AJAX FROLIC BRILLIANTLY DANCED.

The Odd Fellows' Dancing Academy, on last Thursday evening was the scene of much splendor and enjoyment, when a host of the younger society set gathered as guests of the young men of the Ajax Club.

The Academy was elaborately decorated in gay colors. The "Ajax Special," as usual took place at eleven o'clock, led by Mr. Henry Starks, accompanied by Miss Sadie Mae Adams.

Punch was then served to the merry dancers, that they might refresh themselves.

Wonderful music was rendered by "Wright's Celebrated Orchestra."

Quite a number of out-of-town guests were present. Viz: Miss Elizabeth Dougherty, of Howard University, Misses Alethia Randell and Mamie Sanders of Charleston, Mr. Williams, of Sumter; Mr. Frank Adams, of Greenville; Mr. B. T. Miller, of Laurens and others.

PHI BETA SOCIETY OF ALLEN UNIVERSITY.

Because of important duties which kept the President and Vice-President late, Mr. Sawyer was elected President Pro. Tem. for the time being. Mr. Joseph Freeman read a very interesting paper. The male division of the Glee Club was practicing and is the reason so many were absent.

Professor G. A. Singleton, lectured on the book called "Toward the Understanding of Jesus," by Vladimir Simkhovitch. It is needless to review a book or person unless you have a background. Jesus' program was an economical one.

1. Priesthood. 2. Scribe. 3. Sanhedrin Court. 4. Mistaken Ideas of the Messiah. 5. Jesus and Barrabas. After his lecture he asked for questions and several members responded.

Response Miss Osmona LeVallie. On the next meeting a debate was had. Resolved: "That men of action have been of more benefit than men of thought." Affirmative: Mr. Harold Johnson and Mr. James Sawyer. Negative: Mr. Lewis Thompson and Mr. Alphonso Crawford. Rebuttal:

Mr. Sawyer and Mr. Thompson. Judges: Messrs. James Giles, Luther Glenn and George Smith.

Many strong points were made by both sides. The Negative won, but the Affirmative had the strongest points but failed to prove them.

Rev. Holman was a welcome visitor and gave us a short talk on: "The Soul of the World is Sick with Sin and Ignorance." Paper on "Music" was read by Miss Kathryn Sharper.

Refreshments were served to the Society and friends. Kathryn Sharper, Reporter.

Harvey Wants A Journal

Seneca, S. C., April 27—Editor Palmetto Leader:

In reading the Knights of Pythias official (white) organ, of South Carolina, how I wish we had an organ to "tuss and discuss" matters of vital concern so far as the braves are interested. Out of 8 or 10 thousand braves the majority would be willing to welcome such a mouth piece as a pearl of great price. We have some professional men going around posing as a "K. of P.," yea we have men of the cloth going the rounds posing as such in order to draw on the order on every thanksgiving day. Were you to ask such men what is the name and number of your lodge? they would clear up their throats many a time ere the correct answer would be given. Aside from all of that we need a Journal to blow our horn. So watch

(your uncle) Harvey, at the next session of Grand Lodge.

ALLEN TAKES GAME FROM BENEDICT.

In a game of heavy hitting, Friday Allen's nine defeated Benedict to the tune of 10 to 1.

The game started off well and looked as though it would be a close affair; but Allen's sluggers opened up in the sixth inning and put four markers across the plate.

The outstanding feature of the game was the work of the pitcher Reed for Allen.

Score by innings: Allen 000 004 33x 10 Benedict 000 000 100-1 Batteries: Allen, Reed and Swinton. Benedict, Richardson and McFarlan.

Umpires: Pinson, Morris College, Smith, Clafin. Osmona LeVallie, Reporter.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of Fenton E. King, who departed this life, May 1, 1920.

"A bitter cup, a shock severe To part with one I loved so dear, My loss is great, I'll not complain, But trust in God to meet again.

In a world of pure delight, In a land where there is no night, Fenton, I know you are at rest, Believing you are a welcome guest."

His wife, (Mrs.) M. L. KING.

Mme. ESTELLE HUDSON.

Miss Estelle Hudson, who had charge of the Beauty Shop at I. S. Leevy's Department Store, 1131 Washington street, passed away Saturday night, April 25, at 8 o'clock; at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Griffin on Pine Street, where she was residing, while making her home here.

The news of Miss Hudson's death came as a severe shock to her many friends and acquaintances, which numbered many, considering her short sojourn here.

The following letter of condolence was sent to her parents by Mr. I. S. Leevy:

Columbia, S. C., Apr. 30, 1925. To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell, 38 West 137th St., New York, N. Y.

It is with very deep sympathy for your bereavement and the loss of your only daughter, Miss Estelle Hudson. We send these words of comfort:

Miss Hudson was a lovable young woman and all who knew her, loved her. She applied to me for a place in my Beauty Shop, stating that she wanted some work to do while recuperating from recent operations. I did not ask her for any recommendations, but admitted her on her womanly approach and honest face, and I was not disappointed in doing so. I thank God for my acquaintance with such a beautiful life. The shadow of her influence will forever grace our business. Like a mighty tower, she stood at the head of our Beauty Shop. Her advertisement in the weekly and daily papers, her introduction to prominent men and women everywhere, the excellent service she rendered her customers, who were growing in numbers like a mighty army, caused men and women everywhere to inquire for her and to seek after her service. She was like a candle on a hill, giving light to all.

We shall miss her from our store, our social gatherings, our church services and our mingling on life's thoroughfare as one of our own.

With faith in God, we cease our weeping and continue our journey toward the sunset of our own lives, believing that after the long dark night of eternity, we will greet Miss Estelle along with the Redeemed of God on the other side of the river where congregations never break up and Sabbaths never end.

L. S. LEEVY, Prop., Leevy's Dept. Store.

Newberry News.

Newberry, S. C., April 27.—

There was a very large crowd of people in town on last Saturday.

The farmers are getting through planting cotton. The Agricultural boys of Mt. Bethel Garmany school, are through planting their cotton projects. There are eight boys who have two acres of cotton each; four part time boys, eighteen in the evening class all through.

There was a high day at Miller Chapel A. M. E. Church all day Sunday. The Rev. J. B. Davis preached the morning sermon. At 8 P. M., the church was crowded to the utmost, to hear Rev. H. W. Walker. He preached from Isa. 28:10. It was one of those old time revival sermons. Rev. Walker is one of the coming preachers.

It has been announced and well advertised that on the second Sunday in May it will do anyone good to be at Miller Chapel to see how easy the members raise one thousand dollars. The membership is divided into Tribes. Each tribe is to bring fifty dollars. We have been told that some of them are ready to report. The President of Allen University, Dr. D. H. Sims will be our guest all day. Also other distinguished friends from Columbia. Come and see and help in this grand rally for the remodeling. The church work will begin at once.

Mrs. James Wallace was carried to the hospital and also Mrs. Porterfield, on last Thursday for operations. Both have been performed.

Mrs. Maria Emory one of the oldest and most beloved women of Utopia Section, died on Friday night. Mrs. Emory was 76 years of age. She was a devoted woman to her church. She is survived by one son J. B. Emory, one daughter, Mrs. Marshall and a host of relatives.

Funeral services were conducted by her pastor Rev. E. R. Anderson, Sunday 11 A. M. Interment in Hanah Church cemetery.

The people of Newberry are very glad to have Rev. Dillard back again as pastor of Calvary Presbyterian church. He pastored here forty years ago. He must be a good man to repeat himself.

Bethlehem Baptist Church.

On Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock, the Rev. J. A. Baten, pastor of Bethlehem Baptist church brought a wonderful message to his people, taking for his text Exodus 3:3. The following preachers were present: Revs. A. B. Caldwell, C. M. Means, one of Bethlehem's newly licensed preachers, and old Father H. Hentz.

At 4 P. M. the Young Men's Forum met in its regular meeting. President N. C. Lake, presiding. Invocation by Rev. C. M. Means. After which the pastor introduced Rev. S. E. Martin a newly licensed preacher from Miller Chapel, M. E. church.

Rev. Martin preached a strong encouraging sermon; taking for his text Cor. th:5. This being Rev. Martin's second sermon, although it would have led one to believe that he had been in the field for a number of years.

Miss Carrie L. Batorgan was at the piano, accompanied by Mr. W. C. Baker, who played his violin.

Mrs. Ellsworth Patterson, organist of Bethlehem Baptist church is on the sick list. Hope she will soon be out again.

Mr. R. E. Patterson, from the firm of Patterson & Pratt Undertaking Establishment went to Union Sunday to conduct a funeral for a white undertaker, accompanied by brother Jesse White. When it comes to conducting funerals they are on the job.

The B. Y. P. U., was in full bloom on Sunday evening with Master Eugene Schumpert at the piano and Mr. W. C. Baker with his violin. Mr. Baker is a business man of this town running a first-class Barber Shop.

After B. Y. P. U. services, Rev. Baten preached a wonderful sermon taking his text from Jeremiah 6 chapter and 3rd, verse. He certainly preached with force. He is the best preacher in the state. Rev. Pollock and Rev. W. K. Wilson were visitors at our church on Sunday night.

The Missionary Society of Bethlehem Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Florence Clerkley. This society is doing a great work. After the business of the afternoon we were highly served with ices and cake. We always enjoy being at the home of Sister Clerkley. Mrs. Mamie Douglass is President, Mrs. J. A. Baten, Vice-Pres., Mrs. Chanie Lake, Sec., and Mrs. Gussie Miller, Treasurer.

Bethlehem is planning a great rally for the third Sunday in May. Rev. H. M. Moore spent a few hours in town, returning home from Greenwood, where he has been visiting his mother. We are always glad to have such men stop with us at any time. The Cadet Boys of Newberry are drilling fine. They are under the command of Sir J. B. Giles and Sir E. R. Miller. They are looking forward to the coming of the Grand Lodge, which is to be held in this place in July. They are lively and full of pep. Sir E. R. Miller is 1st Sergeant of R. E. Williams Co. of the Cadets.

The Rev. J. A. Baten was out of town this week, conducting revival meeting for Rev. Gandy, Pastor 1st Baptist church, Greenville, S. C.

Mrs. Gussie E. Miller called the Lady Courts together Friday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a Calanthe Drill Corps. They met at the home of Sir J. B. Giles, E. Caldwell St. They hope to have everything in readiness for this coming Grand Lodge.

The members and friends of Bethlehem are glad to know that Sister Charity Montgomery of Coats street and Sister Mary Dorrah of Brantley Street are able to be out again, after both having undergone an operation at the Columbia hospital.
