

Special Children's Entertainments Popular Chautauqua Feature

Four unique children's entertainments will be given at the coming Redpath Chautauqua in addition to the regular programs for adults, each of the entertainments for the youngsters being given on a different day.

TARIFF BEFORE THE SENATE

Democrats Join in Discussion of Administration Measure Washington, April 25.—Increased duties on drugs, dyes, inks and paints proposed in the administration tariff bill came under fire today from senate Democrats in the second day of general debate on the measure.

BATTLE IN IRELAND

Mullingar, Ireland, April 27.—Fighting broke out today between regular and irregular Republican army forces stationed here in anticipation of Eamon de Valera's anti-treaty meeting to be held Saturday. Hostilities continued for two hours and one was killed on each side and six wounded.

GERMAN AND RUSSIAN AMBASSADORS

London, April 27.—Diplomatic relations between Germany and Russia will be resumed immediately, Prof. Wiedenfeld has been appointed German ambassador to the Soviet and Leonid Krassin represents Russia in Berlin.

COURT RULES OUT DISHONEST LABELS

Decision is Said to Broaden Jurisdiction of Federal Trade Commission Washington, April 24.—Labels or brands under which articles are sold, when open to construction in the mind of the purchasing public that they describe the component ingredients or materials used in the manufacture of the articles, must clearly and definitely describe them, the Supreme Court today held in an opinion delivered by Justice Brandeis in a case brought by the Federal Trade Commission against the Winsted Hosiery Company, of Connecticut, Justice McReynolds dissenting.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSN. Pageants To Be Held in All Counties of State

Spartanburg, April 24.—Interest is being aroused over the state in the series of community child life pageants which are being promoted by the South Carolina Sunday School Association and which will be held in practically every county in the state. In most of the counties from five to a dozen of these pageants will be held.

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE

One Mule Burned to Death, Another Badly Burned, Provider and Farm Utensils Are Demolished in Early Morning Fire Messrs. R. E. Lee and L. D. Brown, prominent farmers of the Oswego section, had the extreme misfortune of losing their barn, with its contents, wagons and farm implements, and one mule when this barn was burned at about 2 o'clock Thursday morning. It is not known how the fire started. One mule saved was found to be too badly burned to be of service.

Body of Engineer Recovered

Norfolk, Va., April 26.—The body of C. W. Hussey, of Elizabeth City, N. C., chief engineer of the Easton Line steamship, Brewster, which was sunk in a collision on James river Friday, was recovered near Sturgeon Point.

Story Hour at Grace Baptist Church.

There will be a story hour for all the children of the city at Grace Baptist church May 7th, at 4 o'clock. At this service an offering will be taken for the children's work of the state Sunday School Association.

BETTER SERVICE FOR TRUCKERS

Pennsylvania Railroad Will Merge Refrigerator Car Service With Fruit Growers' Express Philadelphia, April 26.—As a measure to secure for the public the maximum service from its specialized equipment for handling perishable traffic, the Pennsylvania Railroad will, effective May 1st, discontinue entirely the operation of its separate refrigerator car lines, and will merge all of its refrigerator cars, numbering 5,927, with those of the Fruit Growers' Express. Thereafter the Fruit Growers' Express will assume all refrigeration and protective car service on the lines of the Pennsylvania System.

NEW RUSSIAN DEMANDS UP

Genoa Conference Thrown into Confusion by Soviet Delegate Genoa, April 24 (By the Associated Press).—Another new twist in the Russian tangle again causes disquietude in conference circles. Scarcely the Russian delegates have developed a new set of proposals. It is understood that at the meeting of the experts on the Russian question this afternoon the complete wiping out of the war debts and also relinquishment of all arrears on interest on pre-war debts. Simultaneously they asked for assurances that the powers would grant loans sufficient to enable Russia to reorganize her national bank.

IS COOPERATIVE MARKETING WORTH WHILE

Experience of One Anderson Farmer Shows in Dollars and Cents That It Pays Clemson College, April 26.—"Many farmers still seem not to see the great advantage to be derived from joining the cooperative association," says Director W. W. Long, of the Extension Service, in speaking of the six-up campaign in this state now nearing its close, "and yet we are frequently having just such illustrations of the value of cooperative marketing as is found in the story coming from S. M. Byars, county agent of Anderson county, concerning some cotton belonging to an Anderson farmer."

TELEPHONE RATE CASE

Recent Act of General Assembly Reducing Rates Point in Issue Charleston, April 24.—A hearing was held in the telephone injunction case today by Judge H. A. M. Smith of the United States Eastern district court, and after hearing arguments of attorneys representing the plaintiff, the Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph company, and the various state authorities, Judge Smith took the case under consideration. The plaintiff had petitioned for an injunctive injunction restraining state officials from enforcing the recent act of the general assembly regulating the maximum price which may be charged by telephone companies in the state, and in the meantime Judge Smith had granted a temporary restraining order, and the defendants then petitioned that the plaintiff's complaint be dismissed.

MORE FRICTION IN IRELAND

Rupture Between North and South Seems Imminent Belfast, April 26 (By the Associated Press).—A breach between the Dublin and Belfast governments which Ulster political quarters declare may also entail a rupture of the London agreement is indicated by a statement issued by the provisional government in Dublin this afternoon, announcing that it is unable to cooperate with the Belfast government in an inquiry into the Irish railways.

CHAUTAQUA IS COMING

Buy Your Tickets Now—Chautauqua Begins May 6th During the next week you will likely have several boys coming to you trying to sell you a Chautauqua ticket. These boys are working hard to help the Y. M. C. A. meet its guarantee to the Chautauqua and also to get a season pass to the Chautauqua. Every year people wait until the last day and make it extra hard for the boys and also the committee who have the selling of the tickets in charge. This year the program is extra good having two good plays which alone would cost the price of the season ticket. The male quartet will also be one of the main features. A company of Hawaiian players and singers will undoubtedly be popular with the summer people. The entire seven day program will be shown you by and of the boys selling tickets. If for any reason the boys fail to see you if you will phone the Y. M. C. A. No. 22, and ask that a boy be sent to you you will be served immediately. The war tax is not on the tickets this year as this brings the price down some. The price of the tickets for the season: Adult $2.75; children, $1.50. Student have not come yet but will likely be $1.50.

INCOME FROM EXTRA TAXES

State Treasury Receiving Returns From Income and Gasoline Taxes Columbia, April 25.—The state income tax is beginning to come in, according to officials of the state tax commission. Already many citizens of the state are paying up. The tax is due next Monday, and all persons who have not paid by that date will be liable to legal action under the recently enacted state income tax law. To each person who made a federal income tax return this year has been sent by the state tax commission a blank affidavit form, on which statement is to be made as to the amount of federal income tax paid. One-third of this amount is to be paid the state.

SHIPPING BOARD JOINS "RATE WAR"

Not Only Meets Reductions of Lampart and Holt But Goes One Better Washington, April 24.—The shipping board as a result of "the rate war" of the Lampart & Holt Steamship company in South America, through the four shipping board vessels of the Munson line, has not only met those rates but made a further reduction to $295 to Rio de Janeiro, $345 to Montevideo and $360 to Buenos Aires, but these, Chairman Lampart said, were "their three inferior ships."

NEW REMEDY FOR HOOKWORM

United States Department of Agriculture Discovers Safer and More Effective Drug Following the discovery by the United States department of agriculture that the chemical, carbon tetrachloride, is effective against hookworms in animals, numerous trials in various parts of the world have given strong indication that it is the long-sought remedy for this parasite in human beings. This important advance adds another discovery to the list of those that department scientists have contributed to human medicine, one of the most important of which is the fact that certain diseases may be transmitted from one animal to another by such external parasites as ticks and insects. If it comes up to expectations, and all tests made so far have been highly encouraging, this drug will be a boon to millions of people in many parts of the world.

HIGH SCHOOL CONTESTS

Rock Hill Debating Teams Win Semi-Finals Columbia, April 26.—Of the seven high schools represented at the University of South Carolina today in the debating contests incident to the annual high school debating, oratorical, expression and athletic exercises, Rock Hill's two teams go into the finals tomorrow morning for the cup. The two teams are: Affirmative, Catherine Masey and Julian Star; negative, Katherine Hammond and Anderson Bass.

MINSTREL TO BE GIVEN AGAIN

At the request of Dr. S. H. Edmonds, the members of the Old Home Town Minstrel are to stage another show at the Girls' High school auditorium on Tuesday night May 2nd. The proceeds from the performance will be donated to the High School Athletic Association, which is badly in need of funds and it is hoped that a sufficient amount may be raised to help the boys materially in financing for the coming season. The show went over in good style when given before at the Academy of Music and the members of the company are working hard to make it a real evening of fun and enjoyment "as time."

MR. SCHWARTZ ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. Raymon Schwartz entertained on Wednesday afternoon at bridge. Tables were arranged for the game amid a profusion of sweet peas and roses. The highest score was made by Mrs. William Courtwright, who received a piece of lingerie as prize and the consolation was cut by Miss Martha Williams, who received a box of tea powder. A delicious sweet course was served by the hostess. Those playing were: Misses Martha and Louise Williams, Bessie Mears, Madames Gus Sanders, Pringle Brunson, Lynch Deas, Jack Skinner, Bruce Lyman, Eddie Nisde, William Courtwright, Nancy de Savannah, Kershaw Skinner, Wilson Green, Marion Zemp. Mr. Edison could earn the eternal gratitude of housewives by inventing a non-spillable cigar ash.

BIRTHPLACE OF GRANT

Point Pleasant, Ohio, April 27.—The eyes of the nation turned today to this little village, situated at the base of the hills overlooking the Ohio River to celebrate the hundredth anniversary of the birth of the great military leader and president, Ulysses S. Grant. President Harding is scheduled to make an address at Grant's former home. Dispatches speak of "The Sultan's Foreign Minister, Izzet Pasha." We'll bite. Is it?

OUR NEW DEMAND SEEMS TO BE FOR "LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF EVERY FOOT PAD THAT BOLTS UP."

Our new demand seems to be for "life, liberty and the pursuit of every foot pad that bolts up." Lloyd George says he is a tired man on a cold mountain top; but he may just be up a tree. It is easy to get credit for being good; but hard to get cash. The bold-up business isn't as big a crime as the business hold-up.