am glad to note that they

the crisis demanded it, the State companies.

DAY FROM TRIP TO FLOR-

rects to complete the task before governor has signed the set of the Funston and his chief of staff continued to profess the belief that all was well with the treeps below Casas Grandes but the report from Chihuamanders of compat and under the hua made insignificant any anxiety has a unanimous vote was necestary for a deliberate all matters.

Laterday morning Gov. Manning T. R. Beltran, Mexican consul here, attended a meeting of the atheing suited early consult that he had not received confirmation of the report with his state bonds were the was inclined to laugh at it as discussed. The new bonds amounting a "border rumor."

According to the version reaching to the version reaching.

he has not desided upon the personnel to held the place was believed by for the board of review for the South milleary men here but it was not lum appropriation—a point that has already been settled by the supreme editorial in The State along the line gators of the United States public of the State taking care of the insur- health service have found however ange if the exigencies of the occasion that discarded tin cans containing rain circulated in the insurance offices in to recorded erstem, and upon the management of in the bottom. his duty to the tor McLausin) have injured the inpity, and it was a cular that "such sentim the writing of a letter terests of the people of South Caro-

Senator MeLaurin is expected back they are now in the offenteday, Advices received d toe a common from him at his office here are to the effect that minimum information the them, this sight for commercial sent out from Columbia has created in New York the false impression that Senator Banks stated further than the State in trying to punish the

VILLA ADDS TO COMPLEXITY OF MEXICAN SITU-

All is Well, but News of Revolt Brings Grave Concern-May Foreshadow Extensive Troubles.

San Antonio, Texas, Reports that Gen. Luis Herrera, commanding 2,600 men at Chihuahua, had ligned himself with Francisco Villa stainst the United States were received tonight with grave concern by Gen. Funsion and his staff. Officially and unofficially the opinion here was that with Herrera joining forces with Villa the international situation might easily be made so complex that by comparison the pursuit of Villa would be regarded as incidental.

The long intervals between reports

According to the version reaching the doy. Manning said putterday that the only of Chihunbun if he attempts he that the holding of the city was his plan.

Military observers here see a posthe connection with Herrori's redisting in the interruption of the German havel base at wises between Casas Grandes and wises between Casas Grandes and Thares might have thought they were being used by Gen. Pershing for combinate according to reliable munication with Gen. Function. (ed) and soldiers. It was the most United States in its efforts to run down Ville and his followers. Cutting of the Northwestern raffway at ertain points would make it impossible for the Americans to use it for forwarding supplies for many days. that it was feared Herrera might make to go north and east along the trail to Olinaga and emulate Villa by attacking Presidio. A small Ameriin force is there now and this probably will be strengthened. Herrera's eported defection caused surprise to hese who know his former intimate relations with Carranza.

No information has been made pubconcerning the movement of the that several dispatches had been reeived by Gen. Pershing, in command the American troops; but that they all were of a routine nature.

Late tonight Gen. Funston reported to the war department that an invesigation proved there was no truth in report that 27 army motor lerries ad been found 30 miles off the lines march in northern Mexico with

In congress during the day Senator Sherman of Illinois (Republican) in-troduced a resolution to authorize the Mexico. The resolution was placed on the table to be called later.

The Tin Can Menace.

Who would have thought that the in can is a menace to the public He mid he wanted to commend the health? The expert malaria investiwater are breeding places for the moscircular to which Senator quito which is the sole agent in even to bury differ- Banks referred in his statement is a spreading malaria. A hole in the botcopy of a "letter of N. B. Dial to the tom of the empty can might have renewspapers." a copy of which has suited in the saving of a human life. apparent- been forwarded to the State ware- Certainly it would have assisted in house office here from New York, as preventing a debilitating illness. arder of their seal for the a part of the matter which is being Empty tin cans have no business about the premises anyway, but if M. McMaster's New York. It is an attack. Mr. we must so decorate our back yards, of aurin, but I do Banks says, upon the State warehouse let's see to it that the can has a hole

THOUSANDS OF VOTES

May be Secured by Taking Advantage of the Largest Extra Vote Offer Which Expires Saturday, April 1st, at 10 P.M.

During this period Every Club of $15 in Subscriptions to The Daily Item or The Watchman and Southron will count for 150,000 Extra Votes over and above the regular scale. Any Yearly Subscriptions will count on this offer.

It is not necessary to turn in clubs in even amounts of $15 each. At the end of the extra vote offer, April 1st, the subscriptions that each Candidate has turned in up to that time will be totaled and a voting certificate for 150,000 Extra Votes issued for every $15 in subscriptions each candidate has turned in. This offer also applies to the few subscriptions that have been turned in heretofore.

NOT TOO LATE TO ENTER

HERE ARE THE PRIZES

First Grand Prize

Overland Touring Car, Fully Equipped, Value $750.00

PURCHASED FROM

OVERLAND SALES CO., SUMTER, S. C.

Second Grand Prize

Saxon Roadster, Special Equipment, Value $475.00

PURCHASED FROM

CAROLINA SAXON CO., COLUMBIA, S. C.

Call. Phone or For Full

The DAILY ITEM OF Phone UHIII HIGH MUIL. WATCHMAN and SOUTHRON