FRIDAY, MAY 23, 1856.

Hons. A. P. Butler and A. G. Brown, of the U. S. Senate, will please accept thanks due them for favors recently received by us.

The Newberry Mirror regrets to learn that Col. Brooks is at present laboring under feeble health. His physicians advise him to abandon Washington for a while.

Among our advertisements we observe one of a Marble Yard recently established in our village. This is a most valuable improvement, and we hope Messrs. Leavell & Chalmers will be abundantly rewarded for giving it to us.

The May number of the Farmer and Planter has been received, and, as always, with a cordial welcome. It is really an excellent agricultural journal, and we hope may long live to do good service in the cause which its accomplished editor has labored so long and faithfully to promote.

We are really pleased to learn that the new literary and religious monthly lately established at Edgefield C. H. is advancing rapidly on in its career of usefulness. It deserves it. There is no visitor to our office whose presence is more welcome than that of the Southern Light. Rev. E. I. Whately, is editor, and the gentlemanly proprietors of the Edgefield Advertiser are the publishers. Price $2.00 per year.

Godey's Lady's Book, for June, is equal to any former number, in all respects. No lady who aims to keep up with the times and the fashions, (and we believe they all like to keep up with the fashions,) can possibly get along without this magazine. She must either take it or borrow it. The last and best fashion is to take it.

Send L. A. Godey, Philadelphia, $3.00 and get the Lady's Book; or the same amount to us and get it and the Press both.

We have pleasure in saying that a very encouraging beginning has been made towards the establishing of a Temperance organization in our village. The particulars may be learned by reference to the report of the meeting on Monday night, in another column.

It will be seen that a public meeting is to be held in the court-house on the night of the 27th instant, (Tuesday next,) to which all are invited. Rev. Messrs. Johnson and Durant will deliver addresses.

We shall have more to say on the subject at another time.

What Say Ye?

The article copied from the Edgefield Advertiser, in reference to the late convention of Democrats in Columbia, speaks our sentiments, and we believe those of the Convention party generally. In a spirit of moderation towards those who disagree with them, and satisfied with the triumph they have already achieved, they are willing, if let alone, to rest the question and leave the future to decide as to the wisdom of their action. Firm in their convictions of having acted wisely, and that the results of their action in strengthening the only party of the Constitution, and adding to the influence of South Carolina among the Southern States, will be their best and most quiet defence, they would not drag their opponents before the bar of public judgment to ask a bull of excommunication against them. But they will not be dragged there themselves and stand with closed lips. If arraigned on appeal, they will surely vindicate their cause.

Spasmodic efforts, here and there, are being made to raise a counter convention—to do what? Why, to nominate Franklin Pierce, and to read out of the State Rights party of South Carolina those who dared to nominate him before they did and in the only way in which a nomination by this State can possibly be of any value to him. But that mountain will scarcely conceive, much less bring forth even a mouse.

We speak for ourselves. We deprecate unnecessary divisions in our State, but we deprecate also the timidity that yields its convictions of duty to fears of distraction. We desire no further discussion of the subject now—no issue in the coming elections. We are willing for a truce till the Democratic party shall again have opportunity to prove its devotion to the Constitution as it has with Pierce at its head, or its treachery; but it must be a truce in good faith. If the Democracy again proves true, and again successful, the anti-Convention party now will be part of the Convention party in 1860. Remember that, if it proves treacherous, and our opponents then desire to call us to account, we shall have hopes of a successful pleading in our own defence even while abandoning the Democratic party of the Union.

Are you willing, gentlemen opponents, to adjourn the discussion? or are you afraid the future will "write our action wise," and therefore prefer to press the motion for a judgment in advance? We prefer the adjournment, but are ready to debate the motion if pressed.

[FOR THE INDEPENDENT PRESS.] Messrs. Editors: Inasmuch as editors are supposed to know everything, can you tell why it is that we have but one candidate for the Legislature in the Saluda Regiment, when they are as "thick as leaves in Vallambrosa" in some portions of the District? I do not think that it results from a want of qualifications, nor from the supposed fact that we have no aspirants for political celebrity. My own "notion" is that it proceeds from an excess of modesty—a quality which, by-the-by, is not generally appreciated in this fast age. In this connection allow me to suggest the name of Capt. J. N. COCHRAN, a gentleman in every way qualified to represent the District in the Legislature.

E PLURIBUS UNUM.

[FOR THE INDEPENDENT PRESS.] To "Many Voters." Messrs. Editors: In a communication to your paper of the 9th instant, I was respectfully solicited by "Many Voters" to become a candidate for the next Legislature. Permit me, sirs, through the medium of your columns, to return my thanks to "Many Voters," as well as to those friends who have privately solicited me to become a candidate, for the compliment they have paid me in saying I am worthy of so high a trust. I hope, however, my friends will pardon me in refusing to yield to their request. My health has been so precarious for several years past, that it would look like supererogation for me to offer to assume the responsibilities of a public functionary, while at the same time, as it is well known among my intimate friends, I am often incapable of attending to my own private affairs. In addition to the above objection, I have a good deal of unsettled business in an adjoining State, which calls for my personal attention during the summer and fall months.

At this particular time there is no crisis in our State politics, and all of our people seem to be united in one opinion as to the interests and rights of our State. It is true, a dark cloud hangs heavy in our Northern horizon, which seems to threaten our domestic institutions; but yet may we not indulge the fond hope that a kind Providence, through the sober, good sense of an enlightened people, will cause it to vanish like clouds of a similar portent which have heretofore passed over and have left us unscathed.

If, however, our common country should ever again become involved in danger and trouble, and I can be of any service to her, either in the councils of the State or in the tented field, then and in that event I will agree to lay aside all objections as to age, health and business, and will bring the best energies of my character in aid of "my own, my native Carolina." Respectfully, GEORGE GRAVES.

Sons of Temperance.

Pursuant to appointment, a very respectable number of citizens in favor of organizing, at Abbeville C. H., a Division of Sons of Temperance, met in Maj. Jones' office, on Monday evening, 19th instant, and on motion of Rev. Mr. Durant, Rev. Mr. Johnson was elected to the Chair, and C. C. PUCKETT requested to act as Secretary. The Chairman, remarking as the object of the meeting was well known to all present, it was unnecessary to explain it, declared the meeting ready to proceed to business.

Rev. Durant moved a committee of three to procure a Charter for a Division of Sons of Temperance, together with the necessary books, ritual, &c. H. A. Jones, R. A. Fair and C. C. PUCKETT were named by the Chair for that duty.

Mr. Westfield moved the meeting to proceed to the election of Officers, which was agreed to, and on motion of Mr. Fair, Messrs. Westfield, Durant and Jones were constituted a committee to nominate Officers.

The committee retired, and after a brief consultation, returned and submitted the following nominations, viz: Rev. H. H. Durant, W. P.; Rev. B. Johnson, W. A.; R. A. Eair, R. S.; L. Martin, A. R. S.; Geo. Miller, I. S.; R. F. Black, O. S.; H. T. Tusten, T.; Jno. Enright, C.;

Mr. Fair moved to amend the report by adding H. A. Jones as P. W. P., which was carried, and

On motion of Mr. McBryde, the report, as amended, was adopted, and the gentlemen named declared Officers elect.

Mr. Durant moved a committee of three to draft a Constitution and By-Laws to be presented at next regular meeting, which motion was agreed to, and Messrs. Durant, Fair and McBryde were appointed.

On motion of Mr. Fair, Messrs. Westfield, Tusten and Black were appointed a committee to procure a suitable Hall for the regular meetings of the division; and, after some discussion as to the most suitable time for holding the regular weekly meetings.

On motion of Mr. Jones, it was decided that the regular meetings of the Division be held weekly, on Wednesday evenings, until further arrangement.

The expediency of holding occasional public meetings was discussed, and,

On motion of Mr. Fair, it was resolved that a public meeting be held in the Court House, on Tuesday evening 27th instant, and that Rev. Messrs. Durant and Johnson be appointed to make addresses upon the occasion.

Mr. Fair urged upon the individual members present, the importance of activity and zeal in procuring all the names possible to be added to the Division, and in trying to induce everybody, and especially the ladies, to attend the first public meeting; and also moved

That a committee of three be appointed, whose duty shall be to procure funds by soliciting contributions, for the purchase and distribution of temperance tracts, with a view to the enlightenment of the public mind in reference to the nature and objects of the organization; which motion was carried, and Messrs. Johnson, Fair and Martin named as the committee.

On motion, Messrs. Fair, Westfield and Cochran were appointed a committee to procure a sufficient number of appropriate badges for the use of the Division.

A unanimous desire was expressed that a special invitation should be extended, through the press, to the ladies to attend the public meeting on Tuesday evening 27th instant, and to lend their sympathy and aid in promoting the cause of temperance and morality, for which this organization is instituted.

On motion, the papers of the village were requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting; and,

After prayer by Rev. Mr. Durant, Adjourned to meet Wednesday evening, 28th instant.

R. JOHNSON, Chm. C. C. PUCKETT, Sec.

[FOR THE INDEPENDENT PRESS.] Acrostic. May all the joys of earth combined, In crystal torrents sweetly flow— Lessening each sorrow of your mind— Dispelling every threatening woe. Remember that religion must Exalt the soul, and purify; Doubling the bliss of those that trust Confidently in Him on high. Happiness all comes from above, Imparting peace to rich and poor— Long may you drink that stream of love Designed for christians here below!

[FOR THE INDEPENDENT PRESS.] The Lonely Heart. My heart is like a lonely bird That sadly sings, Brooding o'er its nest unheard, With folded wings. For of my thoughts the saddest part Lie all untold, And treasured in this mournful heart Like precious gold. The fever-dreams that haunt my soul Are deep and strong; Far through its deep recesses roll Such floods of song. I strive to calm—to lull to rest— Each mournful strain— To lay the phantom in my breast— But ah! 'tis vain!

The glory of the silent skies— Each blazing star— The young leaves stirred with melodies— To me are dear. O! in my soul too wild and strong This gift hath grown; Bright spirit of immortal song, Take back thine own!

I know no sorrows round me cling— My years are few— And yet my heart's the saddest thing I ever knew.

For in my thoughts the world doth share But little part; A mournful thing it is to bear A mournful heart.

The English papers tell of a man recently married, who, in 1807, when he was thirty, went one bright morning to the church to be married. His affianced came not—her father having an invincible repugnance to Mr. Wm. Sharpe as a son-in-law. The mortified groom went home, undressed, got into bed, pulled the blankets over his head, and for forty-nine years obstinately refused to get up, and clothe himself, and go to work.

PRACTICAL AMALGAMATION.—The liberty allowed under the laws of Massachusetts for intermarriages between the white and black races is but rarely taken advantage of in Boston. A few days since a colored man of twenty-eight years, born in Norfolk, Virginia, was married to a white girl of nineteen years.—Formerly such marriages were forbidden by law there, but the prohibition had no practical effect.

Methodist General Conference.

On the 4th day of the session, some petitions on the subject of slavery were presented, but there is said to be a great falling off in the agitation of this perplexing subject. When the Western Virginia and Arkansas Conferences were called, the delegates announced, much to the amusement of a portion of the members, that these conferences asked for no change whatever, but were satisfied with the Church as it is, and only wished to be let alone.

The address represented the Church as being blessed with considerable prosperity, and numbering at the close of 1855, no less than 2,408 travelling preachers, 6,610 local preachers, and 799,531 members and probationers. This is a net increase of 958 travelling preachers, 910 local preachers, and 77,627 members and probationers in the last four years.

The book agents at New York presented their report. The total amount of sales of books during the past four years has been $1,090,754 18, being an increase over the preceding four years of $267,543 40, or over 53 per cent. The agents have issued during the four years, in publications of all kinds, 14,755,626 volumes, being an average of 12,296 per day for three hundred working days per year. The amount paid to the Church South for her portion is $231,648 51, with expenses of the suit, $2,063, leaves the nominal capital in 1853, $439,798 39. The profits for the last four years are about $191,000, or about 11 per cent, since the division of property with the Church South.

A DISASTROUS MONTH.—The month just expired will long be memorable for its disastrous conflagrations. So far as we have information, there occurred during this period thirty-two fires where the loss exceeded $10,000 in each instance, (thirteen of which originated in manufacturing establishments,) and the aggregate loss resulting reaches the enormous amount of $1,847,000. A fire at Galena destroyed property to the value of $300,000; one at Baltimore, $175,000; one at Philadelphia, $50,000; one at Boston, $200,000; and one at Nashville, Tennessee, $200,000. In addition, destructive conflagrations have swept through the forests of Virginia, inflicting serious losses. To this may be added the loss by fire in Philadelphia on Wednesday, the last night of the month, which was over $60,000.

THE GROWING WHEAT CROP.—We have advices from all parts of the Western States, including Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Iowa and Wisconsin, from which we learn that, with the exception of Tennessee, where it has been frozen out, the growing wheat looks exceedingly promising and healthy. The breadth of land sown with wheat last fall was greatly increased over former years; and the indications now are that should the present month prove favorable, the wheat crop of 1856 will be the largest by 25 per cent. ever gathered in the Union. The fate of the wheat crop cannot be decided upon with any certainty until after the middle of June.—Cincinnati Prices Current.

In the Senate of the Massachusetts Legislature, on Thursday last, the Special Committee upon Kansas Affairs, whose appointment we some time since announced, presented their reports. The majority reported a series of resolutions, dictated by a strong Northern sentiment, denouncing the "Border Ruffians" and the course of the national administration, and declaring that Kansas should be admitted as a free State. These resolutions were ordered to second reading. The minority report, signed by ten members of the Committee, affirmed the legality of the territorial legislature and laws, and sustained the course of the administration.

An exchange paper, the editor of which, no doubt, lately "set up" with a widow, goes off thus:

"For the other half of a courting match there is nothing like an interesting widow. There is as much difference between courting a damsel and an attractive widow, as there is between ciphering in addition and double rule of three. Courting a girl is like eating fruit, all very nice as far as it extends, but doing the amiable to a blue-eyed brawny one in black crape, comes under the head of preserves—rich, pungent, syrupy. For delicious courting, we repeat, give us a live 'widder.'"

St. Louis, May 13.—Advices from Kansas state that Governor Robinson attempted to leave Lawrence on the plea that indictments had been found against him, but the people compelled him to remain. Warrants had been issued for the arrest of Reeder, but he had defied any one to take him. The sheriff would probably return with the United States Dragoons to effect his capture. Judge Leconte had directed bills to be found against all parties connected in the Topeka Convention, but no bills had yet been found.—Carolinian.

TWO FACES.—We see posted up, says the Columbus Enquirer, a hand bill, to the effect that a negro with a double face may be seen at Temperance Hall for fifty cents a sight. This may be something of a curiosity; but when so many white men, with more faces than one, can be seen any day in the streets gratis and without price, it would seem to be a useless waste of small change to pay to see a negro of like facial deformity.

TERRIBLE FRESHET IN TENNESSEE.—The Tennessee papers report destructive freshets in that State. In Giles county, hogs, cattle and sheep were drowned, bridges carried away, and much other damage done. One farmer lost 200 head of sheep. At Lebanon the town was overflowed, and many families driven from their houses to seek shelter elsewhere.

The State Democratic Convention of Maryland on Wednesday by a large majority expressed its preference in favor of Mr. Buchanan as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

Gen. Cary's Tour.

The many friends of Gen. S. F. Cary, and of the cause with which he is so influentially associated, will be gratified to peruse the following extracts from a private letter received from him, dated at Newberry C. H. on the 16th instant:

"I have just concluded my twenty-fifth lecture since leaving Charleston. Although the appointments by the Committee were numerous, I have nearly doubled them. My health has been excellent, although at times I have been much exhausted. On Friday of last week (9th instant) I traveled by carrying over a rough road 54 miles, and made two speeches. I have no language to express my gratification at the results of my meetings everywhere. Your people drink in the sentiments of prohibition like water. Our order has been revised—defunct divisions have been reorganized, and large accessions made. I shall leave this hospitable and friendly people, and this hopeful field of labor, with regret. * * * *"

"It rejoices me to hear that a band of youths is being organized (in Charleston) to engage in the conflict with vice and error. May they prove true to their vows and never grow weary in well doing."

Gen. Cary's tour will close at Marion C. H. on the 22d instant, when imperative duties will call him home, to the regret and disappointment of many who hoped that he might be able to renew his visit to the city.—Charleston Mercury.

FLORIDA RAILROADS.—The House of Representatives has passed the bill from the Senate, appropriating a little over a million acres of public lands in that State, for the construction of three railroads: one from Pensacola to Montgomery, (Ala.); one from Fernandina, at the mouth of St. Mary's River, to Tampa, with a branch to Cedar Keys; and one from Pensacola to Jacksonville. These roads exceed six hundred miles in the aggregate.

THE DUELING LAW OF NORTH CAROLINA.—The Revised Code of North Carolina declares that if a person fight a duel and either of the parties shall be killed, the survivor on conviction shall suffer death, and the aiders and abettors shall be considered accessories before the fact. If no death ensue, neither party shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and on conviction be punished accordingly, and moreover be ineligible to any office in the State.

THE WHEAT CROP IN THE WEST.—A gentleman who has recently traveled through a portion of the West, states that the wheat crop looks well everywhere on the route. Another, who arrived at Rochester from a western trip, states that in Ohio the crop is exceedingly promising, and unless some disaster occurs, a very large crop is expected, and prices must fall. In the Genesee country the prospect is very good.

While excavating recently for the cellar of a new building in Burlington, Iowa, the workmen broke into an arched vault, six feet deep and ten feet square, in which they found eight human skeletons, each of which was a little over eight feet long. The walls of the vault were about 14 inches thick, well laid up with cement or indestructible mortar.

CROPS IN MISSISSIPPI.—The Port Gibson Herald says there has been an abundance of rain in that section of country this season, and the growing cotton and corn are looking well, much better than last year at this time. The prospect is now good for an abundant harvest.

The New Jersey Democratic State Convention have appointed delegates to the Cincinnati Convention with instructions to vote for Mr. Buchanan; denouncing Know-Nothingism; endorsing the national administration and the principles of the Kansas and Nebraska act.

A marriage took place a short time since, in New Orleans, La., at 7 o'clock in the evening, but the bride was taken suddenly ill, and died at 9 o'clock, so that the same paper that chronicled her nuptials also published her decease.

WORTHY OF NOTE.—The fact that diseased lungs, even in the middle and latter stages of Consumption, have been cured, in repeated instances, by Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, can be substantiated by the strongest proof.

"It has been said of old, 'This is a world of wonder,' and to the observer is daily presented something new and wonderful, both in nature and art. Men of genius and skill are constantly engaged in seeking out that which may become valuable to the public, and a living emblem to scientists, and from all these wonders which have been brought before the world, and particularly our Medical Faculty, there has been nothing as yet surpassed Perry Davis' Pain Killer, which is the most valuable family medicine now in use, for many internal and external complaints that flesh is heir to.—To convince you of the fact, you have but to call at the drug store, where you can get a bottle—from 25 cents to $1.—Tennessee Organ.

THE PAIN KILLER.—As a means of removing pain from the body no medicine has ever acquired a reputation equal to Perry Davis' Pain Killer. The sale of this article has exceeded all belief. But it has real merit, and that is sufficient.—Newport and Covington (Ky.) News. Sold by WARDLAW & LYON, Abbeville.

MARKETS.

ABBEVILLE, May 22.—COTTON.—The quantity offered during the past week was small, and prices have rather declined. A fine article is worth 10 lbs.—FLOUR.—Extra brand $4.00 a 4.50 per 100 lbs.—Corn, 65 to 75 cents per bushel.—Bacon, hog round, 12 1/2 cents.

COLUMBIA, May 21.—Very little doing in cotton, but no material change in prices. We quote 8 1/2 a 10 cents.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

The Great Remedy for Consumption and all other Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

The greater the value of any discovery, the higher it is held in the esteem of the public, and so much in proportion is that public liable to be imposed upon by the spurious imitations of ignorant, designing and dishonest men.

Now that this preparation is well known to be a more certain cure for incipient Consumption, Asthma, Liver Complaint, Coughs, Bronchitis, and all similar affections, than any other remedy known, there are found those so villainously wicked as to concoct a spurious, and perhaps a poisonous mixture, and try to palm it off as the genuine Balsam.

This is to caution dealers, and the public generally, against purchasing any other than that having the written signature of I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

Prepared only by SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, Mass., to whom all orders should be addressed, and for sale by their agents.
