Winthrop College.

Miss Lucile Randle has gone to Boston, Mass., to take post graduate work in music at the New Conservatory of Music at that place.

Mr. Bruce Sanders, of Stateburg, was in the city Friday.

Mr. Guy Nelson, of Stateburg, was in town Friday morning.

Miss Sarah Heriot, of Heriot, passed through the city on Friday on her way to Asheville to attend the Southern Y. W. C. A. inter-collegiate convention as one of the delegates from Winthrop college.

Miss Lucile Ryttenberg is at home from Randolph-Macon college.

Miss Alene Fleming, of Columbia, is visiting Miss Margaret Thomas.

Miss Estelle Crowson is visiting relatives in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Bradley and daughter, of Borden, were in the city Friday.

Mr. W. K. McCoy, of St. Charles, spent Friday in the city.

Mr. L. S. Vinson, of Pisgah, was in town Friday.

Mrs. Ruth McLaurin and Mrs. La Far have returned from Columbia, where they went to witness the Duncan-Reeves wedding.

Miss Abbie Bryan has returned from Columbia where she has been teaching during the past school session.

Misses Lillian Wallace, Lucy Bomar and Lois Anderson, of Charlotte, are visiting Miss Gordon Fields on Broad street.

Miss Grace Carson has gone to Asheville, from which place she will go on tour throughout the western portion of the country.

Miss Aycock, of Wedgefield, was in the city Saturday.

Mr. Alex Burroughs returned to his home at Congaree Saturday, after spending a while at Dalzell.

Mr. J. T. Cummings, of Dalzell, was in the city Saturday.

Mr. H. W. Blake has gone to Marlion, S. C., where he will be assistant postmaster. Mr. Blake is a good postoffice man, and Marlion certainly is to be congratulated.

Mr. Murray Nelson has returned to his home on Church street after a pleasant visit to friends in Clinton.

Miss Agnes Corbett who has been visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Rowland has returned to her home in Greenville.

Capt. and Mrs. P. P. Finn went to Columbia on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mr. G. W. Youngham, Mrs. Finn's brother-in-law.

Mr. Dan McLaurin, of Wedgefield, was in the city Saturday.

Miss Sarah Moore, of Stateburg, passed through the city on Saturday on her way to Charleston.

Miss Katie Reid, of Charleston, passed through the city this morning on her way to St. Charles, where she will visit relatives.

Hon. T. G. McLeod passed through the city Saturday on his way to Bishopville.

Mrs. Scriven Moore and Dr. Henry Moore of Stateburg, were in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Aman, of Bishopville, were in the city Monday.

Dr. Tom McCutchen, of Sardinia, and Capt. L. B. McCutchen, of Charleston, were in the city Monday.

Messrs. D. D. Moise, H. D. Moise and R. D. Epps went to Bishopville Monday to attend court.

Mr. Julian Schwartz has returned from Washington and Lee University.

Mr. H. N. Idol returned on Saturday from a pleasant visit to his old home in North Carolina.

Rev. H. A. Knox, of Mayesville, was in the city Monday.

Mrs. Charlotte Brooks Dead.

Mrs. Charlotte Brooks died Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at her home in the rear of the First Baptist church, aged about 75.

Mrs. Brooks is well known in Sumter by the older people of the town. She was a member of the First Baptist church, which church took care of her for many years.

Duncan-Reeves.

Columbia, June 11—At the home of Col and Mrs. D'Arcy Paul Duncan in Shandon on Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock was solemnized the marriage of their daughter, Miss Isabel Hill Duncan, to Edward LeRoy Reeves, Jr., formerly of Charleston, now of Columbia. The occasion was given an added touch of sentiment from the fact that a year ago on that day, at the same hour, the bride's sister, Miss Katherine Duncan, became Mrs. Mary Eaton and the same minister, a granduncle of the two girls, Rev. James McDowell of McClellanville, performed both ceremonies, having also officiated at marriage of their parents.

In all its details the ceremony was exceptionally beautiful. The house was decorated throughout with quantities of flowers, vines and burning candles to carry out a different color effect in each room.

The wedding march was played by Miss Sophie Bellingher, two dainty ribbon girls, little Eleanor Duncan daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gist Duncan, of Leesville, and Agnes Carson wearing little white frocks with yellow ribbons, descended the stairs and stretched broad streamers across the hall to the drawing room to form an aisle for the bridal party. The bridesmaids, Misses D'Arcy Duncan, sister of the bride, and Miss May Boykin, of Boykin, Miss Elizabeth N. Davis and Clelia Gray, entered two by two, each couple followed by their groomsmen, Pickney Sealrook and U. R. Brooks, Jr., Plummer Wilson and John Miller. The maids all wore lovely white lingerie gowns and carried great bunches of shasta daises tied with white tulle. The dame of honor, the bride's sister, Mrs. Harry Eaton, wore the beautiful gown of satin and duchess lace, in which she had appeared as a bride exactly a year ago that night and her bouquet, too, was of shasta daises. The maid of honor, Miss Edith Reeves, of Charleston, sister of the groom, wore an airy white marquisette gown with lace trimmings, and carried daises to give the perfecting touch to the white and gold effect of the entire wedding. She entered alone immediately preceding the bride, who came in with her father, Col. Duncan. Her girlish grace and beauty found charming setting in her bridal costume, an exquisite gown of white satin, enriched with real lace and pearls, with filmy wedding veil arranged with a rope of pearls, and bouquet of bride roses showered with lilies of the valley. She wore as her only ornament the groom's gift to her, a beautiful pendant of pearls and diamonds.

The groom, who had entered from an opposite door with his best man, John Frierson, awaited her, and the ceremony was performed beneath the bell of roses, Rev. James McDowell officiating.

Afterward a delightful reception was held. The guests were received at the front door by Mr. and Mrs. W. Gist Duncan of Leesville, and in the drawing room, in the receiving line with the bride and groom, were Col. and Mrs. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Reeves of Charleston, parents of the groom; Miss Reeves, the maid of honor; Mr. Frierson, the best man, and Mrs. Eaton. The dining room doors were thrown open and there refreshing ices and sweets were served.

In the library the wedding presents were displayed, representing the good wishes of a wide circle of relatives, and friends on both sides.

The bride and groom left that night for their wedding trip, which will include visits to several places in Virginia, to Washington and Baltimore. When they return to Columbia they will make their home at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gray, on Gervais street.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were: Mrs. Ruth McLaurin of Sumter, Mrs. M. N. LaFar of Sumter and Rev. Jas. McDowell of McClellanville.

The evening before the wedding Mrs. Eaton entertained the bridal party, who gathered at the Duncan home for a rehearsal. Ices were served and the bride's cake was cut, distributing its fate-embodiments to Miss Gray the thimble, to Miss Davis the coin, to Mr. Wilson the ring, and to Mr. Frierson the bachelor's button.

DeMedicis-Green.

Aiken, June 10.—One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Ethel de Medicis, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. de Medicis, was married at the First Baptist church to Edwin V. Green of New York.

The decorations of the church, though simple, were very tasteful, the color scheme being pink and green. Palms, ferns and hydrangeas were effectively placed, lending an air of art to the entire interior. The ushers were Leon Holly, Cleve Thomas, George A. Durban and Edward Cushman.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. J.

F. Seigler, the bride, her brother, George De Medicis, and the maid of honor, Miss Marie DeLorme of Sumter, entered from the front, and were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Geddings Cushman, who entered from the side entrance. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. Phillip J. McLean, the bride being given away by her brother. The party left the church as Lohengrin's was played by Mrs. Seigler.

The ceremony was performed at 3.30 o'clock, and Mr. and Mrs. Green left at 4:40 for Charleston, where they sailed Thursday on a Clyde liner for New York, for a two or three weeks' wedding trip, carrying with them the best wishes of a host of friends. On Tuesday evening a reception was tendered the bridal party at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Green will reside in Aiken.

NEGRO SHOOT ANOTHER ON TRAIN.

Ike Mitchell Shot by Will Langdon Between Columbia and Eastover This Morning.

From The Daily Item June 12. This morning while on their way from Columbia to Bishopville where they have been engaged for some time in rounding up the liquor sellers, Ike Mitchell was accidentally shot and killed by Will Langdon.

The parties are two negroes employed by the Crown Point Detective Agency who were on their way to Bishopville to testify at several cases which were coming up in court which is now in session at that place.

The two negroes were sitting in adjoining seats in the car when Langdon leaned over to speak to Mitchell. As he did so his pistol fell from his pocket to the floor of the car where it went off, the ball going through the back of the seat and striking Mitchell in the back and killing him almost instantly.

At Eastover the train was stopped and both negroes were taken of and turned over to the town authorities. Langdon was placed in the guard house and returned to Columbia on the next train. The body of Mitchell was left at Eastover. The coroner was notified and came on to Eastover to look into the case and secure a jury.

The conductor on the train stated this morning when he passed through here that the shooting was entirely accidental.

FIRE AT McKEIVER'S SAW MILL.

Steamer Brought into Use Shows That It Is Capable of Doing Good Work on Occasion.

The hose wagons were called out Saturday afternoon to a fire at McKeiver's saw mill, down about the old C. S. and N. station which did about $100 worth of damage before it was extinguished.

The fire caught in the saw dust house, just off from the planing mill and the engine house, and while there was considerable smoke there was not much fire, which was partly smothered by the sawdust and prevented from breaking out in a blaze.

The steamer was taken to the fire and started to work and quickly had the fire under control. The steamer worked fine and the stream of water that it threw was something to make the people not acquainted with its properties very much astonished. It showed that while it might not be a good thing in times when haste counted most, it was a good thing to have at fires when it was wanted to put them out in a hurry and something that the city really needs after all.

The steamer has been kept ready for use for the past two months, one of the hose wagons having been put to one side as too dilapidated for present use. It was fired up in a short time Saturday afternoon. Since the fire it has been cleaned up and looks as bright and clean as if it had just come from the shop, newly made.

The fire was in the same place that another fire occurred about two months ago, which did slightly more damage than did the fire Saturday.

SOUTHERN FIREMEN WON'T STRIKE.

Settlement Brought About By Board of Mediators.

Washington, June 10.—A general strike of 2,400 Southern Railway firemen was averted today by the mediation board.

Just before noon today the mediators under the Erdman Act, brought the parties to the controversy to an agreement. The terms of the agreement were reduced to a working basis and signed by Southern officials and the firemen's representatives. Concessions were made by each side.

The members of the board of health and city council did not seem to take much interest in the health lectures Sunday afternoon. If their non-attendance could be taken as a sign of their non-interest in the movement, there being only one member of each present.

CITY SCHOOLS OF SUMTER.

Honor Rolls of Attendance, 1910-1911.

Table listing school attendance rolls for various districts (District No. 1, District No. 2, etc.) including names like David Alexander, Jessie Anderson, Howard Archer, Douglas Atkinson, Florence Baker, Annie Barnes, Arthur Beaumont, Robert Beaumont, Austin Beck, Harry Birchard, Mary Bland, Robert Bland, John Blanding, Margaret Blanding, Minnie Blanding, Janie Boone, Edward Booth, Mabel Booth, Cecil Bradford, Horace Bradford, Helen Bradley, Wiley Brazier, Alston Brown, Hugh Brown, Edward Buck, Denuward Bultman, George Bultman, Thelma Bultman, Helena Bultman, James Burns, Alice Bynum, Marian Bynum, Thelma Carr, Margaret Cheyne, Rosa Cheyne, B. R. China, Annie Churchill, Hal Clarke, Frank Clarke, Lloyd Cothran, Caroline Cuttino, Charles Cuttino, David Cuttino, Mary Darr, Beuna Delgar, Corinne DeLorme, Minnie DeLorme, Irene Dick, Alice Dickson, Irene Dixon, Waddy Duncan, Victoria Earle, DeSaussure Edmunds, Henry Edmunds, Mamie Edmunds, Robert Edmunds, Catharine Flowers, Lillie Folsom, Loulie Folsom, Richard Gallagher, Lily Gregg, Aaron Green, John Harper, John Harper, Jessie Haynsworth, Reita Haynsworth, Anna Dell Heriot, Kate Hinson, George Hurst, Marion Hurst, Isabel Jennings, Norman Jennings, Carrie Jones, Aiken Kennedy, Margie Kennedy, Jenkins Knight, Marion Knight, Mary Knight, Gertrude Kohn, Faith Kohn, Cecil Kolb, Julius Kolb, Theo Kolb, Lalla Lee Lucius, Roye Lowry, Fred Mason, Robert McKay, Henry McLaurin, Joseph McLure, Horace Muller, Blanding Nettles, Mildred Nettles, Henrietta Nettles, Wilbur Nettles, Elizabeth Osteen, Anthony Owen, Elizabeth Owens, Margaret Owen, Wilmot Owens, Bessie Parham, Kathleen Parham, Archie Phelps, Marion Phelps, Nell Phillips, W. R. Phillips, Julius Pitts, Mims Pitts, Vermelle Pitts, May Porter, Elna Ramsey, Annie Randle, Sallie Rembert, Alne Reynolds, Emma Reynolds, Sheldon Reynolds, Caroline Richardson, Bonnie Richardson, Mary Richardson, Nancy Richardson, Townsend Rivers, George Rowland, Cyril Schwartz, Leslie Schwartz, Rita Schwartz, Olivia Seymour, Florence Shaw, Gifford Shaw, John Shaw, Wilfred Shaw, Henry Shelor, Frank Sholar, Wiley Sholar, Bernard Sholar, Eunice Sholar, E. G. Sholar, Carroll Simpson, Iris Skinner, Ava Solomons, Baker Spann, Henry Spann, Reba Spann, Mabel Sparks, Janie Strange, Julius Stubbs, Kathryn Stubbs, Robert Team, Henry Thomas, Virginia Thomas, Elizabeth Thompson, Louise Troubfield, Lucile Turner, Ellsworth Vandervort, Mildred Wactor, Charlton Walsh, Catherine Warren, Harra! Whilden, Blanche White, Arner Wilder, Margaret Willford, Charles Wilson, Mabel Windham, Earle Witherspoon, Hal Witherspoon.

Table listing names of children not present in school, categorized as 'Not absent:', 'Neither tardy nor absent:', and 'DARK CORNER.'. Includes names like Clifton Beck, Charles Bradham, Gladys Chandler, Marguerite Chandler, Virginia Chandler, Frances DeLorme, Theo Lopez, Miss Sadie Seay, Miss Helen Beaumont, Miss Estelle Crowson, Miss Adele Bowman, Miss Miriam Mellette, Miss Marie Brown, Miss Minnie Moses, Miss Roberta Williamson, Miss Kathleen Bostick, Miss Mabel Booth, Miss Mamie Chandler, Miss Katie Clark, Rosalie Brown, Agnes Bryan, Anna Bryan, Constance Bultman, Walton Bultman, Alwin Burns, Hallett Burns, Inez Carr, Thelma Carr, Harry Chandler, Julius Chandler, Eddie Cuttino, Leland Edmunds, Sara Edmunds, Gertrude Epperson, John Gallagher, Ethel Green, John Green, Clarence Haynsworth, Elizabeth Hood, James Hood, Ansley Hurst, Maurine Ligon, Morgan Lowry, Walter Mims, Tom Monaghan, Marion Raffield, Susie Raffield, Katie Reardon, Raymond Schwartz, Margaret Waggonan, Leil Weathers.

Table listing names and points for 'The Item and Watchman and Southern Popularity Contest'. Includes names like Miss Annie Dollard, Miss Ellen Beach, Miss Anna Jennings, Miss Minnie Blanding, Miss Schuyler Cooper, Miss Nell McKagen, Miss Erling White, Miss Macy Smith, Miss Jaunita Bradford, Miss Elizabeth Hood, Miss Agnes Richardson, Miss Ethel Brunson, Miss Arnie Stuckey, Miss Laurel Carr, Miss Katie Hinson, Miss Bonnie Nunemaker, Miss Eda Tobin, Miss Martie Boyle, Miss Mildred Hall, Miss Rosie Hogan, Miss Louisa Thames, Miss Mary Ramsey, Miss Innis Cuttino, Miss Susie McKinney, Miss Marie Phillips, Miss 'azzie Winn, Miss Hattie Bradford, Miss Jennie Walsh, Miss Gladys Hurst, Miss Mary Pitts, Miss Lucile DeLorme, Miss Theo Lopez, Miss Sadie Seay, Miss Helen Beaumont, Miss Estelle Crowson, Miss Adele Bowman, Miss Miriam Mellette, Miss Marie Brown, Miss Minnie Moses, Miss Roberta Williamson, Miss Kathleen Bostick, Miss Mabel Booth, Miss Mamie Chandler, Miss Katie Clark, Rosalie Brown, Agnes Bryan, Anna Bryan, Constance Bultman, Walton Bultman, Alwin Burns, Hallett Burns, Inez Carr, Thelma Carr, Harry Chandler, Julius Chandler, Eddie Cuttino, Leland Edmunds, Sara Edmunds, Gertrude Epperson, John Gallagher, Ethel Green, John Green, Clarence Haynsworth, Elizabeth Hood, James Hood, Ansley Hurst, Maurine Ligon, Morgan Lowry, Walter Mims, Tom Monaghan, Marion Raffield, Susie Raffield, Katie Reardon, Raymond Schwartz, Margaret Waggonan, Leil Weathers. Points range from 91,110 to 1,000.