AIKEN MAN SHOT TO BEATH. PEACE DELEGATES IN LONDON.

BRADFORD COURTNEY KILLED BALKAN COMMISSIONERS READY BY NEGRO AS RESULT OF DISPUTE.

Posses Scour Country with Bloodhounds in Search for Harris Miles, Who Did Shooting.

Aiken, Dec. 12 .- Bloodhounds from State penitentiary are tonight trailing Harris Miles, a negro, who, from Paris. They were greeted at the if caught before morning, will be lynched. The negro this afternoon shot and killed Bradford Courtney, of the various legations. one of the foremost citizens of Aiker county and one of the county's most successful planters. Posses of deterin search of the negro who was seen in the outskirts of Aiken shortly before 7 o'clock tonight. He was shot at but escaped.

The Miles negro worked on Mr. Courtney's place, four and a half miles from Aiken, near Prothros mill, where the killing took place this afternoon about 4:30 o'clock.

Miles followed Mr. Courtney to his by his employer for some misconduct and demanded a settlement. Mr. Courtney refused to settle with the negro, telling him that as he (the negro) was angry to go home and bornly refused to leave as ordered, and Mr. Courtney took up a stick and struck him.

The negro pulled a pistol and fired, the bullet entering Mr. Courtney's throat directly beneath the chin. He wheeled and walked toward the house, but fell dead before he had try, is causing considerable uneasitaken 20 steps. But for the fact that ness here. the pistol was loaded with only one vall, Mr. Courtney's son. O'Neal, would likely have been killed by the negro also.

After shooting Mr. Courtney the negro turned the weapon on his son. B. O. Courtney, a brother of the dead man, running up, interfered, and, snatching the smoking pistol from the negro's hand, turned it upon him. It snapped. Throwing the hold of the negro with one hand and ain as it is desired to limit the disother. The negro broke away, ran and made his escape.

Courtney, the news reaching town created much excitement. The frienzied search for the negro begun immediately. Sheriff Rabon wired to Columbia for the bloodhounds, which came through the country in an automobile, reaching here about 8 o'clock. It is believed that the negro is still in the vicinity of Aiken and half a dozen posses are guarding against his making his escape either to Georgia or out of the county The searching parties believe they will eatch him tonight. If they do, he will be shot to death.

The dead man has a large family connection in this county, and besides his wife and son, he has two brothers living here. Mr. Courtney was about 56 years of age.

IRVIN T. JONES IS SHOT BY CHIEF OF POLICE.

Mistook Citizen for Fugitive in Patch of Woods.

Aiken, Dec. 12 .- Irvin T. Jones, a well-known farmer living near Aiken, was shot and seriously wounded tonight by H. H. Howard, chief of police of Aiken, while both were engaged in search for Miles Harris, the slayer of Bradford Courtney.

Chief Howard had gone to the edge of the town where the negro had last been seen and had posted men at points there to keep a lookout for the fugitive. As he was returning, passing a patch of woods, he saw a man approaching him with a gun, and thinking it was the negro wanted, he covered him with his revolver. The man promptly covered the policeman with his rifle. It developed latter that Mr. Jones thought chief Howard was the negro wanted.

After the pollceman had fired it was discovered that Irvin T. Jones had been seriously wounded. The bullet struck him in the stomach and striking a button was deflected through the body. The injured man was hurried to his home and an operation performed, removing the bullet. > The regulations provide that parcels of merchandise, including farm and factory products (but not books and printed matter) of almost every description up to 11 pounds in weight and measuring as much as six feet in length and girth combined, except those calculated to do injury to the mails in transit, may be mailed at any postoffice for delivery to any address in the country. Delivery will be made to homes of people living on rural and star routes, as well as those living in cities and towns where there is delivery by carrier. Where there is at present no delivery by carrier, the parcels will go to the postoffice as is the case with ordinary mail.

The postage rate for the zone, that is, within distance not exceeding 50 miles, will be 5 cents for the first pound and 3 cents for each additional pound. Rates increase for each successive fleight zone in which the country is divided, the maximum rate being 12 cents a pound, which will carry a parcel across the continent, or even to Alaska, or the Philippines. For a fee of ten cents a parcel may be insured and if the parcel is lost in the mails an idemnity to the amount of its value not to exceed $50 will be paid to the sender.

The law provides for the use of distinctive postage stamps and there is now being distributed to postmasters for use in the parcel post system as set of stamps of 12 denominations. Parcel post maps with accompanying guides are to be sold to the public at their cost, 75 cents, through the chief clerk of the postoffice department.

MOTHER FINDS STOLEN CHILD,

John Wilson, Greenville Boy, Located. George and James Metcalf Accused of Kidnaping.

Asheville, N. C., Dec. 12.-After practically an all night search the members of the police department today located John Wilson, the crippled boy, who his mother, Mrs. Harriet Rogers, declares was kidnaped from her home in Greenville, S. C., Tues-

The two men accused of kidnapping, George and James Metcalf, are in the city jail, being held without bond to answer the charge of kidnapping before Judge Adams tomorrow morning.

The crippled boy was found at Weaverville, about eight miles from this city, and is being kept out there until tomorrow morning, when he will appear in police court as a witness against the Metcalf brothers. His mother left today for Weaverville, to stay with him tonight and bring him to court in the morning.

The two Metcalfs are reported by the police to have told two different stories about the affair. One of the brothers said late last night that they had brought the boy with them, but that he had left the train at Biltmore and they had not seen him since. 'he other is reported to have said today that they did not want to bring the boy with them, but when they got to the train they found him there with his ticket already purchased and he announced his intention of going. He said that when they arrived in Asheville the boy announced his intention of going to Yancey county to visit relatives and that he then took the car for Weaverville.

The two men will be arraigned in police court tomorrow morning.
