THE WATCHMAN AND SOUTHRON, JANUARY 18, 1922

his point. And "I haven't time" docs not dealing largely with business trans- tainside, the Junker and the saber actions. Stocks and bonds were rattler flying before us, the tunes prove if!

others, but of our own initiative.

therein lies the greatest pleasure lish family. of honest work. All of us can improve-for right now.

Here is the most inspiring sent her. Her wishes were carried thought I can bring you at the be-similing of a New Year. And, if we are all agreed on this, we can fir. Watt was interred in Pine View round out 1922 with results which cemetery yesterday afternoon. Any will make us all rejoice.

J. Ogden Armour.

Kcep the Work Going. (Rock, Hill Record).

The Record hopes the York county delegation will pay due heed to the recommendations made at the meeting here last Thursday. is underiably a fact that the for in the affairs of the farms and Millerand for approval. ine farm homes, and the work should be kept going. It would be very false economy for either ed from the county supply bill. it: and we must have progress.

Mrs. Roosevelt

All of us have time to improve- prominently mentioned in many of being 'Dixie' and 'Yankee Doodle,' not only at the suggestions of the letters, the evidence being that the cry being 'Hail the French Rethe deceased was a man of means public-Hail the Republic of Rus-All of us wish to improve-for and member of a prominent Eng- sia- welcome the Commonwealth of the Vaterland-no peace with Instructions were received Friday the Kaiser-no parley with Aunight from this sister that inter- tocracy. Absolutism and that diaround all about us are many ment be made here, that her vine right of Kings-to hell with things on which: we may start brother be given a first class bur- the Hapsburgs and the Hohenzolial and a bill of all expenses be lerns."

The Owls in The Attic.

ative present to mourn his death, (George Ballard Bowers, in Our Dumb Animals).

A California gentleman from the secret or tragedy that the man's city purchased a big country home life may have contained remain- that had been vacant several years. ing forever locked in his own After spending a large sum for improvements, he moved in to find creasing numbers, scurried, squealed, and fought in his bedroom and that the rats made his nights POINCAIR WILL COMhideous and the gophers destroyed his lawn, garden and trees as soon PLETE CABINET TODAY as they were planted. To add to his discomfort, a half-dozen barn owls Paris, Jan. 13 .- The impression chose his house for a meetingwork of the York, county farm prevails that Raymond Poincare place. They flapped, stamped. demonstration agent and the home will complete his cabinet today fought and hissed on the roof, and demonstration agent is a great fac- and submit the names to President in the attic, while the rats, in in-breast.

Developing Dairy Industry-

kitchen. One night the exasperat-Expansion in Sumter county ed man went out with his gun to one of these officers to be eliminat- along dairy lines is gradually com- fire at an object in the moonlight. ing about. Many more farmers and with a dull thud a heavy body Progress in county affairs means are selling cream now to the fell on the veranda roof.

taxes, of course, but we cannot creamery than were doing so a When morning came, he climbed have progress without paying for month ago, and from the inquiries into the attic to find an open winmade at the Creamery it is safe to dow leading out to the veranda. say that more will yet do so. The where he found the big owl he had campaign for publicity along these killed, but, on the floor under the lines has attracted notice not only rafters of the attic. another in this county, but further off. To blinked her big eyes to see what handle cream in quantity a separa- danger was near. She left her nest tor is needed: The DeLaval Sep- with two white cggs to crowd into arator Company, 165 Broadway. a corner. The eggs and the bird New York, writes that they cover did not interest the man so much this territory regularly, and will be as the materials of the nest, built glad to cooperate in pushing the of bits of fur and bones of his enedairy movement. The International Harvester my, the rat. The attic floor was strewn with bits of dried rat skins company writes the Young Men's and bones. He now understood and Business League that they have stroked the hissing, frightened bird noted the movement in this coun- affectionately. That night a halfty and then goes on to say:

"We maintain an Agricultural flapping, hissing and stamping, but Extension Department, and we are the disturbed sleeper only smiled. anxious to co-operate with you in He was glad his friends were havany effort to promote better farming. We are especially interested ing a good time. After another week the noise of in dairying, and we find that the house ceased, not a rat or a ers are interested in dairying, and mouse was to be seen, the only own from three or larger herds of sound heard in the night was a cows that it is always a prosperous gentle swish of wings mingled with low hisses; then noisy shricks had county.

"We are sending you a copy of gone with the squealing and scurour new booklet entitled, The Cow. rying rats.

Fearing that his friends had the Mother of Prosperity. "From the many excellent testi- gone, he returned to the attic one monials which we have received evening to find the mother owl with reference to this booklet we guarding two funny little balls of are led to believe that it is an ex- whitish gray cottony down, with ceptionally good one when it comes booked beaks and tiny talons reto the subject of dairying. No sembling those of the big fellow he doubt a distribution of this booklet had killed, and reminding him of in your county would do consid- two tiny white monkeys huddled in erable good. If you will give us a corner for warmth. your list of farmers who have cows, He snapped out his light to we will be glad to mail all of them watch. Noiselessly an owl friend Widowed Daughter-in-Law Dewho request it a - y of this book- entered with supper for the little · Ethelda Bleibtrey, called the world's greatest woman swimmer, has a new job. But she hasn't laid aside her swimming suit. She's playing ball in it-that's Ethelda batting-at Atlantic City, where che has taken charge of the Ambassador Swimming Club.

Aids Famine Stricken

Julia Ward Howe Hall, great-granddaughter of the author of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," is chairman of the Junior Commission for Russian Famine Relief, in New York.

SUES FORMER KAISER

will go further. They will be driv- kans to America, a letter addresen to the conclusion that the State sed 'Albania' was sent from Engbudget of $6,466.$34.53 which Gov- land to the United States, and was enor Cooper approves for 1922 is was returned from Albany N. Y., Oakland Avenue, R. H. Roberts, utterly beyond the reach of the with the notation 'Not for Albany, 892. people of South Carolina this year, try Europe.' no matter what new methods of gives and along with them will

"Few travelers visit Albania and taxation may be devised and agreed information about the present day aspects of the country is meager."

the figures which Governor Cooper ter that characterization, before ca.' And more than a century af-

The two main sources from Some First-Hand Impressions which South Carolina gets its cash The bulletin then quotes the first money are its cotton crop and its hand impressions of Brig. Gen. cotton mills: Most of the cotton mills are in the Picdmont country. George P. Scriven, U. S. A., who Most of the cotton in 1921 was was in Albania during the war, and made in the Piedmont country. wrote to the National Geographic There were eleven counties of the Society as follows: State which, according to the gin- "The towns of Southern Albania ning figures. suffered no damage are few and, though strange and from the boll weevil in 1921; that picturesque in appearance, are in is to say, they made practically as reality poor in comfort. Of cities much cotton in 1921 as they did there are not any. Keritza, with in 1920, several of them more. some 20,000 people, is the largest These counties were Anderson, place, but it is far from being a Chester, Chesterfield, Cherokee, city. However, if the towns are Dillon, Greenville, Marlboro, somewhat mean and squalid, they Oconee. Pickens, Spartanburg and are interesting to the eye and have York. In these eleven counties the charm of old-world quaintness. 404,451 bales of cotton were ginned There are but four worth mentionin 1921. In all the other counties ing: Arjirokastro, so old, at least of the State only 353,876 bales were in appearance, that its origin falls ginned. The cotton crop of thirty- back into the mists of time; the five counties last tear had a cash pleasant village of Premati, lying value at eighteen cents a pound of in a fertile valley along the river $31,848,840. The State and county Viosa: Koritza, held by the taxes assessed against these thirty- French: and Valona, clean and five counties in, 1921 amounted to thriving under the Italian army. $11.745,095.87. That was more "They are all pleasant places to than a third of the value of the look upon, nestling among the money crop of these counties and it mountains, in the valleys, and by leaves out of account the city taxes the sea, with their old gray walls and the Federal taxes which the and roofs of stone dotted with people of these counties had to storks; but they possess none of

The members of the Legislature have but to study the figures county by county to be convinced that Mcdern Conveniences Lacking no shifting of the tax burden will "Such matter-of-fact things as take care of the situation this year. trams, hotels, or cafes do not exist There are counties in South Car- in Albanian towns and would olina, quite a number of them, seem wholly out of place. Water where the State and county taxes is drawn from the wells as it was more than double the total revenue 4,000 years ago, or maybe from of thee ountry i n1921 from the cot- some nearby stream. Inns are repton crop. There is a long list of resented by the khan, a stone buildcounties where the State and coun- ing, half house, half stable, where ty taxes were from a third to a caravans and pack trains stop to half the county's income from cot- rest.

ton. This being the case the fact "Albania belongs to a time as should be apparent that neither far back as the annals of the the property owners nor anybody world can reach and is as primielse in counties where such tive as if it were in central China. conditions exist can meet tax bills almost as difficult to penetrate as such as South Carolina has had the Tibet itself. It is a land unfamil-Last two or three years. Those tax iar to the traveler and shunned bills were based on the flush years by the tourist of today.

of 1919 and 1920. The flush period "If the three or four-centers of having passed the appropriations population in southern Albania are simply must come down. With no a little disappointing as cities, this sure money crop yet established in is not true of the country or of the place of cotton the Legislature dare picturesque villages which gather not this year impose taxes. State or county, totalling, as did the taxes er hills, where they appear to last year, in most of the counties, have nestled since the beginning of over a third the value of the cotton time. Rough stone huts they are to compromise the s-ttlement out- Governor Cooper does well in his for the most part, with flat stone annual message to urge tax reform roots. For purposes of defense, but more important at the present they are usually situated half way mands Maintenance Allowance Yale scientists says the meon is fire than tax reform is tax reduc-the war helped introduce the Bal- Street, Dr. E. R. Wilson, $75. Recovering house on Hampton Avenue, E. R. Wilder, $225. Recovering four room house on rage, H. L. Tisdale, $30.

Repairing office on Washington

PAGE 5

Constructing five room house of Purdy Street, Sam Sumter, $1,000. Building gasoline filling- station, Eastern Carolina' Motor 'Co., $125. -Construction of two room house on Manning Avenue, Mattie Winn, Repairing of store on W. Liberty Street, C. G. Rowland, $225. Construction of room to house on Northwestern Ave., A. Wright, $60.

Erection of colored church on W. Liberty St., $700. Thorf

Repairing-house on W. Liberty street, T. S. Drayton, $1,000. Repairing of five room house on Blanding Street, W. A. Walling, $360. Building house on E. Liberty St.,

J. J. Brennon, $6,000. Building two stores . on Main street, McCallum Reafty Co., each $4.000.

London, Jan. 13 .- Georges Carpentier may ask for another fight with Jack Dempsey . Mer meeting Ted Lewis, the Evening Standard was informed by, Francois Des-Camps, Carpentier's manager.

Straight of Line

the comforts or conveniences of modern life.

ide the court.