Death of Mrs. Mary R. Williford.

Mrs. Mary R. Williford died at her residence on Church street Friday as a result of a stroke of paalysls a few days ago. Mrs. Williford suffered a stroke of paralysis several enonths ago, and seemed to be getting well from it when the second stroke

Mhs. Williford came to this city about nine years ago from Winnsboro and has been living here ever since that time. She has made many friends in the city to whom her death will be felt as a personal loss. Soon after she came to Sumter she connected herself with the work of the Presbyterian church and she has been one of the leading workers in all of the societies of the ladies of the church since that time. She was a native of Yorkville, to which place her body was taken on Friday and the funeral was held Saturday at that

Mrs. Williford is survived by her brother, Mr. J. F. Glenn, and two sons, Wade H, and Quay Williford, and two daughters, Misses Leonora and Margaret Williford, of this city.

Influence of Clothes.

Clothes have a most surprising influence on the mind. If you don't believe it, some day when you are tired or perhaps blue, or even cross, take a bath, put on something dainty and fresh from top to toe, and your best go-to-meeting gown, and you'll feel as if a fairy wand had suddenly touched you with some wonderful transforming power. You'll find yourself looking at the world through a rosy mist instead of clouds of dull gray It will be easy to smile. - Suburban Life
