

JUST RECEIVED

A BIG SHIPMENT OF

NEGLIGEE SHIRTS.

New Styles
And Patterns.

ARE WITHOUT DOUBT THE BEST SHIRTS FOR THE PRICE SOLD TODAY.

$1.00

BUY "LION BRAND" SHIRTS THE KIND THAT SATISFIES.

GET THE HABIT. GO TO

THE BAILEY-COPELAND CO.

A LOVELY HOME WEDDING.

One of Union's Brightest Jewels Taken to Gaffney When Mr. A. F. Kendrick Married Miss J. Edna Foster.

(Contributed.)

On Wednesday, June 1st at noon, Miss Julia Edna Foster and Mr. Arthur Furman Kendrick entered the beautifully decorated parlor of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Foster, to low, sweet strains of music, and were united in holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. L. M. Rice, in the presence of a few friends. The bride was tastefully and becomingly dressed in white silk mull and laces. The decorations were ferns and roses. After receiving the many congratulations, all retired to the dining room where delicious refreshments were served.

When the time arrived for the bridal party to leave, the bride appeared in a stylish traveling suit of grass linen with trimmings of white linens and buttons. The happy young couple boarded the 2:23 train for their future home in Gaffney. They will board for a month or so until their home on Frederick street is ready for them to occupy.

The bride is a young lady of great ability and is admired and loved by those having a rare chance of knowing her well. She was well worth the wooing.

The groom is a popular young man possessing qualities seldom found in those of his sex.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick wish them a long and prosperous married life.

GRAND PARADE.

Flower Carnival for Union—Glorious Display of Flowers—Pretty Women and Handsome Men—Our Streets Made Bright and Beautiful.

Our enterprising, wide awake young men who are ever on the alert to do and dare something for the pleasure, progress and prosperity of our city have matured a plan for a Flower Carnival on the 16th day of June. Surry, landau, phaeton, trap, stanhope, buggy, are to be decorated with flowers. A handsome prize will be given to the most beautifully and artistically decorated vehicle, decision to be made by a committee of competent judges. A queen of love and beauty is to be elected by ballot, a charge of ten cents will be made for each vote, and the money realized will be devoted to the purchase of the prize. Horseback riders and bicycles decorated can also enter the contest. A place of meeting will be decided upon, and notice given later, from which the line of march will begin, going at a slow pace through the principal streets of the city. The people of the country are most earnestly requested to join in this flower frolic. There are a great many very pretty horses, vehicles and an abundance of beautiful flowers throughout the county which, if added to our local number, would make a grand and most imposing procession. All who desire to enter this flower decoration contest will please notify Mr. Thos. McNally, who is at the head of this anticipated pleasure project. Columbia has just had her "Fun Flower Carnival," and it was a success; when Union tries she can't be beat at anything. Everybody cordially invited to participate.

Get you ready with your flowers, your fan and your gown, Let's have a gay time in this good old town.

MARRIED IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Mr. Joseph R. Caudle of this City, Weds Miss Mary Johnston, of Mecklenburg, N. C.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Johnston, Mecklenburg, N. C., at 8:15 a. m., Wednesday, June 1, 1904, Mr. Joseph R. Caudle and Miss Mary Johnston were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Immediately after the marriage ceremony, this happy young couple went to Charlotte and boarded the west bound train, reaching Union at 9 o'clock that night.

They are domiciled for the present at the home of the groom's father on Mountain street. We wish them much happiness, a long and prosperous life.

DR. N. W. TRACY.

The Celebrated Temperance Evangelist Coming.

The celebrated Kentucky temperance evangelist is coming to Union. Will pitch his tent on the Greer lot next to Mr. Robt. Foster's house. The lectures will be illustrated by stereoptical views, showing every condition of the drunkard in a state of intoxication from the first drink to delirium tremens. The lectures of Dr. Tracey are not only instructive, but amusing and convincing.

Dr. Tracey comes under the auspices of the "State Law and Order League." He has been in Anderson for the past week, and has accomplished great good.

A BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING

At the Poole Residence on South Street.

The wedding bells had ceased to ring, when the clock on the mantel chimed one, Wednesday, June 1, 1904, then pealed in melodious strains the wedding march under the skillful touch of Miss Nan Wilburn. Upon the floor of the elegantly furnished and beautifully decorated parlor, in the center of the room, stood Mrs. Virginia B. Poole, beside Prof. Spenser Morgan Rice, Jr., facing the Rev. L. M. Rice, pastor of the First Baptist Church, whose benign countenance beamed with pleasure as he pronounced in a few sentences, this happy pair, man and wife, in the presence of the assembled guests. The bride was lovely in her gown of white crepe de chine over white taffeta, with trimmings of wide lace, accented with chiffon and chignon roses, and the groom no less handsome in regulation attire. After the usual congratulations the guests were ushered into the spacious dining room, where refreshments of cream, cakes and pepermints were served. The dining table was a beauty; in the center was a large lace mat upon which was placed a tall cut-glass vase filled with ferns and flowers. At intervals were smaller lace mats upon which were silver dishes of mints. Miss Nan Wilburn and the Misses Gage were the ushers and served the refreshments. After a pleasant hour around the festive board, the guests assembled in the entrance hall, where upon a table were displayed an unusually large collection of beautiful and valuable presents. The bride soon made her appearance arrayed in her traveling suit of blue voile, trimmed with pipings and bands of blue silk and small buttons, with wide lace on lower part of sleeves. She wore a stylish hat and gloves to match, in which costume she was more lovely than ever.

The bride and groom were showered with rice when leaving the house and as they moved to enter the car. This seemed a useless waste of rice, since the bride, at least, had all the Rice she wanted.

Mr. and Mrs. Rice will spend ten days in St. Louis at the World's Fair, after which they will return to Union and be at home to their many and admiring friends. We extend to them our congratulations and best wishes for a happy, peaceful and prosperous married life.

Mr. Bolton, of Beauford, Ga., has accepted the position of billing clerk at the depot, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. H. B. O'Shields. We welcome Mr. Bolton to our city.

Miss H. Louise Foster was elected Sponsor and Miss Blanche Thomson her Maid of Honor to represent Camp Giles, U. C. V. at the Confederate reunion, Nashville, Tenn., June 14 to 16 inst.

The old Confederate veterans will not forget to turn out in full force June 3rd, in celebration of Jefferson Davis' birthday, and hear the address of their old comrade in arms, Major Jas. F. Hart.

Mr. H. B. O'Shields, who has held the position of billing clerk at the depot at this place for some time, has resigned his position and accepted a position as book-keeper with the Hames Grocery Co.

Mr. Joe Thomas has resigned his position as superintendent of the Union Cotton Mills, and Mr. Touchstone, superintendent of the Buffalo Cotton Mills, will be in charge as superintendent of both mills.

Mr. Paul Crosby, who has been attending a school in Pennsylvania, passed through Union Wednesday on his way to Spartanburg, where he works for Biber, the jeweler. Paul is a young man who deserves considerable commendation for his untiring efforts to master the jeweler's trade.

Mr. P. E. Fant has begun work on the building of a new residence on Main street, between Capt. J. T. Douglas' and J. A. Fant's residences. We were shown the plans by Mr. Fant, which, in our humble judgment, are perfect and when finished the house will be a beauty, and complete in all of its apartments and appointments.

For the information of the people who perhaps labor under a mistaken idea of the object of the rural free delivery system, we say that all sealed mail matter must bear a two cent stamp, irrespective of the distance it must travel, or the manner of its delivery. A written letter sealed or unsealed must bear a two cent stamp. It would be well for all who do not know the rules governing the mailing of letters and packages to consult the post master before depositing in the office any letter or package.

Local Laconics.

Happenings of Interest About Town. Personal and Otherwise.

Miss Ruth Foster is at home from Converse College.

Dr. W. A. Smith, of Glendale, was in the city on Wednesday.

Miss Bessie Miller, of Glenn Springs, visited Miss Fannie Edge this week.

Miss Beulah Counts has resigned her position as assistant in the Union post office.

Miss Mary Thomas and Susie Tinsley, of Winthrop College, arrived home on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. C. Sheppard and daughter, of Edgefield, are visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. D. H. Wallace.

Mr. Guy White, who was connected with the Oil Mill here last season, is expected to be with the mill again this season.

June is called the month of roses, but to read THE TIMES this week, it could be called the month of marriages as well.

Mr. A. E. Hill, who has been visiting relatives and friends in the city, returned to his home in Hobbyville Wednesday.

Mr. Virgil Hawkins, of Myrtlewood, Ala., is expected to arrive Saturday on a visit to relatives in the city and county.

Mr. M. M. Scott has accepted a position as salesman with the C. E. Lipscomb Co. of this city. He will begin with his duties next Monday.

Drs. I. M. Hair, E. W. Foster and Mr. Paul McNally attended the Converse College commencement Gorman Tuesday night in Carson's Hall.

Next Sunday, June 5th, is the day set apart for the dedicatory services of the new Presbyterian church. Dr. Plunkett, of Augusta, Ga., will preach the sermon.

Mr. M. B. Crigler, of Spartanburg, has accepted the position as local manager of the Union Oil & Manufacturing Co., the position formerly held by Mr. W. E. Thompson.

The Fattest
Pine Shingles
That ever came down the Pike at the

Wallace Lumber Co.

The Maker's Name

If "Schloss" is on label—You're safe.

On an article means that he is not ashamed of his handiwork. It is an evidence of honest intention. It is a guarantee of good faith. Only those articles that are not the best are sold without the maker's name. We sell the Art-Tailored Clothing of Schloss Bros. & Co.

"The Best Clothes Makers."
New York and Baltimore.

The Price Range Starts at $10.00

J. COHEN.

"Why Don't You Turn Around" AND SEE?

1000 Yards Matting Remnants in from 3 to 25 Yards length at HALF PRICE. A Job Lot of Pictures and Picture Frames at ONE HALF their value.

White Enamel Curtain Poles, silver ends 10c
Window Shades 25c
Go-Carts $2.00

PIAZZA SHADES AND SCREENS.

4 x 6, 48c; 5 x 8, 60c; 6 x 8, 75c; 8 x 8, $1.00.
Lawn and Piazza Seats, for two..... $1.50
Camp Stools 35c

The thing for picnics and fishing parties.
Call on us for anything in summer furnishings. We are the people.
BAILEY FURNITURE CO.

The Real Cost

Of a wagon is what it costs at the end of years of service, not what it costs at the start. Now if you want to save money in the end buy the OLD HICKORY Wagon. Sold only in this county by

THE PEOPLES SUPPLY CO.,
D. FANT GILLIAM, Manager.