JOCASSEE.

THE full-blooded Horse, JOCAS-SEE, will stand the ensuing R. a. n. spring season as follows: On Monday, at Baz-il Callabam's; on Tuesday, at E. Trible's, Esq.; on Wednesday, at G. B. Clinkscale's, Esq.; on Thursday, at Abbeville C. H.; on Friday, at David Kellar's, Esq.; on Saturday, at Due

West. He will be let to Mares at Ten Dollars insutance. Twenty-five cents to the Groom in ev-ery instance. Every possible care will be ta-ken to prevent accidents, but no liability for any. Senson to commence the 10th of March, and end the 10th of June. PEDIGREE.

JOCASSEE is a fine blood bay, of fine form

JOCASSEE is a fine blood bay, of fine form and muscular power. He was sired by Maj. Whitfield's celebrated Waverly, in the spring of 1848—Waverly by old Bertrand, of Ken-tucky; dam by Blackburn's Whip; Bertrand by the renowned horse Sir Archy; his dam Eliza, own sister to the celebrated running horse Gallatin, by imported Bedford. Jocas-see's dam was got by Bedford, a descendant from the renowned Kirksey's colt, and he hy the imported Bedford; his granddam by Phe-nomenon, and he by Sir Archy; his day. Y Leopard, and he by the celebrated Quick-silver, a horse of great renown in his day. Trom this pedigree it will at once appear that Jocassee has descended from a pure an-cestry, as much so as any horse in the country.

that Jocassee has descended from a pure an-cestry, as much so as any horse in the country. Waverly, the sire of Jocassee, stands unrivalled at the present day in this country, having obtained a premium in 1844 at Greenville, also at Newberry in 1846, also at Pendleton and Anderson, being the best stallion exhibited on each occasion.

on each occasion. Jocassee is placed so low in price as to be within the reach of every man who is able to own amare, and in fact very low for a horse of his blood, and in form and figure, size, beauty and color all combined can vie with any horse. Every person desirons of raising fine stock, will do well to partraise this full-blooded and beautifu stallion beautiful stallion.
