THE LIVER INVIGORATOR:

doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The Liver is one of the principal regulators of the human body: and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bawels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the Liver—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to wnich it is liable.
