

BATTLE OF BALLOTS BY LEADING PARTIES

Democrats and Republicans Fight For Supremacy.

ELECTIONS IN MANY STATES.

In New York Both Parties Are Claiming the State, Democratic Leaders Asserting That They Will Have 15 to 20 Majority in New Congress.

New York, Nov. 4.—Election day in Greater New York dawned with the weather perfect and the voters were out early in large numbers. In a number of assembly districts 25 per cent of the registered vote had been cast at 8:20 o'clock, and the leaders in some districts predicted that the entire vote would be cast by noon.

About 40 arrests for illegal voting were reported before 9 o'clock. In one assembly district there was great excitement. Rival leaders came to blows near an election booth and policemen conducting several prisoners to a station house were attacked by a mob. One of the prisoner's escaped. Nobody was badly hurt.

Police Commissioner Partridge surprised the community, especially the political leaders at work in the various precincts, by suddenly shifting 800 policemen from their regular beats to parts of the city strange to them. In addition to this, the state superintendent of election for the metropolitan district, had 600 deputies on guard in various election districts. Where these men were to be placed was kept secret until today, the superintendent saying it would defeat his purpose to make the fact known before election day.

Several voting machines are in use.

BIRD S. COLER.

An entire state ticket is being voted for, including a justice of the court of appeals and a legislature which will elect a successor to United States Senator Platt. The election also includes the first voting for congressmen under the new arrangements of districts based on the census of 1900.

At the last round-up of the politicians the situation was as follows:

Democratic committee claims state by 25,000 for Coler, Republican committee claims state for Odell by 27,000.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany, says Greater New York city will give Coler 112,000 plurality, 76,000 being in New York county.

Republicans place Coler's lead in the county at 49,000, and in Greater New York city at 60,000.

Mr. Coler believes he will be elected by 60,000.

Governor Odell says: "I will win out by at least 50,000."

Democratic leaders say they will have 15 to 20 majority in the new congress.

Republican leaders say they will retain control by at least 20.

Gibson May Be Defeated.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Weather conditions are favorable in East Tennessee. The chief contest is between Henry R. Gibson (Dem.) and Harvey H. Hannah (Dem.) for congress in the second district. Gibson's former majority will be enormously decreased, if he is not defeated.

Light Vote in Little Rock.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 4.—A light vote is being polled here in the election for congressmen. Interest is small and rain adds to the apathy among the voters.

MORE FIGHTING IS REPORTED IN HAITI

Situation Grave—New Civil War is Threatened.

MANY KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Troop of 1,200 Fouchardists Has Conflict with Civil Authorities in Port-Au-Prince—Entire Population Greatly Alarmed.

Port-au-Prince, Haiti, Nov. 4.—A troop of 1,200 Fouchardists, which entered the capital yesterday, returning from the campaign against General Firmin, had a conflict with the civil authorities. There was heavy firing during all the night. Seven persons were killed and many were wounded.

The situation is grave, threatening a new civil war. The disorders continued during the day, another conflict occurring before the National bank at 11 o'clock. There were several victims. The entire population is very much alarmed and the foreigners are claiming protection. It is expected the arrival of General Nord with 10,000 men within the next few days will put an end to the disturbances.

NEGRO RIDDLED WITH BULLETS.

Brained Mother and Daughter with Ax Near Salem, Ala.

Salem, Ala., Nov. 4.—Sam Harris, a negro, entered the home of George Meadows, a prominent planter who lives 6 miles south of here, about 9 o'clock this morning, during Mr. Meadows' absence, and with an ax struck his wife and 18-year-old daughter each on the head, crushing Mrs. Meadows' skull and fracturing that of her daughter. Mrs. Meadows has never regained consciousness and will die.

The negro was placed in custody and held until Miss Meadows had sufficiently recovered to identify him. This she did at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and the negro was taken in charge by about 125 armed men and his body riddled with bullets on the spot. He denied his guilt until the first shot was fired, then he acknowledged the crime. His purpose was to rob the house, which he, perhaps, did, as all the drawers to the bureau and dressers were open and showed evidence of being rifled.

THE CLUB WOMAN.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette Makes Some Pointed Remarks.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—"If the club woman does not make the best companion for her husband and the best comrade for her boy, there is either something wrong with the club, or with the woman's view," said Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, first vice president of the general Federation of Women's clubs, in a lecture before the West End club yesterday afternoon.

"Club life for women should prepare them for making better wives and mothers," declared Mrs. Burdette.

Mrs. Burdette also scored the women in general for being responsible for the mad rush for wealth, which, she declared, was the greatest menace to perfect domestic happiness and the highest ideal of married life.

KNIFE BLADE IN BRAIN.

Chicago Man Undergoes Remarkable Surgical Operation.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—After having carried a knife blade an inch and a quarter long in his brain for 23 years, P. J. Kent has undergone a successful operation for its removal. The blade had broken off in the skull and the point had been all the years inserted squarely into the brain. Since the injury had been received Mr. Kent had suffered from epileptic seizures. The physician who performed the operation says the patient will recover full control of his muscles.

Mr. Kent was attacked when 16 years old by a stranger, who stabbed him on the frontal bone. Shortly after the injury had been inflicted he was seized with dizziness and convulsions and became an invalid. The case attracted much attention in Chicago hospitals, in almost all of which Kent has been a patient.

Patient Suffers From Gangrene.

New York, Nov. 4.—Mystery so long surrounds the strange discoloration which has turned black the lower limbs and part of the body of Patrick McGrath, a patient in Bellevue hospital. He is suffering from gangrene, caused, the doctors have decided, by a clot in one of the largest arteries of the body, above the hip, probably the aorta. Nothing can save his life, the physicians say, except immediate removal of the clot.

Failed to Turn Off the Gas.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 4.—Last night when Rosa Phillips, the negro cook for the family of L. K. Ross, retired the extinguished gas flame, but left the jet so that it leaked a little. This morning when Mr. Phillips sought to awake her he found her dead, she having been asphyxiated during the night.

Looted Bank of $11,000.

Milwaukee, Nov. 4.—An evening Wisconsin special from Marshfield, Wis., says that robbers blew open the vault of the bank at Greenwood last night and secured $11,000.

WORKING FOR BIG VOTE.

Republicans in Philadelphia Straining Every Effort.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Many voters were waiting to cast their ballots when the polling places opened at 7 o'clock this morning.

There was apparently more interest taken in the election in this city than had been expected by either of the leading parties. The Republican workers are straining every effort to get out a big vote in Philadelphia in order to offset a possibility of a heavy Democratic majority in the state outside of Philadelphia. There is no opposition to the six Republican congressional candidates in this city, and only two contests of moment for legislative candidates.

LARGE VOTE POLLED.

Factional Fights Enliven Election Day in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Nov. 4.—Local factional fights furnish additional interest to the election today and an unusually large early vote was polled. The weather throughout western Pennsylvania was reported clear and cool.

After voting at his home at Beaver, Pa., Senator M. S. Quay, chairman of the Republican state committee, left on a special train for Philadelphia. He would only say Pennsylvania will be elected governor.

In Michigan.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 4.—Reports from the interior of the state up to noon are to the effect that a light vote is being cast in the country districts. In the cities a larger vote is being polled. The weather is cloudy over the lower peninsula and some rain fell during the early hours in the western part of the state. The country districts in the north will poll very light, as the farmers are busy with their best sugar crops. The southern part of the state reports a light vote. A very heavy vote has been polled up to noon in Detroit, where city officers are being elected.

In Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 4.—A light vote is being polled throughout the state on account of the lack of contests. All the candidates are nominees of the July primary, the Democrats having the only party organization in the state. The vote on the constitutional amendments to add three members to the supreme court bench is the only one creating special interest. The indications are the amendments will be adopted by a good majority.

Moan Has No Opposition.

Chattanooga, Nov. 4.—Today is clear and pleasant, and prospects are for a large vote. John A. Moan (Dem.) has no opposition for congress. Indications are for the election of the entire Democratic ticket for the legislature from this (Hamilton) county.

In Alabama.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 4.—The weather is clear and voting slow. The vote will be light all over the state, except in the fourth and seventh congressional districts, where the contest between the Democrats and Republicans is sharply drawn.

Interest Centers in Legislature.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 4.—Election day opened cloudy. The early vote was fairly heavy, and especially in the central part of the town. Local interest centers in the legislative ticket.

Little Interest in Texas.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 4.—After nearly forty hours of rain election day dawned with threatening skies. Interest in the election here is mild, there being little opposition to the Democratic candidates.

Voting Light in Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—Little interest is being taken in the election in Kentucky today, and although the weather conditions are generally favorable the voting is very light.

Complete Victory For Democrats.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—There is very little if any interest in the election, a complete victory for the Democrats being a foregone conclusion.

DEATH FROM HYDROPHOBIA.

Young Man Was Bitten by a Dog Many Years Ago.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Nov. 4.—Joseph G. Jones, aged 17 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Jones, is dead from hydrophobia, after an affection lasting five days.

The unfortunate young man was bitten by a dog a number of years ago, how long ago he was unable to tell, and the disease only asserted itself last week. Two leading physicians of the city attended him, but they were unable to successfully control the affliction. Dying for want of water, the sight of it threw him into spasms and in that condition he remained until death relieved him.

Redmond, Irish Agitator, Arrested.

Dublin, Nov. 4.—William Redmond was arrested on his arrival at Kings-town today and was taken to Kilmaham jail. Mr. Redmond, several months ago made a speech at Wexford, which was said to be incendiary. He was ordered by the court of the Kings bench to give bail for $1,000 for his future good behavior. This he refused to do and the court sentenced him to six months' imprisonment.

SOOTHING SHOPPING.

A Penetral Experience at the East Norley General Emporium.

The exhausted shopper sank upon the sofa, while from the open mouth of her reversed Boston bag poured a cascade of little parcels, freshly struggled for at the Monday bargain counters.

"Oh," she cried, "why does one have to shop in the city? Everything is so hurried, confused, complex, distracting and nerve destroying! If I were only back at East Norley!"

"Last summer while I was there I had to buy a yard of dark blue ribbon, and I drove over to the one store at the crossroads to get it. It took some five minutes to convince the amiable proprietor that I really wanted dark blue and could not be persuaded to accept light instead, which he considered more suitable and becoming to a fair, complexioned person of my years; he added reassuringly that anybody under forty was not too young for baby blue.

"Another five minutes were given up to his incredulous reluctance to believe that two inches wide would not do as well as three, especially as the three inch width had been mislaid on a top shelf and he would have to get a step-ladder to get it down. Several more minutes passed in the search for the ladder, its laborious portage from the cellar, its erection and repair with a piece of twine, the braces being broken, and his final ascent to the dim and dusty upper region, whence the box of wide ribbons was at length produced.

"I found a shade that would do, and he leisurely measured off a yard, fingered it, then paused to rub a perplexed ear and smile ingratiatingly.

"Fact is," he confided sweetly, "I sold the last pair of scissors in the store just before you came in, and I've forgotten my jackknife. It's kind of awkward cutting it off, but I'll manage somehow. I guess there's an ax in the shed."

"He carried the silken roll away with him as he started with comfortable deliberation to find the ax, which, though the hunt for it was long and persevering, evidently could not be found, for we caught a glimpse of him at last through the half open door to the back shop severing the required yard of ribbon with an old chisel.

"It was all so serene, so soothing and so satisfactory! I believe I shouldn't be a wreck before New Year's every winter if I could only do my Christmas shopping at the East Norley general emporium."—Youth's Companion.

FRUITS AND FLOWERS.

In setting out an orchard keep together all trees of the same variety.

Good garden soil is good for pot plants, but can be improved by the addition of leaf mold.

Weak roseships may often be made to grow by giving them an occasional watering with liquid manure.

One advantage with small fruits is that they can be made to furnish a supply long before trees come into bearing.

In planting a border don't plant everything in rows. A row of hollyhocks, for instance, isn't half as attractive as irregularly placed groups that break the outline.

With pot plants in a general way too little water is better than too much. The drooping leaves indicating drought are more easily remedied than yellow leaves, the result of being kept too wet.

In preparing pots for plants the pieces of broken pots or crockery in the bottom should never be omitted, as without proper drainage the soil becomes sour, the plants languish and the leaves become yellowish.

Willing to Be Sued.

"I once threatened to sue an old fellow in Vermont for $10 that he owed a client of mine," said a New York lawyer, "but the threat did not seem to impress him much.

"What good will it do you to sue me?" he asked.

"Here the fellow came up close to me and said, 'Say, if that's so, sue me for $20, won't you, and give me the other $10.'"

"I gave up hope of collecting that claim."—New York Times.

A Weak Stomach

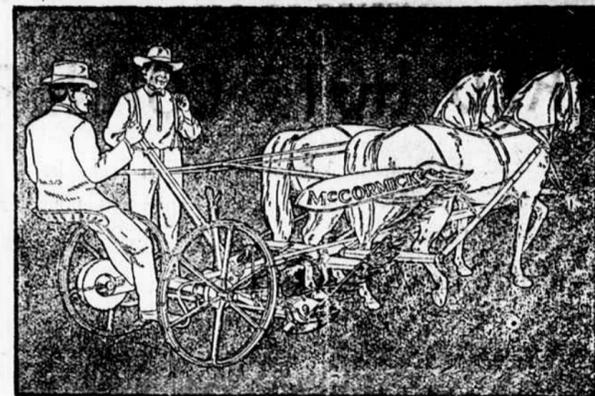

Indigestion is often caused by over-eating. An eminent authority says the harm done thus exceeds that from the excessive use of alcohol. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. A weak stomach may refuse to digest what you eat. Then you need a good digestant like Kodol, which digests your food without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics Kodol contains soon restore health. Dieting unnecessary. Kodol quickly relieves the feeling of fullness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals. Absolutely cures indigestion.

Kodol Nature's Tonic. Prepared only by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The full bottle contains 2 1/2 times the 50c. size.

Two Impossible Men.

Dr. Hauslick once asked Schumann how he got on with Wagner.

"Not at all," replied Schumann; "for me Wagner is impossible. Doubtless he is a very clever man, but he talks too fast—one cannot get a word in."

Some time after, in an interview which Hauslick had with Wagner, allusion was made to Schumann.

"With Schumann," said Wagner, "it is impossible to arrive at an understanding. He says nothing. Some years ago on my return from Paris I called upon him to talk of operas, concerts, composers and other interesting matters with which I had become acquainted. Schumann looked at me stolidly, or rather he looked into space, without saying a word. Faith, I took leave of him almost immediately. He is an impossible man."

Taking No Chances.

"Do you mean to say that you don't want a railway through Crimson Gulch?" asked the astonished surveyor.

"That's exactly what I mean to say, young fellow," answered Broncho Bob. "Cactusville got a railroad, didn't it? And they hadn't it two weeks before a couple of men won half the money in camp, got cold feet, took the train and was gone forever and ever. Crimson Gulch ain't takin' any such chances."—Washington Star.

A Rub For Tennyson.

When Alfred Tennyson appeared in the Oxford theater to receive his D. C. L. degree, it is said that his disheveled hair and generally negligent state provoked the undergraduates into greeting him with the inquiry, "Did your mother call you early, call you early, Alfred, dear?"
