MARKETS.

ABBEVILLE, April 12.—We again have the pleasure of noting an advance of a full quarter of a cent on previous prices in cotton—the intelligence per steamer Baltic having stiffened all the American markets. There has been but little offering here for the week under review, until yesterday, buyers taking it at full prices with but few words. We now quote Ordinary to Good Middling from 7 to 8½. We noticed the sale of one lot of Prime at 8½ cents per pound on yesterday.

COLUMBIA, April 10.—Corron.—Our cotton market was brisk and animated yesterday; the demand was good at an advance of \(\frac{1}{2}\) and in some instances t cent on the current rates of the previous day. Some 150 bales were sold at 7 to 8 cents extremes.

CHARLESTON, April 9 .- Corron .- The sales to-day amounted to 2500 bales, at the following particulars: 72 bales at 72; 105 at 8; 39 at 82; 165 at 82; 425 at 82; 133 at 82; 214 at 82; 200 at 82; 208 at 9; 117 at 92; 365 at 92; 199 at 93; 160 at 92; 192 at 98; 160 at 94.

Land for the Million!

THE Act of Congress of March 3d, 1855, gives additional Bounty Land to all who A gives additional Bounty Land to all who have heretofore received land for military services. All who have served fourteen days, or received pay in money for their services are entitled. We have, by five years' practice in claims against the U. S. Government, become perfectly acquainted with all the minute rules and practice of that Department, and are well known to the Commissioner of Pensions. We will attend proparatly to all claims entrasted to will attend promptly to all claims entrusted to us. As three hundred thousand persons are ontitled under this law, there will be great delay in issuing them, and it is therefore highly important that application be made without delay.

PEDIGREE.

JOCASSEE is a fine blood bay, of fine form and muscular power. He was sired by Maj. Whitfield's celebrated Waverly, in the spring Whitfield's celebrated Waverly, in the spring of 1848—Waverly by old Bertrand, of Kentucky; dam by Blackburn's Whip; Bertrand by the renowned horse Sir Archy; his dam Eliza, own sister to the celebrated running horse Gallatin, by imported Bedford. Jocassee's dam was got by Bedford, a descendant from the renowned Kirksey's colt, and he by the imported Bedford; his grand-dam by Phenomenon, and he by Sir Archy; his g. dam by Leopard, and he by the celebrated Quicksilver, a horse of great renown in his day.

From this pedigree it will at once appear that Jocassee has descended from a pure ancestry, as much so as any horse in the country.

cestry, as much so as any horse in the country. Waverly, the sire of Joenssee, stands unrivalled at the present day in this country, having obtained a premium in 1844 at Greenville, and also at Newberry in 1846, also at Pendleton and Anderson, being the best stallion exhibited on each occasion.

and Anderson, being the best stallion exhibited on each occasion.

Jocasseo is placed so low in price as to be within the reach of every man who is able to own a mare, and in fact very low for a horse of his blood, and in form and figure, size, beauty and color all combined can vie with any horse.

Every person desirous of raising fine stock, will do well to patronise this full-blooded and beautiful stallion.
