THE THEATRE

Shirley Mason in "Merely Mary Ann."

Israel Zangwell's famous play "Merely Mary Ann," produced as a motion picture by Fox Film Corporation with Shirley Mason as the star, at the Rex theatre tomorrow.

The role of the young "slave" in the London boarding house is admirably suited to Miss Mason's dainty quaintness. The play owed its success on the stage to its delightful blending of humor and pathos and the force of every situation is intensified in the film version, which was scenarized and directed by Edward J. Le Saint.

Miss Mason is expected to overtop the success she made with "Her Elephant Man," "Love's Harvest" and "The Little Wanderer"—all Fox productions. She is supported by an exceptional cast, containing such well-known players as Casson Ferguson, leading man; Harry Spangler, Georgia Woodthorpe, Babe London and "Kewpie" Morgan.

IN MEMORIAM THOMAS WILSON.

Death has again invaded our ranks and taken from us our esteemed, loved, and honored Vice-President of The National Bank of South Carolina. It is eminently proper, therefore, that we, the directors of this institution, whose some of his last counsels and ripened services were rendered, should pay a fitting tribute to his memory.

Mr. Wilson passed away in the city of New York on the evening of July 1st, 1921, in the seventy-first year of his age. He was born at Airdree, near Glasgow, Scotland, and received his early education and training in Scotland; and the inestimable benefits conferred by that system of education then prevalent in Scotland made a lasting impression upon his life and character. He brought the superiority of his training and thoroughness to the country of his adoption from New York, where he first landed, to the Carolinas, where he spent the greater part of his life. It formed the foundation of his character—clear thinking, sound judgment and unremitting work, performed with indomitable energy, were the keys to his success. All these qualifications were greatly enhanced by the maintenance and advocacy of what he believed to be right and just, and that indescribable quality or combination of qualities which we call force of character.

In his latter years he built a charming home in the city of Sumter, enjoying the respect and confidence of the community and the people of his state, happy in all his domestic relations in that home where he enjoyed "that best retirement, friend to life's decline" with most of his children around him and the devoted wife of his early years by his side.

"How blest is he who crowns in shades like these a youth of labor with an age of ease."

As a mark of our respect for the character and memory of the deceased:

Be it resolved: That in the death of Mr. Thomas Wilson The National Bank of South Carolina has lost a valued and steadfast friend and our community has sustained the loss of one of its leading citizens, whose place cannot soon be filled.

Second: That we cherish the memory of his friendship and loyalty, his strong, rugged character, his manly, sincere speech, and his sound advice and co-operation in the work of the bank.

Third: That it is with heartfelt sorrow at his loss we contemplate that life of untiring energy, marked by faithful service, which should be an inspiration to us and the working force of this bank in the discharge of the duties devolving upon us. We shall remember him who has gone "for what he has done."

Fourth: That as a further token of respect to his memory the bank shall suspend its business on the eighteenth day of July, 1921, at the hour of noon, at which time this memorial shall be read in the presence of the directors and officers assembled in the director's room of this bank.

That a copy of this memorial be inscribed in the permanent records of the bank and that copies be presented to the papers of the city for publication.

That the secretary be directed to send a transcript of this paper to the family of our deceased friend and Vice-President, assuring them of our sympathy and our sense of loss.

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Why just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigarette aftertaste.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Collision on Pocalia Road

Saturday night a collision occurred on the Pocalia road between a Buick touring car, driven by Mr. "Bub" Shaw and a buggy driven by Robert Singleton colored. The buggy was a total wreck and the Buick was turned over on its side and badly damaged. Robert Singleton was painfully but not seriously injured, receiving cuts and bruises about the head. The horse which was attached to the buggy, strange to relate, was not hurt. Mr. Shaw escaped uninjured and of other occupants of the Buick—Messrs. Aubrey Bradham, Billy Bowman and William King—Aubrey Bradham was the only one injured at all. He was thrown from the car when it turned over and was rendered unconscious for a few minutes. The others were thrown clear of the car and were not hurt. The cause of the accident is said to have been that the driver of the Buick was blinded by the glare of the headlights of another car that was approaching.
