THE VERY GREATEST PROPHET. Luke i. 57-80-Jan. 14. "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel. for He hath visited and redremed His people."

F JOHN THE BAPTIST Jesus declared, "Verily I say unto you, of those born of women there bath not risen a greater Prophet than John the Baptist; and yet I say unto you that the least in the Kingdom of God is greater than he." (Luke vii. 28.)

These words are valuable as showing us that John was the last of the Prophets announcing the coming of Messiah and the beginning of the great work of selecting from amongst mankind a loyal class, to be associates with the Redeemer in His Messianic Kingdom. John could not be of the Kingdom class. His grand work terminated beer's sacrifice was finished-before Pentecostal blessings came accepting some as jointheirs with Christ in His Kingdom. John himself seemed to understand this, for he declared, "He that nath the Bride is the Bridegroom,"

The Prophecy of Zacharias.

St. Peter distinctly tells us respecting the Old Testament Prophets, that "Holy men of old spake and wrote as they were moved by the Holy Spirit;" that frequently they uttered deeper and broader truths than they themselves comprehended.

This is true of the prophecy of Zacharias, in this lesson. Verses 68-70 constitute the first division of this prophecy; praise to God. To Him all honor and praise are to be given for the fulfliment of His gracious promises of old, "for He hath visited and brought redemption to His people; He hath raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David."

Here, after the usual manner of prophecies, the thing about to be accomplished is spoken of as though it had been done.

six months before Jesus, it follows that the begetting of Jesus had already taken place at the time of this prophe-The Holy Spirit spoke of the things begun, but not yet accomplished, as though finished: "He both visited and brought redemption for His people."

This word redemption applies not only to the redeeming work accomplished by Jesus in the consecration of His life at baptism and down to the completion of His sacrifice at Calvary, but it is comprehensive enough to take in all the work of reclaiming humanity.

Deliverance From Enemies.

The second section or strophe of this prophetic poem runs from verse 71 to It relates to the deliverance of God's people from the power of their enemies. One important thought here is that none but God's people will ever be delivered from the enemies here referred to.

During Messiah's reign of a thou sand years, when all the blind eyes will be opened and all the deaf ears will be unstopped, and when the knowledge of the glory of God's character will be clearly revealed and the horribleness of sin be manifestedthen many, now led captive by Satan at his will, will bow the knee and confess to the glory of God.

In other words, as Jesus said, His consecrated followers are His "little flock" of the present time. But during His glorious reign He will gather another flock. As He said, "Other sheep I have which are not of this foldthem also I must bring, that there may be one fold and one Shepherd."-

The Preparatory Work.

"One fold and one Shepherd" does not signify that all of the sheep will be of the same nature. On the contrary, the Apostle tells us that God's Plan is ultimately to "gather together under one Head (Shepherd) | all things, both in heaven and in earth." (Ephesians i, 10.) Of these "all things' "Visited and redeemed Church, the Bride, will be chief, on the plane of divine nature. The Great Company, cherubim and angels will follow in order, and redeemed and restored mankind in human perfection will be the lowest order in the Divine fold.

The third section or strophe of this prophetic poem tells us of a work to be accomplished before the grand consummation of the destruction of all enemies and the lifting up of all accounted worthy to be sons of God. This is recorded in verses 76-79. It tells how John the Baptist would be the forerunner of the Lord's special Servant, Jesus, to pave the way for

AUTO LICENSE IN 1911.

Many Persons Secure Latest Vehicles for Transportation Despite Hard

Despite the reported hard times the automobile trade in this county was extreemly brisk during the year 1911. The number of self propelling motor vehicles registered in the office of the county clerk of court during the past year was one hundred thirty-six, sixty-one less than the total of what had been registered up to January 1,

It seems from this showing that there are quite a number of persons in this county who have found the automobile the quickest and most convenient, or most luxurious vehicle, for going about in and they have accordingly adopted the automobile as a means of conveyance suitable to themselves. Sumter county has always been one of the counties leading the State in its number of horseless vehicles and it seems that it is determined to keep among the
