Compounded Entirely from Gums, Sone of the best Purgative and Liver Medi cines now before the public, that acts as a ville District; and all communications.

Catharde, easier milder, and more effectual than to him will receive prompt attention. any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver Remedy, setting first on the Liver to eject its merbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matthe stommer and nowers to carry off that mat-ter, thus necomplishing two purposes effectual-ly, without any of the painful feelings experi-enced in the operations of most Catharties. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with un-nearly amidity.

The Liver is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are st fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the Liver—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprictors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to s practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counternet the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, plaint, in any of its forms, has to try a bot-tle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all These Gims remove all mortid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease, effecting a radical cure.
