SCHWERIN-ROSENBERG.

Beautiful Home Wedding Celebrated Wednesday Evening.

A social event of the week which has created a great deal of interest here and elsewhere was the marriage on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother on Washington street, of Miss Octavia Harby Schwerin, youngest daughter of Mrs. Cecelia F. Schwerin, and Mr. S. H. Herbert Rosenberg, of Abbeville, the ceremony being performed at 7:30 o'clock by the Rev. David Klein in the presence of the families of the contracting parties and a number of friends and relatives.

The wedding was one of the most beautiful home weddings which has been solemnized in Sumter in some time. The house was most beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion, white and green being the color scheme, which was carried out in an elaborate manner.

The ceremony was performed under an improvised arbor of smilax, ferns and beautiful flowers, which added charm and color for the occasion. The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played on the piano by Miss Rita Schwartz, accompanied on the violin by Miss Ulrica Pate. The bridesmaids and groomsmen as they entered were: Miss Irma Nathan and Mr. Henry Wilson, Miss Marie Phillips and Mr. Marion Rosenberg, Miss Eula Lawton and Mr. Albert Rosenberg. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Julia Schwerin, a sister of the bride. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. Cecil Schwerin, and was met by the groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Ernest L. Visanska. Under the improvised arch the two plighted their troths and the Rev. David Klein joined them as man and wife.

After the marriage a reception was given at 8 o'clock to many of the friends and relatives of the bride and groom, hundreds of whom gathered to wish the young couple happiness and prosperity on their voyage of life. Afterwards the bride and groom left for a trip to Atlantic City where they will stay some time, later returning to Abbeville which will hereafter be their home.

The groom is a young business man of Abbeville and the bride is one of Sumter's charming daughters. Her many friends will be sorry to see her leave, but wish her happiness in her new home.

Attesting the popularity of the young people were the more than two hundred presents which they received. In the list of presents were all manner of cut glass and useful and ornamental articles.

The out-of-town guests present for the occasion were: Miss Eula Lawton, Garnett; Miss Irma Nathan, Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Levi, Manning; Philip Rosenberg Arthur Rosenberg, Albert Rosenberg, and Henry Wilson, Abbeville; Mrs. Sam Weinberg and Miss Helena Weinberg, Wedgetfield; Mr. and Mrs. Julius M. Visanska and Messrs. Ernest L. Visanska and Ernest Rosenberg, Charleston; Marion Rosenberg, Greenwood; Mr. Cyril Isaacs, Conway; Miss Ruth Levy, Athens, Ga.; Miss Franke Lesene, Silver.

FAMILY OF 15 POISONED.

Fatal Fourth of July Dinner—Some Dead, Others will Die.

Augusta, Ga., July 9.—It has just developed that forty-five people, all members of the Canady family, near Garfield, Ga., were poisoned at a family reunion at the home of Mac Canady, on the Fourth of July. Indications were that poison was put in several articles used in the dinner, since every member of the family at the table was a victim, and all of them did not eat of any one particular kind of food.

Last Saturday, Tillman Canady, one of the brothers, died. Yesterday Mrs. Faircloth, daughter of Mac Canady, and one of her children, died. Thirteen members of his family are seriously ill at the home of Mac Canady. Ben Canady is in a critical condition, and every member of his family is sick.

Appeal has been made to the city hospital in Augusta for assistance, the appeal stating that twenty-five members of the Canady family are in a critical condition. Four trained nurses, all the hospital could spare at the time for emergency calls, were rushed to Summertown, and will be taken through the country to the Canady home.

A long distance telephone message from Garfield tonight says the total number poisoned is forty-five, of whom the dead to date are: H. Tillman Canady, Henry Covena, of Wesley, Ga., Mrs. Faircloth, a daughter of Mac Canady, and her child. Seven others can't recover, according to the physicians' statements.

The poisoning resulted from mixing a seasoning containing black pepper and vinegar in a zinc tub and used on barbecued meat.

The Canady family and connections are among the most prominent and well-to-do people of Emanuel County.

After Many Years.

Dr. J. A. Chambliss, recently elected pastor of the Anderson Baptist college, will fill Dr. Brown's pulpit next Sunday. The older citizens of Sumter will doubtless be glad to hear him. A few notes from an old church book may not be without interest.

Rev. W. D. Rice resigned the pastorate of the Sumter Baptist church in the fall of 1860. In January, 1861, Mr. W. F. B. Haynsworth presented to the church the name of J. A. Chambliss as a possible pastor. In May, Mr. Chambliss was elected, and a presbytery appointed to ordain him. He was then a young man, fresh from the theological seminary. The ordination took place here in Sumter in June of 1861, at the hands of Messrs. Williams, Nichols, Graham and Fleming. The War between the States was raging. In 1862, Mr. Chambliss stated to the church that he was strongly impressed with a desire to go as a chaplain in the Southern army. While still retaining his place as pastor, he spent most of his time in the army of Virginia until December, 1863, when he tendered his resignation to the church, and took up his abode in the camp with those who wore the gray. It was at this time that, having given up their pastor, the church bell was tendered to the Confederate authorities to be used, as far as it would go, in casting a cannon for the use of Capt. Garden's artillery company.

After the war, Dr. Chambliss was pastor in Richmond, Va., for four or five years, and came to the Citadel Square Church in Charleston as pastor in 1872. Of late years, he has had work in the North, preaching at East Orange, New Jersey, and also acting as literary critic for a large publishing house. He is now seventy-two years of age, but is still effective as a worker and speaker. He will arrive in Sumter on Saturday afternoon, and will be the guest of Mr. W. M. Graham.
