and a shirt of a water of the THE WATCHMAN AND SOUTHRON, DECEMBER 30, 1911.

Che Welatchman and Southron. TALBERT VS. TILLMAN. Published Wednesday and Saturday.

-BY-

OSTEEN PUBLISHING COMPANY SUMTER, S. C.

Torms: $1.50 per annum-in advance.

Advertin

One Square first insertion ..... $1.00 Every subsequent insertion .. .. .50 Contracts for three months, 0 longer will be made at reduced rates. All communications which subr as advertisements. Obituaries and tributes of respect be charged for.

Sumter Watchman was found-50 and the True Southron in Watchman and Southron both of the old papers. stly the best advertising mter a humorist as well as at delightful skit, st as Wille Jones, Thomas S. Bryan, of inole get-rich-quick him to a niche in the To ask these eminent urnish convincing realington and Young, the fters who got caught, pardoned was a stroke at only a humorist could ed. It was the merriest merry Christmas tide and stly indebted to Gov. many appreciative chuckloubt, however, that the financiers were made merry st for the joke was at their and dry grins were more beto them than care free hi-outlook for practical, progresconstructive legislation at the sching session of the general ably is not propitious. There is tief Justice to be elected, an A3ate Justice, a circuit judge or besides the usual run of minor fices to be filled. There will be a scramble among the office ekers and logrolling bypoliticians that there will be little time left for and the states

Col. Roomvelt is apposed to the

SAYS HE WILL GO VIGOROUSLY INTO CAMPAIGN FOR SENATE.

Will Put it All Up to the People-Has Been Giving Much Thought to the Senator, He Says.

The Greenwood Daily Journal publishes the following under an Edgefield date: It looks as if Senator B. R. Tillman and Hon. W. J. Talbert, of Parksville, S. C., former member of serve private interests will be charged Congress from that district, and both Edgefield men, are the only candidates in the field for the position now held by Mr. Tillman, for United States Senator. The successor to Mr. Tillman will have to be elected next year; but, he says that he can go back to Washington easily. Mr. combined circulation and Talbert does not think he can, and as he says in an interview on the subject which is given below, he is in the race till the votes are counted.

Mr. Talbert has been very quiet about his candidacy, refusing to be interviewed, saying that when the time came he would announce his platform. "As there seems to be so much interest in the race, your correspondent ventured to get from Mr. Talbert somethng about his position, but the effort has been only partially successful.

Your correspondent stated to Col. Talbert that some people expressed a doubt as to his being a candidate for the United States Senate next year and asked him the direct question if it was a positive fact that he would be a candidate for Senator in the coming primary. He replied:

"Yes, if not providentially hindered, I will enter to win and will remain in the race till the votes are counted." On being asked for an outline of the platform of principles on which he would run, he replied:

"Well, I think my past record amply answers that questions. I am no stranger to the people of South Carolina, and they already know my sentiments upon all questions regarding the common welfare of the country. Of course, at the proper time I will announce a platform and discuss from the stump all issues that may arise, but as "Old Hickory" said to his men at the battle of New Orleans. T will hold my fire till I see the whites of the enemy's eyes."

What have you to say as to the claim that Senator Tillman can beat that girl friend of the Greens (I forget her name) were married, it was one of those my-goodness - graciousjust-think-of-that affairs, with no one in on the secret except the suburban minister who tied the knot, the cabman who drive them out there and the girl from the minister's kitchen, who was a witness, and left a thumb-print of grease on the certificate (she was frying doughnuts at the time) and the minister's wife (at least the name was the same). Let's see, where was I? Oh, yes, when the Platts were married, it being that kind of a wedding. there was no chance to send them a wedding gift as I would have liked to do, or to have done, (whichever is proper, or grammatical, though I'm sure I can never tell which). But Mr. Platt is one of the nicest men in the office, that is, he was before this happened. So I felt we ought to do something for him, just to show our good will-and, anyhow, we've dug down for others we thought much less of, so why shouldn't we for him? But the wedding was over. without invitations, or even a reception, and they were housekeeping before we knew it. So what could we do?

Well, just then Christmas came along not just then but two months after the wedding. They were married October 29, so it wasn't quite two months, but that's close enough. When Christmas came along, that is, just before it came along, I suggested that we make up a purse and give them a sort of delayed wedding present, just to show our good will. Every-idea, that is, of course, except Mr.

HE club looked just the April. . . very thing Gerald Mannersley was craving for -a sense of home. A few lines read accidentally in an out-ofdate newspaper had Sept. . . longing for the old scenes. And so he had traveled two days and nights in a sleeper, vaguely connecting his journey's end with all the love and friendship his starved nature was demanding.

When he arrived at his old club on a chill, grey Christmas morning, it 324 last year. was only to find that fifteen years' silent absence had been too severe a test for friendship. The place was empty of all but servants, and they wore strange, unwelcoming faces.

He stood at the club window, look- Jan ing out on the desolate, deserted Feb street which he had always remem- Mcl bered as being thronged, and a great Apr sadness swept over him.

This was not what he wanted. From his pocket he drew out the scrap of paper which had really brought him so many miles, and looked at it bit- Au terly. It was only a death announce- Sep ment cut from a paper of a year ago, Oct and ran in the usual way-"Michael Nov Townley, at his residence," etc.

In fancy he saw a sweet-faced maiden, who them. The bells pealed on outside, and willing fancy led him still further into the realm of "might have been."

In an instant he made up his mind to visit once more the old-fashioned cottage not many miles away, to which he had hoped fifteen years beand see it, even if its neglected conand pain.

New York Cotton Market. New York, Dec. 28. Opened High Low Close. Jan.. . . 873 880 872 872-73 Feb. . . . 881-83 Mch. . . 891 896 889 889-90 893-95 May. . .904 908 900 900-01 June. . . 906-07 July. . . .915 919 911 911-12 Aug. . . . 912-14 921 - 23made him restless with Oct. . . . 926 933 926 926-27 Nov. . . 929-31 Dec. .. . .920 924 890 891-92 Spots, 9.35-15 off. Sales, 6,000.

The Markets

Opened steady. Closed steady.

Ma

Jur

Jul

Dec

Port reecipts today, 65,965 vs. 47,-

LIVERPOOL MARKET. Liverpool, Dec. 28.

Opened	Closed.
-Feb488	488
b-Mch	490
h-April 490	492
ril—May 492½	494
y—June	497
ne—July498	499
y-Aug 499 1/2	501
g-Sept 500	502
ot-Oct	503
t-Nov 502	503
v.—Dec	4881
c—Jan486	488
Receipts, 97,000.
American, all.
Sales, 4,000.
American, 3,500.
spots, 5.01-2 up.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Opened steady.
Closed steady.
W OBLEANS COTTO	N LEVE

NEW ORLEANS COTTON LETTER.

Strike Situation Still Serious-Statistics for Tomorrow Expected to. be Bullish.

New Orleans, Dec. 28 .-- Reliable inormation this morning regarding the labor trouble in Lancashire contradicts the rumors of settlement which were circulated by New York yesterday affore to take a bride. He would go ternoon. The strike situation is serious; weaving mills closed, locking dition only added to his loneliness 160,000 operatives, spinning mills go-other complications is expected.

Liverpool came in poor this merning, with futures about four lower than due, spota two higher, siles

4,000. Tomorrow's weekly statictics will be apparently bullish. The movement is smaller on account of bad weather and small holiday shipments, while mill takings will be large owing to heavy forwardings via the Pacific coast, being too early to feel the disturbing effect of the Lancashire strike. We compare with 279,000 takings for the week last year and 268,000 in 1908 the into sight for week looks around 469,000 vs. 456,-

We had a very narrow but steady market this morning. Feeling is bearish, but selling is held in check by the systematic support in New York which has been so conspicuous lately.

This buying is variously interpreted,

ome think it is directed at the general short interest, others think that

8 cents is considered the low point for the season and, as interests are large, it requires one cent to turn about, still others believe that a bul-lish census report on the 8th of January is the object, owing to delay to picking and ginning on account of

No further news was received from

As To Corn Growing.

corn championship we want to rise to ask again the unanswered question "why do not the farmers all over the country make use of the same means of cultivation of corn that the boys who win these prizes? We can see no use of walking a mule

and a man to death to make a small yield of corn on a large number of acres by the old plans when a great-

much smaller acreage, and not work

he made on his prize acre cost less than the other corn made on the plan-

Donald plantation wil be run on the

be seen that the corn made on this

While we are talking about this

the bad weather in this period.

000 last year and 428,000 in 1908.

CHRISTMAS QUIET AT MAYES-VILLE.

Students at Home from Various Colleges for the Holidays-Personal News.

Mayesville, Dec. 26 .- Christmas passed off rather quietly here. Business was only fairly good with the merchants, although better than many anticipated owing to the dullness of the fail season. Probably the bad weather had a dampening effect on things in general, too. Quite a number of visitors are in town and the college students are all at home and the week will, no doubt, be lively in a social way.

The Civic League will give an entertainment in the school auditorium tomorrow night, the main feature being "A Liliputian Wedding." This beautiful spectacle will prove a drawing card, no doubt, if the weather is favorable. After the entertainment, the ladies of the league will serve an oyster supper in the Pythian hall.

Miss Clara Womble of Sanford, N. C., is visiting Miss Edna Mayes, and her sister, Miss Margaret Womble is visiting her brother, Mayor N. D. Womble, being a guest at the Anderson Hotel.

Miss Bertie Gregg of Florence is visiting Mrs. M. C. Mayes.

Miss Fannie Mayes of Sumter spent Christmas at her home here. Miss Annie Mazursky of Barnwell is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. T. I. Kahn. Capt. and Mrs. H. A. Wells of Florence, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mayes during Christmas. Mr. W. B. Chandler and family of Columbia are visiting his mother, Mrs. R. A. Chandler, Sr.

Miss Tillie Morris of Sumter was the guest of Mrs. T. L. Kahn on Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Thomas, of Springfield, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Cooper.

The following college students are at home for the holidays: Masses Nettie and Sadie Mayes, College for Women, Columbia; Miss Louise Griffin, Winthrop; Capt. J. M. Werkman. Clemson; H. D. Corbett, Davidson Dr. E. M. Davis spent Christmas at his home in Florence County Miss Effie Simmons of Summerville is visiting her cousin, Mrs. E. G.

arbitration treaties and antagonistic to the unusual peace movement. Natavaile he is averse to peace, prosperity and happiness for all mankind, since this condition of affairs leaves ro field for the activities of an ambillious adventurer who can get on only by strift, turmoil and the disorganization of society. Nothing be President at a time of internal mighty Goliath of Gath." asarchy or serious foreign war that would afford an excuse for a military dictatorship.

The farmer who has hay or oats to oll next spring and summer need worry about the price of cotton.

hall rolling.

. . .

Uncie Jasper Talbert is saying comething again and so is John T. noise every now and then lest the people forget that they say they are candidates for office.

BOTH DANCES MUCH, ENJOYE

and Masquedrae Night Successful.

The dances given Tuesday afternoon and night were both much enjoyed and both were very successful. The costumes at the masquerade and ferns. dance were funny, grotesque and othorwise attractive, if not beautiful.

The occasion was one of the pleasantest dances which has been given in Sumter for some time. The masevening as the weather was too warm for them to long to wear their fancy costumes. Dancing continued until lous salad course was served. one o'clock, music being furnished by the colored orchestra.

Tuesday afternoon a small informal dance was given in the Armory time.

Marriage License Record.

the following couples Wednesday:

all comers and sit on his back porch or even allow people to vote for him after he is dead?

"Oh, I am not running especially against Senator Tillman nor any other man, out tor the office. At the same time, I will endeavor to be around with the 'pebble' of truth as would suit Roosevelt better than to was the shepherd boy against the

I see that in a recent interview Senator Tillman says he has given his opopnent no thought. What about that?

"I have nevert'veless given him more courtesy than that by giving him some thought; and I propose, when the time comes, to give the If Sumter county is to be organiz- people the result of my cogitations In the interest of the cotton acre- along that line and then leave the are curtailment movement it is time matter with them, believing that they Bat something was done to start the will consider my past services, and, also, lend an ear to what I may propose to do in the future, as I was not too young to bare my bosom to the storm of bullets from the battlefields Duncan. It is well for them to make of Virginia, and I am not too old to defend the principles I fought for in the forum, now."

Mrs. E. W. Vogel Entertains.

One of the most delightful events Informal Dance Tuesday Afternoon of the holiday season was the party Ball Tuesday given by Mrs. E. W. Vogel, 401 West Hampton Avenue, in honor of her guest, Mrs. W. T. Backus, of Van Wert, Ohio,

> The parlors were tastefully decorated with holly and banks of palms

> The guests found their places by matching sections of Xmas post cards.

A series of games of heart dice was played, at which Mrs. M. B. quaraders unmasked early in the Parham won the honors, a heartshaped plate.

At the close of the games a delic-

Trade at Home.

A Wilmington paper tells the story Hall by several of the young men of of how a lady in that town sent to the town and some of the boys at New York for a piece of furniture home from college. The dance was only to find when it was uncrated given to a number of their young that it was made in High Point, N. lady friends at home from college C., and that she could have saved the and visiting in the city. The affair freight from High Point to New was very much enjoyed and all of York and from the latter place to the young people spent a delightful Wilmington had she bought it in that town, and even then she could have bought it at a less price than she paid for it. Her only excuse was that no one in Wilmington advertis-Marriage licenses were issued to ed this special piece of furniture.

which was quite good enough excuse Mr. B. W. Brogdon, Jr., and Miss but shows mighty little enterprise Platt, whom, of course, I didn't concult. So I got up a subscription paper and went to averybody in the office (except Mr. Platt, of course). I got $26.60, including ten cents from the janitor, who wasn't expected to give anything but wanted to give some thing, which shows just how popular Mr. Platt was with everyone in the building, when a janitor even would chip in.

Christmas shopping is hard enough, goodness knows, when you do it for yourself; but when you do it for a stock company capitalized at $26.60, with 28 stockholders, with 28 different kinds of ideas and tastes, then Christmas shopping rises above a mere annoyance to the dignity of a real trouble. And that's what I was up against. I thought it would be nice to get an expression of opinion. So I went around one morning and asked for ideas. But I couldn't get a word. Nobody could think of anything. couldn't myself. At noon it went out and looked. I wasked miles I priced. then I went back to the office. You should have seen my desk. Honest, you would have thought some one had turned in a gen eral alarm. They couldn't wait for me to get back. There they were-28 of them, (that is, 27, or 28 with me) They all had suggestions, and they ! were all different.

The next day I looked again. But either a thing was too expensive or 1 would have money left. It is remarkable how few things there are in the world you can buy for $26.60, nc partment store, and marked down from $50 to $26.60! There it was, to a cent! A great, big, glittering, magnificent Punch Bowl! Nobody had thought of that!

ticket with it and told the Platts they they wished, for something they liked better.

Two hours later he was striding through the crisp country air along a winding path which led to a ram. their demands and apprehension of bling, ivy-covered cottage.

As the last turn brought him in sight of the house he stopped in surprise. He had expected to see dirt. ruin, and decay, but instead he looked upon a trim, well-kept cottage, and a soft, crooning song, in a voice which reawakened the tender memories of long ago, came floating through the unlatched door.

Half believing that it must be fancy leading him still, he entered the house softly, and, following the voice, went into the inner room, and stood in the glow of the warm firelight.

The sweet, tired-faced, middle-aged singer turned as his shadow fell across the light, and then stood white and trembling.

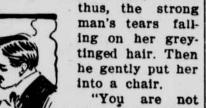

"Gerald!" she whispered. "Gerald! have you come to reproach me? Not today! Not today!"

The strong man's voice broke as he held out his arms.

"Nance!" he cried joyfully.

In a moment she was crushed, sobbing, to his breast "Oh, Gerald! is it really you? God is very good. I thought you must be dead." For several moments they stood alone?" he asked Liverpool as to the strike situation. as his eyes caught sight of a little table laid for two, daintily spread with Christmas fare. she answered. "I am quite alone. I have often come down here." "But you are expecting somebody?" he said, calling attention to the table. She flushed prettily, looking almost as young as she had in his dreams of the morning, as she replied: "I was expecting you, Gerald."

He smiled happily at her; then the smile faded, and he sighed as he sank er amount can be made on a very into a chair.

"This is all foolishness, Nance," he ing man and mule into the grave. said sadly. "You could not live here Jerry Moore tells us that the corn in the old days, you could do so less now, and I could not live here on another man's thousands."

A smile hovered over the woman's ation, but the plantation is still run face as she flitted here and there, on the same old extensive plan, and busily preparing things for a meal. 999 out of 1,000 plantations in the Then she slipped behind a chair, and state are run in the same way, and leaning over whispered with burning we are willing to bet that the Mecheeks:

"Perhaps you do not know, Gerald, same plan next year, though it may that-that Mr. Townley's money goes back to his family if-if I marry again."

acre, if it were multiplied by two or The man sprang to his feet and three, would be all that was wanted are still young. Will you let me try looks like mighty good profit to us. fering some choice young sows Her answer was drowned in the change established in this county, bred to full Berkshire sire, at very little more than pork prices. Some burst of Christmas belis that pealed from the village clutch close by, But and then there would be more of writer in his article which settled he did not need her worker, he could all this sort of thing raised, and the the price question said: "Plant see her eyes. farmers would be better and the some hogs." I am offering seed pigs. E. W. Dabbs, Mayesville, S. whole people would be better off .--Send us your job work. Florence Times. С.

ing on half time. Strikers added a Mr. Allison Thomas of Atkins five per cent, increase in wages to spent Christmas with his sister. Mrs. 10000

> Mrs. Henry Weinberg and children are on a visit to relatives in Goord 2

Shapiro and Edeistein of Parnwell, Paul Barber of Bafesburg, Mr. and Mrs. L. Strauss and Joseph Morris of Sumter, visited Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Kahn on Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Burgess of New Zion are on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. T. B. Fort.

Mr. Isaac Blodman has gone to Charleston to spend the holidays. Mr. I. Munnerson of New York is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Denemark.

Mr. Forrest White of Mation as in town for Christmas, visiting friends.

Prof. O. V. Hamrick of Shelby, N. C., who is principal of the Whiteville, N. C., school spent last Friday in town.

Prof. H. H. Haltiwe seen of the Mayesville school has gone to his home at Chapin for the holidays. Mrs. Lella Mayes of Sumter spent Tuesday with her sister-in-law, Miss Emma Mayes.

Miss Catherine Miller of Augusta is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Gar dner.

Mixing Paint.

is there anything more interesting in life than mixing paint, putting in black to darken it, yellow to lighten it. vermilion to make it bright, and green to see what happens?-Atlantic

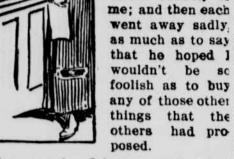

FARM FOR SALE OR RENT-Not having time to look after the farm we will sell or rent any part of it to desirable parties. J. J. Harby and E. H. Moses. 12-20-2taw

WANTED-A young man with small family to take charge of 4-horse farm near Sumter. None but hard worker need apply. Telephone 175, C. H. DuRant.

FOR SALE-Dixie Wilt resistant cotton seed, made this year on land that blighted last year 1,500 pounds of seed cotton to the acre. Address E. B. Colclough, Oswego, S. C. 12-6-tf.

WANTED-To buy at once carloads 4-foot pine, oak and slabs, Apply Commander's Wood Yard, Sumter, S. C. 10-24-11.

took her into his strong arms again. and corn that costs 33 1-3 cents a WANTED-To aid in the cause of "It is not too late," he cried. "We buhel and sells for $1. or even less more and better stock. I am of-more, no less. And then I saw it. It was in a de-

But, to make sure, I sent the sales could exchange the punch bowl, it

And what do you suppose those to make you happy?" latts did? in Junuary they traded in that magjunch bowl for three tons of (Copyright, 1911) Send us your job work.

"Yes,"

Pauline Brunson, Concord; Mr. on the part of the merchants of the Wallace Hodge and Miss Laurel principal seaport .--- Gaffney Ledger. Jones, Tindal. Moral.-Let our home merchants Among the colored people marriage advertise their goods and let our licenses were issued to Molock Mon- people trade with our home merree and Allisa Johnson of Mayesville. chants who advertise .- Exchange.