THE new Embroideries, Edgings, Insertions, Laces, White Mercerized Lace and Damask effects, Striped Organdies with satin stripes, P. K.'s and all the newest white goods for shirt waists is a thing of beauty at Flynn's. The new Gingham, Chambrays, Percales, Madras and pretty Calicoes are drawing the biggest crowds to his store these days and the old man is busy all the time, in fact it is hard to get waited on there now. The goods are all new and the prices are lower than they were last year. You cannot catch old man Flynn napping. He contracted for these goods before the advance in the price of cotton and now he is giving the benefit of his good judgment to his customers. The ladies say he has the prettiest and much the cheapest lot of goods in Union.

THE straw indicates the wind's course and if appearances indicate anything Flynn is doing the business. His store is never empty, you will always find customers buying there and they keep the old fellow hustling all the time. Any fair day he is as busy as he can be, though that is not strange as people in our days always go where they can get the most for their money, and if all reports be correct Flynn is giving the general public more for their $1.00 than they can get anywhere else. The reason why he is doing business without any expense, is he knows where to buy, how to buy and pays cash for his goods, and he certainly ought to be able to undersell other merchants who have big expenses.

CABBAGE Plants—Big arrival expected at once. Come quick and get them in the ground for early cabbage. S. M. Rice, Jr., E. U.

TO the ladies of Union, town and county, I take pleasure in saying that I am prepared to supply your wants with the largest assortment of Embroidery, Edgings and Insertions to match, Mercerized Damask and Lace effects for shirt waists, P. K.'s, fancy, solid and broken stripes, Organdies in up-to-date styles, plain and mercerized Gingham, White Lawns, Bleaching in all qualities, Cannon Cloth. All these goods I bought when goods were cheap last September, and they have just been received in the last ten days and I am now in a position to offer these new desirable goods at from 15 to 25 per cent. less than any merchant in Union can buy the same goods today. Come see for yourself and be your own judge and save money. D. C. Flynn, Mgr.

SANTUC LETTER.

Post Office To Be Moved To New Quarters—Rise In Broad River Floods Coffer Dams—Small Fox Over at The Dam.

"Now Spring is on her way," but I am not going to forget to remain close neighbors to my coat.

Miss Myra Owens, stenographer in the Epworth Orphanage, came up and spent from Friday to Monday with the family of her father, Rev. T. B. Owens.

Mrs. Adams, of Pinckney, is here on a visit to her son, Mr. J. S. F. Adams.

Miss Nannie Smith, of Union, and Miss Agatha Barnett of the Upper Fair Forest section, came down Saturday on a holiday visit with Miss Lily Adams.

Mumps are raiding the physiology of Mr. W. T. Stokes, Jr.

Rev. J. D. Mahon preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning from the text Matthew 19:20, "And what lack I yet. Sunday night, at the Methodist church, Rev. T. B. Owens preached from the text found in John 1:39.

There was a delightful sociable, small in numbers—at Mrs. D. B. Fants Friday night.

The new joint stock mercantile co. will open up in the store room of the Porter building.

The "State" Co., of Columbia is arranging to have telegraphic reports of excessive rainfall, sent to that paper from the Weather Bureau station here.

The expert creamery man, Mr. C. G. Voigt was here some days ago trying to work up an interest in a cheese factory at this place, but I failed to obtain anything of how he succeeded.

I have just received a good sized package of fine cottonseed from the Department of Agriculture, the kindness of Congressman Jos. T. Johnson, and they are going to receive a good trial, too.

The Post Office is to be moved from up town into the new store that is now being fitted up for the new joint stock company. I can't grumble, only it will mean a little more of a jaunt to meet the opening of the mails.

The rains of two weeks ago put a smart rise in Broad river, so much that the coffer dam was flooded and about all of the past week was consumed in pumping out the holes. All that could be seen of some of the hoisting engines was the smoke-stacks sticking out of the water.

Owing to the recent cut up condition of the roads during the wet spell, the weight of the loads to be hauled to the dam has been smartly reduced. Just after the freezes, then rains, wagons soon cut deep ruts.

To "outsiders," there is something amusing in the scramble to see who can get the most loads to haul over to the river. It looks akin to a lot of shorts around a feed trough. The poor mules, though, catches "thunder in being driven. It trots and gallops to beat some other to the pile of stuff.

The swampy creek bottoms on the road leading towards Neals Shoals are in a deplorable condition, as regards the walking mode of travel. It does seem that a county making a show of doing something might fix places for those who must walk to cross such swampy places. It could be done and with small expense if the county would, but it won't, and there it ends.

Small-pox is getting on a big raid over at the dam, but I hear that they are closely guarded to keep the patients in bounds. People are being vaccinated and re-vaccinated.

Some man said that we needed a portable post office or stationary post master. If all men were "stationary" enough to be found at their place of business, especially at a public office like a post office, patrons, especially ladies, would not have to be inconvenienced as to have to run all over town, hunting up the post master for their mail.

A man from York county, came over last week, arrested three negroes for violation of contract, handcuffed them together, and then let them get away, but it is suspected that the negroes were aided. If a man, an employer, should aid or abet a negro in violating a contract he need not be surprised to find his own hands slipping off, and they ought to bad as it is. I recently heard a man throwing out hints to a negro to quit his employer and come to him. That was right here too. That is rascally. HEY DENVER.

A Dainty Treat.

Everybody knows how satisfying and appetizing a fresh Saratoga Chip is, but everybody does not know the difference in the quality and kinds of chips that are now offered for sale. It all depends upon the quality and the shape in which you get them as to the satisfaction they give in the eating. The latest and daintiest and most satisfactory chip that you have ever seen is now being offered by The Union Grocery Company. They are put up in neat, half-pound cartons, and nothing but the choicest pieces are packed. They keep better and crisper and there is not a single piece in the package but what can be eaten with satisfaction. A great beauty about them coming in this style is that they do not cost any more than in the old-fashioned way or in bulk. If you want a treat call upon them while they are going as they cannot last long. Remember the place, The Union Grocery Co. If you will try one package, you will always remember the place and the package. 1L

SOLDIERS GUARD PRISONER.

Negro Who Killed Mail Clerk Threatened by Lynchers.

Meridian, Miss., March 1.—Three full companies of state troops surrounded the county jail here Monday night, in which is lodged J. P. Paris, a negro who is charged with the killing of John R. Stockton, a mail clerk, the serious wounding of J. A. Bass, another clerk, and the robbery of the mail car on the Alabama Great Southern train, which left this city Monday morning for Birmingham.

Paris was captured early Monday by bloodhounds following a bloody trail, strewn with bits of registered letters and other mail matter, from the scene of the hold-up to a negro cabin, where Paris was found.

Charged with Attempted Assault.

Savannah, Ga., March 1.—Another DeCris is in trouble. This time it is Joe, a brother of the notorious Mamie DeCris, the diamond queen, who was sent up from Savannah, and who created such a sensation last summer at the prison by being whipped by the superintendent. Joe is locked up at Thunderbolt, where the family reside, on a charge of attempted criminal assault on a young white woman. He is alleged to have seized her, and she only escaped by screaming for aid, which arrived in time.

Mitchell County, Ga., Goes Wet. Camilla, Ga., March 1.—Official count shows that the ants carried the county by a majority of 10.
