Mr. G. W. Going is having his residence on Church street painted.

Rev. L. L. Wagon conducted the devotional exercises at the Knitting Mill last Sunday morning.

W. C. Nelson, Ethan Foster and Newton Walker are assisting in running the wires in the Bu. Calo cotton mill.

We regret to report that Mr. Thomas Hart, one of our oldest citizens, is quite ill at his home one mile west of Union.

GARDEN PLANTS. Cabbage and tomatoes specials, several of the best varieties of each for sale by S. M. Rice, Jr., E. U. 19-1no

Rev. Jno. Harris, of the Epworth Orphanage will fill Rev. S. T. Creech's appointment at Kelton Sunday, as Mr. Creech will be assisting in a protracted meeting at Laurens.

Some excitement was caused Tuesday evening by three or four pistols shots being fired from an upper window in the Union Hotel. Of course nobody knows who did it.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Page, of Greenville, are spending a few days visiting friends in Union. Mr. Page has drawn out of the hotel business in Greenville. They are stopping at Hotel Union at present.

Our old friend J. T. Foster dropped in to see us and threw down a dollar saying, "Don't you let THE TIMES stop coming, why the women folks at home don't pay any attention to any other paper. It's THE UNION TIMES or nothing with my folks." Hurrah for the ladies, bless their hearts, may they long and prosper.

Children's Day service will be held at Grace M. E. church at the regular hour of service Sunday evening May 19th. All congregations and especially the Sunday schools are invited to worship with us. L. L. WAGNON, Supt.

Mr. S. B. Smith, the civil engineer in charge of the construction of the Aetna Cotton Mill, has moved his family from Chester to Union and occupies the Brown house recently occupied by P. M. Cohen, deceased. We are glad to number Mr. Smith's family among our citizens.

As vaccination prevents smallpox and quinine chills and fever, so TERTINA prevents and counteracts the effects of the summer's heat, much dreaded by mothers with small children. TERTINA relieves the many troubles incident to teething and the hot summers, and no mother is excusable for not giving it, for it costs only 25 cents at druggists; or mail 25 cents to C. J. Moffett, M. D., St. Louis, Mo. 19-2t

Old man Jackson Powell, an inmate of the county home for 15 or 20 years, died Wednesday of heart disease. Mr. Powell was possibly the oldest man in the county. He was born in 1806, he was therefore 95 years of age. His mind was very clear and he remembered incidents connected with the Mexican war of 1812. He retained conscience to the end and was sitting up the day before he died.

As stated last week quite a number of old vets from Union attended the Confederate Veterans' Reunion at Columbia. They report having had a great time and say the people exerted themselves to the utmost to meet the demands of the unexpected large attendance of veterans. We were not much off in our estimate that this was going to be the largest crowd ever seen at a reunion in this State.

Rev. E. A. McDow tendered his resignation as pastor of Duck Pond church last Sunday. The congregation accepted the resignation with much regret. Mr. McDow has been giving general satisfaction to the congregation and they regret to part with him. The resignation was occasioned by the inconvenience of attending to this charge, having to make a trip each time while other work more advantageous and convenient had recently opened up. The congregation has called Rev. D. C. Freeman who has accepted and will preach the 2nd Sunday in June.

The Chief's Quick Work.

A young miss came into the office Monday afternoon and asked the cost of inserting an advertisement for lost property. Upon inquiry we learned she had just lost her gold watch and we could see the tears welling up in her eyes as she told us of her loss. Our sympathy was at once aroused and recognizing that quick work was necessary in this case. We told her we would see what could be done. We immediately phoned to police headquarters and fortunately caught the chief, Mr. Israel, in and related the circumstances to him, and then sent the young lady to tell him the particulars. Chief Israel started out at once, and in half an hour handed the happy girl her watch. He, by his prompt action, got to the place where she lost the watch before any one else had passed along. We are in need glad that the young lady had her watch restored so soon.

As to Fast Driving.

Recently complaints have been coming to our ears regarding the reckless driving along the main thoroughfares of our town. We have said nothing about it as we were in hopes the reports were exaggerated and that the occurrences were rare. But we are convinced that this thing has gone to the point where it is necessary to call a halt before some serious injury is done to some one. It seems that the eastern portion of Main street is usually selected for this speeding of teams. It must be remembered that there are a great many children on this street and others of the town and should one of them be run over and killed or maimed for life it would be poor consolation to hear expressions of regret. There is no need for fast driving on the public streets of the town, and the quicker a stop is put to it the better. We hope it will not become necessary for us to say more along this line as we believe all that is necessary is to call the attention of the city authorities to the evil, and they will take the proper steps to put a final stop to it.

The Dance at Hotel Union.

Last Thursday evening one of the most enjoyable hops of the season was given at Hotel Union by the Union German Club in honor of Miss Nina Geddes of Spartanburg, Miss Lil Dwight of Winnsboro, and Miss Madeline Miller of Cleveland Springs, N. C. Messrs. Goss and McNally led the German in their usual graceful manner. Refreshments were served by the popular genial hotel manager, which added much pleasure to the enjoyment of the evening. The chaperones of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Crown Torrence, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Arthur. Those participating were: Miss Nina Geddes with Mr. A. Dial Gray, Miss Lil Dwight with W. Perrin Thomson, Miss Madeline Miller with R. Charlton Thomas, Miss Jessie Cravens with Lindsay McNally, Miss Nina Colton with Dr. I. Murray Hair, Miss Kathleen Moore with W. T. Beaty, Miss Julia McGhee with George Wright, Miss J. Gordon Hughes, Mrs. McCubbin with Sam'l DePass. Stags—Harry L. Goss, Thomas and Paul McNally, Henry M. Holmes, R. P. Harry and Claude L. Miller.

News from Grindall.

MR. EDITOR:—Those April showers has brought forth May flowers, and now the frequent May showers are bringing our cotton. It puts a smile on the busy farmer to see his cotton at a far distance, but some of our cotton is slow in coming. Glad to report that the work on the river bridge at this place is being pushed along by Cherokee county, and the seeing after the gulleys on the Grindall Shoals road by Union county should be next in order. Mr. Mack Gault, D. White and a number of others from Lockhart Junction paid the river a pleasant visit with the fish hook, seine and gun. They were having splendid luck with the seine but none with the other two weapons. As they did meet with the bear which has been reported out on the river their gun was rendered useless. As Mr. M. Gault and the writer both correspond to THE TIMES we had a short chat concerning same. Come again gentlemen. Glad to report that Mr. William Horn who has been very sick much better and is able to be out. James Fowler, James Worthy and Munro Smith were among the crowd that visited Columbia last week. They say the boys had a nice time. Dr. H. T. Hames took a pleasant drive to the river last week for the purpose of seeing. D. P. F.

Kelton Jottings.

MR. EDITOR:—We are having some lovely weather now but are greatly in need of rain. Most of the farmers around Kelton are through planting. Mr. G. T. Gault and daughter, Miss May, visited relatives a Paeolet last week. Miss Mittie Wood, of Manning, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. T. Avecock. We are glad to have her with us again. Miss Cora Mobley entertained several of her friends at the Methodist parsonage on last Friday evening which was enjoyed by all present. Rev. Sam T. Creech left Monday for Laurens to assist Rev. Mr. Fowler in a meeting. We hope for them a successful meeting. Mrs. T. N. Creech who has been visiting at Kelton, left last week for a visit to Tennessee. Master Frank Robinson and sister, of Bennettsville, S. C., are visiting relatives at K-Itou. Mr. Jim Kelly and sister, Miss Sibbie, returned home last Friday from Washington College. Miss Louise Fowler is spending the week with her brother, Rev. Mr. Fowler, at Laurens. Mr. J. W. Harris, of Columbia, preached to a large congregation at Foster's Chapel last Sunday and Rev. J. C. Carroll at Mt. Joy in the afternoon. Mrs. W. M. Chambers, of Jonesville, visited friends at Kelton last week. Mr. Mace Going of Washington College, is spending vacation with his parents near Kelton. Miss Cora Mobley left Tuesday for her home in Rock Hill. We are sorry for her to leave us but hope we may have the pleasure of being with her again. Mr. D. L. Gault, of Paeolet, spent Sunday with parents at Kelton. Messrs. Weatherhead and Dave Smith, of Union, attended services at Kelton Sunday. Whirly, of Lockhart, spent Sunday in Kelton. With best wishes to Editor. THELMA.

Etta Jane Etchings.

Last week your correspondent attended the Reunion of the S. C. Division U. C. Veterans in Columbia, and like all the others with whom he has talked, he is unable to find words to express his gratitude to the people of that magnificent city for the cordial welcome and friendly entertainment extended him while in Columbia. Most of your readers have doubtless seen accounts of the proceedings in the daily papers, and as our space is too short to do justice to it we will have to content ourselves with a brief account of what we saw and heard. A large delegation as "old" Spartanburg and Cherokee veterans were in the city during the reunion. To this you may add an innumerable host of sons and daughters of the Confederacy, all of which went to make the reunion a success. The veterans held their meetings in the city hall, an elegant building nicely arranged for the comfort of several thousand persons at one time. It is needless to say that every inch of room was occupied during each session of the convention, and at times it ran over with enthusiasm which was caught up by the sons and daughters as well as visitors who filled the galleries to overflowing. It has been your correspondent's good fortune to attend several State reunion occasions but none of them beat this either in point of numbers or decorum. Everything passed off quietly and the veterans and their friends never will forget the ovation they received at the hands of the Columbians during the reunion festivities. The speaking was grand, the music excellent and the beauty of the fair sex who attended the meetings and took care of the veterans was simply sublime. Grand old Columbia, rising from the ashes of an unholy vandalism she sets today queen among the American cities north as well as south. I only repeat that which every veteran in that huge assembly of persons will bear me out in when I say it was the grandest reunion ever held in this State. Of Columbia we may say, "Many daughters have done nobly, but thou excellest them all." It was our good fortune to be assigned a home with Mayor Earle and his most excellent family where we were entertained in the very best of style by our genial host and his most accomplished wife. The Mayor is a young man and one of the most progressive in our State or country. To occupy the position of Chief Magistrate of a city like Columbia is no small honor and I will say that in honoring him with the chief magistracy the city has honored herself. We had as our room mates Gen'l R. R. Hemphill, of Abbeville, and Mr. C. K. Hole, of Clinton, both of whose company we enjoyed very much. Gen'l Hemphill is, and has been for a long time, clerk of the Senate and through his comity we were shown through the State House and introduced to all or most of the State officers who were in at the time of our visit. General Hemphill is old, not in years, but in newspaper work, and besides he is one of the State's best informed citizens on anything pertaining to literature or literary work. To show the kindness of Mayor Earle towards the old veterans and the respect he showed them he said (jokingly) that he had issued orders to the policemen that if one of them arrested an old soldier or gave him any trouble their jobs were up, and the result was there was not one arrested, neither was there cause for it that we know of.
