

The Watchman and Southron. Published Wednesday and Saturday.

OSTEEN PUBLISHING COMPANY SUMNER, S. C.

Terms: $1.00 per annum in advance. Every subsequent insertion... .50

The Sumter Watchman was founded in 1850 and the Southron in 1854. The Watchman and Southron now has the combined circulation and influence of both of the old papers.

Gov. Blease has failed in his attempt to overthrow and bulldoze the legislature and the lawmakers have demonstrated that they can and will enact laws as they see fit without his interference.

Woodrow Wilson is rapidly becoming a man whom the people love on account of the enemies he has made. Some men always ride on the baggage wagon of the political party to which they claim allegiance.

Woodrow Wilson and the progressive spirit that animates the real democracy of that time have of the opinion that the people's way is not the way of the progressive democracy.

Schoolmaster to Conquer. "The Schoolmaster is abroad," said Lord Brougham, "and I trust to him armed with his primer against the soldier in full military array."

Oranges Grown in This Section. That oranges will and can be grown in this section of the country has been demonstrated by Mr. Frank Dantzier, of Vance, who has in his front yard an orange tree off which more than 100 fine specimens of this fruit have been gathered during the last month or two.

Marriage License Record. The following couples were granted marriage licenses Wednesday and Thursday:

Mr. Williams Epps and Miss Henrietta Chevias, Tindal; Mr. James E. King and Miss Arrie Stuckey, Sumter, white; Willie McFadden and Essie Pringle, Mayesville; Frank China and Lou Bossard, Concord, colored.

WAS BORN IN SUMTER COUNTY. Mr. William Mack, Secretary of Law Book Publishing Company, writes to Mr. H. D. Moise.

received a letter from Mr. William Mack, secretary of the American Law Book Company, the publishers of the Cyclopedia of Law and Procedure, a firm having its offices on Wall street, New York, in answer to a letter to the publishers noting a mistake in their recent volume in which Mr. Mack thanks Mr. Moise for pointing out the mistake to him.

Hon. T. G. McLeod was in the city Friday. Mrs. W. E. Renneker, of Charleston, is visiting relatives in the city.
