

POST OFFICE BILL PASSED.

GOES THROUGH AFTER TWO DAYS OF FIGHTING.

New Parcels Post System is Barred on Zone System—Measure Goes to Conference for Settlement of Differences.

Washington, Aug. 13.—The annual postoffice appropriation bill passed the senate tonight at the end of two days' sharp fighting over provisions relating to parcels post, good roads improvement and the affiliation of postal employes with labor organizations.

As it goes back to the house it contains some restriction on the right of postal employes to organize, an entirely new system of parcels post, based on the zone plan, with varying rates for varying distances. The measure will go into conference with many important differences remaining to be settled. The house provided that no employe of the postal service should be subject to reduction or removal for joining an organization having for its object improvements in conditions of labor or compensation. After a fight involving the right of government employes to strike, the senate today approved this in part, but provided that employes should not join "any organization which imposes any obligation or duty to strike or to assist in a strike against the United States." Under the terms of the bill as it passed both houses, employes have the right to appeal to congress for redress of grievances.

The Bourne-Bristow parcels post system, which the senate substituted for the flat rate of 12 cents per pound by the house on packages, provides for eight zones, varying from 50 to more than 1,899 miles, and a graduated rate ranging from 5 to 12 cents per pound. The limit of weight is 11 pounds. A rate of 5 cents for the first and 1 cent for each additional pound is provided for rural route and city delivery.

Instead of allowing overtime pay for the services of carriers and clerks in cities the senate adopted Senator Bourne's amendment that when an employe worked overtime he should be paid in "compensatory time" within six days.

Senator Hoke Smith asked for a vote on his amendment to allow publishers of publications issued tri-weekly or less frequently the option of sending second class matter by first class freight at 1 cent a pound, or by regular mail at 2 cents a pound. It was agreed to by a vote of 29 to 28.

Politics in Anderson County.

Williamston, Aug. 13.—Up in Anderson. Many people from old families are tenants, which means, of course, that they have no settled abiding place, and many of them, losing their grip on life, have done the last thing, gone to the cotton mill. I am not discussing the cotton mill and its problems, but Anderson county and the conditions obtaining there. No other county, save one or two, has so many cotton mills and in no other county have mean men (I use the term in its broader sense) gained such prominence, swaying the masses by appeal to passion and prejudice. It is a matter of history how Anderson was brought into notice by some of its leading men. Those same men, by appeal to race prejudice, have made, are making, capital out of that affair today. This county, as all know, is the home of Citizen John Ashley who had lost to a degree until recently when, by his connection with certain affairs and men, he has become a king among men. Besides the race prejudice already alluded to I suppose that no where in the country is class prejudice stronger than here, where it is bitter almost to hostility. And this man Josh Ashley, with others of his ilk, unwise as it is, do not hesitate to appeal to that or any other like thing to carry their point, so that many good men, sane enough in other matters, have been swept off their feet. And so Anderson the proud, Anderson the grand and glorious, Anderson whose fathers fought and bled and dared and died in the struggle for independence, will go down in history as a supporter of Blaine. How her yeomanry, the men upon whom as on a bed rock all good government rests, must smart under the disgrace. Never were the words of more force than now "Convince a man against his will, etc." Reason and argument count for nothing, conscience is prostrated and passion and prejudice, deaf and blind, reign supreme.

"Hagood."

Some men are born great, some men achieve greatness and some men organize parties whose duty it is to thrust greatness upon them.—Chicago Record-Herald.
