

RUNAWAY FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

Horse of J. T. Brogdon's Runs from Pocalla Into City.

On Friday afternoon what came near being a serious accident occurred when a runaway horse ran into a man on a bicycle at the corner of Main street and Hampton avenue throwing him under the buggy, but failing to injure him in any way. The horse is said to belong to Mr. J. T. Brogdon, who lives near the Clarendon county line in the lower part of the county. It started to run at Pocalla, when it got away from Mr. Brogdon's son when he had taken the bridle out of its mouth so that it could drink. Miss Brogdon was in the buggy at the time and could not stop the horse, as the bridle was not in its mouth. She endeavored to stop it, but it continued running and she jumped out of the buggy, slightly injuring her shoulder in the fall. The horse continued its progress into town, a distance of probably three miles. At the corner of Main and Hampton avenue it started to turn, but an automobile there prevented this and the horse wheeled to the right, the buggy striking the man on the wheel at this point. It was thrown against a telephone post and smashed. The horse continued to Canal street and was caught near the jail.

HARTSVILLE FESTIVAL ENDS.

Brilliant Performance Marks Close of Music Feast.

Hartsville, May 7.—The Coker college festival was brought to a triumphant close tonight with Rossini's "Stabat Mater," gloriously sung. The artists and the chorus approached the oratorio in an almost devotional spirit. When the solemnity of the subject of "Stabat Mater" is considered, Rossini's music seems brilliantly operatic. John Barnes Wells, the tenor, added to his laurels tonight by his rendition of the most terrestrial of the numbers, "Lord Vouchsafe Thy Loving Kindness." Miss Hardie and Miss Stoddard sang the much embellished duet, "Power Eternal," with finished artistry. The climax of the evening and lamentably, its end also, came when Miss Stoddard sang the wonderful "Inflammatus" ("When Thou Comest"), with choral accompaniment. Her rich soprano soared through the ear-delighting melodies of "Inflammatus" like a blazing rocket. Mme. Nassua sang the soprano cavatina in the oratorio accompanied by Mr. Nassua on the organ.

In the first part of the evening's programme the four artists, Mr. Wells, Mr. Martin, Miss Hardie and Miss Stoddard, each sang groups of three songs, light compositions which immediately established the bond of sympathy between artists and audience beyond danger of rupture. As an encore Wells sang "Why," a graceful composition of his own, in which he set up the syllogism "All the world loves a lover; Betty is all the world to me," and bewailed its illogical conclusion.

The chorus delighted the audience once more tonight. It sang Loring's "Minnehaha," and was enthusiastically encored.

The programme for the afternoon was varied and delightful. Will Latta Nassua, the noted Philadelphian, played one movement from Whiting's sonata and two from the "O Filii" of Lemmens in a masterful manner. He generously encored both numbers.

The audience heard Madame Nassua's rich mezzo-soprano for the first time this afternoon. She sang two famous arias, "Mild Und Leslie," from Webber's "Der Freischutz," and Mozart's "Il Re Pastore." Both were rendered most artistically.

Miss Katherine Reed of the music department played a violin obligato for the Mozart aria beautifully.

Miss Mary Frances Scott and 12 of her vocal pupils sang Knowlton's tuneful song cycle, "Hawthorne and Lavender," which breathes the spirit of the seasons. Misses Green, Hewell and McCutcheon, three talented members of Coker's vocal department, took solo parts in the cycle.

Eldin horns and witching pixie bells caroled and tinkled in the "In Fairyland" song cycle, arranged by Morgan and sung as the last number of the programme of the afternoon by the artists, Miss Stoddard, Miss Hardie and Mr. Wells and Mr. Martin. Mr. Wells and Mr. Martin had to repeat their solos, "The Water Nymph" and "Robin Goodfellow." Wind, ushering in a thunderstorm, which sprang up just as Mr. Martin began to sing, furnished a natural accompaniment for his rollicking "Robin Goodfellow."

Health a Factor in Success.

The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular—he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are sold by all dealers.—Advt.

CONVERSE PLANS CELEBRATION.

Today Will See Observance of Quarter Centennial of Founding of College.

Spartanburg, May 7.—The quarter centennial of the founding of Converse college will be celebrated tomorrow as a feature of festival week. Members of alumnae of the college from all over South Carolina and other States are here for the double occasion. An open meeting of the alumnae will be held tomorrow at 11 o'clock in the college chapel, when the history of the college will be reviewed and when the presentation of 1,200 books to the college library will be made. These books are donated by alumnae individuals and associations and will be given as a memorial to the late Miss Matte Gamevell, for years head of the English department of Converse.

NAVARETTE GETS READY.

Prepares for Possible Attack of Americans on Mexico City.

Vera Cruz, May 9.—Gen. Navarette, commanding the federals at Jalapa, has mounted many guns at Cerro Colorado to resist an expected American advance on Mexico City. It is reported that the federal army is causing trouble on account of being unpaid for many months and lack of food and supplies. Many are deserting, others are threatening mutiny.

"WAREHOUSE" EACH BALE.

St. Matthews Man's Invention May Revolutionize Storage.

St. Matthews, May 9.—Mr. C. F. Zeigler, of this community, is in receipt of a patent, after due and patient effort, on an invention for simple and portable warehousing of cotton. Each bale is enclosed in a fire and water proof container, which requires no additional space, no buildings, no automatic water sprinklers, fire insurance or watchmen. Each container is provided with a placard bearing the number, weight and grade of the cotton contained therein so that there is no necessity for disturbing the stored cotton.

Mr. Zeigler is a natural-born mechanic and was in the business all his life until a few years ago; the business became too strenuous for his declining years, so he moved out on the farm and has been much interested in agricultural pursuits. He will be glad to furnish cuts, drawings and full information to those desiring same.

Improvements at Salem Church.

The recent improvements made to the building of Salem church are very marked. The recessed pulpit and baptistry with dressing rooms (the rooms are also used as Sunday school class rooms) are added to the east side of the building. This, with other internal improvements adds greatly to the appearance of the auditorium and comfort of the audience. The pulpit was designed and built by Mr. C. R. Elm and is a gem.

The old "Rubber Works" building is a thing of the past, as you will see the next time you go down South Salem Avenue, for the building presents a bright and attractive appearance, all of the unsightly lettering obliterated.

For these improvements the church and congregation are very grateful to all who assisted by their contribution of funds, labor, or patronage at our entertainments.

Rev. J. W. Guy's lecture on Thursday night was quite a success in every particular.

Police Make 11 Arrests After Disturbance at Church.

New York, May 10.—The police made 11 arrests in Cavalry Baptist church today in quelling a demonstration which occurred there during the morning services against John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who teaches Sunday school at the church. Mr. Rockefeller was not present. Today's demonstrators were of a new group calling itself the Church of the Revelation, led by Bourke White, formerly pastor of a congregational church in Brooklyn. White and ten followers including a woman were removed from the church to patrol wagons.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

"My sister's husband had an attack of rheumatism in his arm," writes a well known resident of Newton, Iowa. "I gave him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liment which he applied to his arm and on the next morning the rheumatism was gone." For chronic muscular rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liment. Sold by all dealers.—Advt.

STRIKE BREAKERS KEPT OUT.

Order is Issued at President's Direction Through the Secretary of War.

Trinidad, May 10.—President Wilson, through the war department today, instructed Col. James Lockett, commanding troops in southern Colorado, to permit no importation of strike breakers and further announced a time limit would be set immediately in which the delivery of arms must be completed.

The announcement that Secretary Garrison had given such instructions to Col. Lockett was made in a statement by Maj. Holbrook tonight. Col. Lockett announced that the war department had determined to permit the rehabilitation of the strikers' tent colony at Ludlow, providing federal military officers are given a roll of the inhabitants, together with the address of their former places of employment, and provided further that a union man of strong influence, with whom the military officers may confer, is placed in charge of the camp.

Hyndman Peak, Idaho, the highest named peak in the State, is more than 12,000 feet high. Several unnamed peaks near it are of about the same elevation. All are on the divide between the Sawtooth and the Lemhi national forests.

The hose wagons were called out on Friday evening about 7 o'clock by an alarm of fire from the Penn Lumber Company plant. The fire had caught in the dry-kiln, but was extinguished before the hose wagons arrived.

What Did She Think He Wanted?
The Millers went on a tour by motor car and arrived late one evening at a village, which was crowded for the annual fair. There was only one inn and not a bed in it to be had. The couple were tired out and felt unable to go any further, so Miller said to the landlady: "Can't you give me a bundle of hay?" "I'm sorry sir," she said. "There's not a thing left but a bit of cold roast beef."

Wanted More Information.
"What do you understand by 'edible fungi'?" "It has something to do with mushrooms on toadstools," replied Father Cortnessel. "But whether it's what you swallow or what happens to you afterward I wouldn't like to say without writin' to the department."—Washington Star.

Why?
Sometimes it seems as if every person who was lacking in initiative, special ability or industry desired to be either a writer, an actor or an artist. The most agreeable way for a lazy person to make a living is to express his own opinions, emotions and impressions.—Barner's Weekly.

ALL BANKS HAVE SUBSCRIBED.

Minimum Capital for Regional Reserve Institutions Has Been Furnished.

Washington, May 7.—Each of the 12 federal banks has subscribed the minimum amount of stock, $4,000,000, to effect organization. Of the 7,501 banks to be in the system, 6,097 today furnished their subscriptions to the organization committee. Three hundred banks subscribed to the stock today, bringing the total amount subscribed up to $6,267,000. Tomorrow is the last day on which subscriptions may be received.

"The largest number of subscriptions received from any one district," said a treasury statement today, "is from the Chicago district, in which 781 banks have made their subscriptions. In the Dallas district 607 banks have subscribed."

News and Views of Pisgah.

Pisgah, May 6.—We are needing rain very much, especially on oats and gardens. Cotton chopping is going on. The stands are fairly good, also corn.

There is a great deal of sickness in the country, mostly spring complaints; as yet no serious cases.

The public school at Pisgah will close this week.

On Saturday afternoon there will be a public debate at Pisgah church on "Woman's Rights." Afterwards the ladies of the church will sell ice cream for the benefit of the church.

Mrs. J. K. McLeod of Rembert returned home Monday from Columbia, where she had been staying sometime with her sick mother, Mrs. A. I. Allen, who is still quite sick.

Miss Madge Rogers went to Columbia Saturday to visit relatives and take in the city. She returned Monday.

While in Columbia Monday I saw a number of men from the upper part of the State, and they laughed at the idea that the delegates from towns represent the people of the State in change of sentiment. Wait until the August primary, then talk. We will then know which way the cat jumped. There is one thing certain. Without a change, this State will have two parties before long, for the present state of affairs will not last. There is a socialist party, also a progressive one forming, if I am correctly informed. No one party can always control a State without getting corrupt. Such is the history of the northern States and such will be the history of the southern States before long.

The Mexican president is still master of the situation. Pity we have a president that can't see what Huerta is driving at, playing for time so he can get better prepared to continue his warfare. Roosevelt would have had him by the neck long ago and a government formed that would be respectable. Look at Cuba and there is the lesson. The majority of the Mexican people are of that mixed and cut-throat character that nothing but the force of arms will bring them to terms and make them behave themselves. Let Mexico fool with Germany and you will see what will happen. It makes one sick to be continually taking insults from that cut-throat crowd.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Association Goes on Record in Resolution Referring to Schools.

Laurens, May 7.—After electing officers for the ensuing year, selecting Greenville as the next convention city, passing resolutions of thanks for the hospitality extended on this occasion by the people of Laurens, and placing itself on record as approving medical inspection in schools, the eighth annual session of the South Carolina Graduate Nurse's Association adjourned this afternoon.

In the election of officers Miss Julia Irby, of this city, was chosen as president of the association for another year; Miss L. M. Davis, of Sumter; first vice president; Miss Arnette Benson, of Columbia, second vice president; Miss Virginia Gibbs, of Columbia, secretary and Miss F. J. Bulow, of Charleston, treasurer.

Two sessions of the convention were held today and were marked by consideration of many matters of importance to the association. A pleasing and interesting feature of the morning session was the presentation of a fine paper by Miss Sarah Babb, of Greenville, representing the Red Cross Town and County Nursing Association.

The building programme includes two battleships, one to be built in some government navy yard, six torpedo boat destroyers, one sea-going torpedo boat, three coast defense submarine-torpedo boats, to be constructed on the Pacific coast, and four submarines.

The "little navy" men made their final stand against two battleships on a motion to send the bill back to the committee, which was defeated 201 to 106. Democratic Leader Underwood, Republican Leader Mann and other prominent figures in the house supported the motion.

MANY WIRES GO DOWN.

Telegraphic Communication Cut by Storm.

Atlanta, Ga., May 7.—Wind and rain combined in a storm that swept southern Georgia and Florida this afternoon. Savannah, Jacksonville and Tampa were among the points cut off from communication with the outside world.

BLEASE RALLY HELD.

Speeches Made at Monaghan Mills Park.

Greenville, May 7.—A political rally was held at the Monaghan mills tonight. The governor was the principal figure, and was the only speaker who succeeded in arousing any considerable enthusiasm. John L. McLaurin devoted much of his talk to the primary, opposing restriction, and much of it to his attachment for the governor. Sam J. Nicholls of Spartanburg, candidate for congress, also made a speech.

Gov. Blease charged that the county conventions did not "tote fair," with his supporters. He said that in some counties "Democratic bolters" and others not loyal to the party were rung in to beat his men. He told his hearers that if a doctor attempted privately to examine a young daughter of his, if he had one, he would kill that doctor. He also told the crowd that if any doctor attempted privately to examine a daughter of any one of them, to kill that doctor and "another garden would be issued." These remarks were made with reference to the medical inspection bill. The governor spoke disparagingly of Superintendent Evans of the Spartanburg schools.

The meeting was orderly throughout.
