Mr. Alston James of Summerton was a visitor to the city Thursday.

Misses Helen Kohn of Columbia and Janette Victor of Atlanta are the attractive guests of Miss Rita Schwartz, who has recently returned from Columbia, where she attended a house party given by Miss Kohn.

It will be of interest to many people to know that it has been estimated by one of the dealers that in the city of Sumter alone approximately $400 is spent each day for gasoline. Most of this gasoline goes into automobiles and is used for pleasure, although of course, considerable part of that consumed by automobilists is used on business, and gasoline engines use a part of that sold here.

ARRESTS FOR LIQUOR SELLING.

Fifteen White and Colored Persons Charged with Violations of Law.

From The Daily Item, June 6.
Fifteen arrests were made yesterday for alleged violations of the prohibition law at some time between May 19th and June 4th. The cases are mostly single ones, but in some cases there are several against one person. Seven cases charged against Sam Brown and four against A. P. Surles, two against Horace Nelson.

Those arrested are, white, A. P. Surles, Sam Brown, W. M. Butler, Tom Wadford, J. M. Surles; colored, A. B. Bradley, John Epperson, alias Simmons, Glenn West, James Williams, Richard Jones, Missie Peterson, Clara Johnson, James McLane, Horace Nelson. The charge is selling whiskey in each case.

The cases were worked up by R. H. Broadway and D. S. Bateman on the one hand and J. M. Bradham on the other, the two parties working separately. The cases were called at noon in the Recorder's court today and date set for trial of each.

The following of those arrested yesterday for violations of the prohibition law were tried before Recorder Harby today and sentences passed as follows:
Winnie Singleton, selling whiskey, plead not guilty, but found guilty, $100 or 30 days.
Glenn West, plead guilty, $50 or 30 days.
Missie Peterson, alias Edna Wilson, selling whiskey, plead not guilty, but found guilty, $100 or 30 days.
James McLane, selling whiskey, plead not guilty, but found guilty, $100 or 30 days.
Horace Nelson, alias Arthur Howard, plead not guilty on two counts, but found guilty on each, $100 or 30 days on each charge.
Richard Brown, carrying weapon of unlawful size, plead guilty, $15 or 30 days.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONFERENCE.
The attendance at the Interdenominational Sunday School Conferences at Shiloh on Tuesday and at Mayesville on Tuesday night were both well attended and interesting sessions were held at both places. At Shiloh talks were made by Mr. Webb, the secretary, and several others who stressed the importance of the work. Mr. Webb told of what had been done and what was desired in the Sunday school field.

The meeting on Monday night at the Presbyterian church was a pitifully small one.

The revival services which were in progress last week in the Camden Baptist church, will probably close tomorrow night. The pastor, Rev. J. A. Davison, is being assisted by Rev. W. E. Thayer, pastor of the First Baptist church of Sumter. His sermons are very forceful. A very large congregation was present Sunday night to hear Mr. Thayer, and his discourse was one of the most forceful ever listened to by a Camden congregation.—Waterloo Messenger.

County Board Meeting.
From The Daily Item, June 7.
The meeting of the Sumter County Board of Commissioners yesterday was a very quiet one. The time of the board was consumed in auditing bills and in going over with the architect, Mr. Walker, the plans for the new jail building. Mr. Walker explained the plans and it is probable that the commencement of work on the jail is very much nearer now than it has ever been before.

Among the appropriations announced by the general education board yesterday two South Carolina institutions are awarded sums, Coker College at Hartsville, $5,000, and Mayesville Industrial school at Mayesville, $1,000. The board announced appropriations of $798,980 for educational and research work.

Those of the recent graduates from Winthrop College who have already accepted positions to teach next year, according to the Rock Hill Record, are: Miss Cecile McKagen, at DuBose; Miss Mary Haynsworth, at Wedgefield; Miss Katie Pitts, assistant home demonstration agent of Sumter county. Miss Margaret Shaw will teach at St. Charles and Miss Evelyn Montgomery at Bishopville.

IN THE RECORDER'S COURT.

From The Daily Item, June 7.
Several of those arrested on Monday for selling whiskey have been tried in the Recorder's court and all of them thus far have been found guilty. Several have entered pleas of guilty and asked for the mercy of Recorder Harby.

The first case against A. P. Surles for selling whiskey consumed the whole of Tuesday afternoon, a verdict of guilty being returned by the jury which tried the case. Messrs. Wood & Duffie represented Surles and J. H. Clifton represented the city, as he is in all of the liquor cases. A sentence of $100 fine or 30 days at hard labor was imposed by the recorder. This morning Surles plead guilty in the three cases remaining against him and was sentenced to pay $60 or serve 30 days at hard labor in each case. He paid $200 and the remainder of $50 fine was suspended for thirty days which time he was given to raise the sum.

Tom Wadford was tried without a jury for selling whiskey and found guilty. He was given sentence of $70 fine or 30 days imprisonment at hard labor.

J. M. Surles plead guilty to selling whiskey and was given a sentence of $50 or 30 days' imprisonment. The fine was paid.

Richard Jones, colored, plead guilty to the charge of selling whiskey and was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or serve 30 days.

The case against W. M. Butler was next taken up without a jury and he was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or serve 30 days' imprisonment, sentence being suspended on condition the defendant is not again charged with violation of the prohibition laws.

From The Daily Item, June 8.
The last of the twenty-four liquor cases which were worked up by detectives since May 19th and for which the arrests were made on last Monday, were wound up today in the Recorder's court, which has been held in the county court room for the past three days in order to more conveniently accommodate the crowd which attended the hearing of the cases, this morning.

Of the twenty-four cases only one was tried by a jury, the others being tried before Recorder Harby, and there has so far been only one motion made for a new trial. There was a conviction in the cases tried by the recorder, as well as in the one tried by a jury. The motion for a new trial was made in the case of Tom Wadford, who secured a lawyer after the trial of the case, and he had been convicted of selling whiskey. This motion was heard by Recorder Harby this afternoon.

The cases heard yesterday afternoon and this morning and disposed of were as follows:
Sam Brown, plead not guilty, but was convicted on seven counts, and given sentence of $60 or 20 days on each charge.
James Williams, selling whiskey, forfeited bond of $75.
A. B. Bradley, selling whiskey, plead not guilty but convicted, sentence of $100 or 30 days.
Clara Johnson, selling whiskey, plead not guilty, but convicted, sentence of $50 or 30 days, suspended during good behavior.
Johnnie Epperson and Johnnie Simmons, not arrested.

ELECTRICAL STORM AT PISGAH.

Hall and Wind do Much Damage to Young Crops.
Pisgah, June 7.—An electrical storm passed over here last night, giving the second heavy rain of the year. It came from the west and indications are that it was heavy at Camden and over the river. Considerable hail fell, which beat off the wheat and buried and split up the cotton and corn.
All day the wind blew in gusts which whipped the crops about. Great clouds of dust were continually blowing to the discomfort of all. The electric display last night was grand.
