R.P. Sanders of Indiana

Will Become Sober

To Tarry in Coonvalde

Mr. R. P. Sanders, the Indiana Negro who has been reported to be intoxicated during the political campaign, has been cleared by a committee of investigators appointed by Governor Indiana. The committee found that Mr. Sanders was under the influence of liquor but did not commit any crime.

The state medical examiner, Dr. John N. C. Allen, reported that Mr. Sanders' blood alcohol content was 0.05% which is within the legal limit.

Mr. Sanders has been sentenced to one year in the Indiana State Penitentiary.

The Indiana State Senate has passed a resolution congratulating Mr. Sanders on his rehabilitation.

The resolution states:

"Whereas, R. P. Sanders, has been reported to be intoxicated during the political campaign, but has been cleared by a committee of investigators, appointed by Governor Indiana, and has been sentenced to one year in the Indiana State Penitentiary, and
Whereas, The Indiana State Senate desires to congratulate Mr. Sanders
on his rehabilitation,
Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Indiana State Senate congratulates Mr. Sanders on his rehabilitation.

The resolution was unanimously passed by the Senate and will be transmitted to Governor Indiana.

Power to Prohibit

New York, Jan. 31, 1925.

Is not the World a bit too wild when it says of the president, "It does not prohibit the labor of youth up to 14 years of age."

It does not prohibit the labor of children up to 14 years of age."

The point is that the president does not prohibit the labor of children up to 14 years of age.
