Fever in the Southwest.—The last mails bring us news that yellow fever has appeared in Montgomery, and that there have been a considerable number of cases in Mobile. But this only shows the tendency of the disease to spread be interested.

The lateness of the season renders it next to impossible that it should extend much further, or that it should commit any serious ravages in those cities.

Ir is said that the Kansas Free State, a zealous anti-slavery journal, published in Kansas, is edited partly by one Josian Mil-LER, who was born and reared in Chester District, in this State. He graduated at some college in Indiana, where perhaps he imbibed his anti-slavery sentiments.

"What's whiskey bringing?" inquired a dealer in that article. "Bringing men to the gallows," was the reply.
It might have been added: Old age with sorrow to the grave; youth to idleness and disgrace; women and children to beggary, and the country to ruin.

An Hibernian was reproved by an officer for daring to whistle in the ranks while going on duty. Just as the officer spoke, one of Russia's balls came whistling over the ravine. Pat cocks his eye up towards it, and quietly said, "There goes a boy on duty, and, by jabers, hear how he whistles."

WHEN Mrs. Partington read in the newspapers that Jinny Lin had a fellow feeling her bosom, she exclaimed, "Lor me! that's just what the young men used to do when I was a gal!"

AN EVERY-DAY MORAL.-The law may be compared to a street-fight, at the end of which it is discovered that the coats of the combattants are missing. The fact is, the lawyers, whilst their clients were pommeling one another, have quietly walked off with them!
