

Locals And Personals

The Club of Benedict College boys entertained with a party on Friday night at the home of Miss Berley on Marion Street.

Mrs. Lillian Spencer formerly of this city but now residing in Aiken, S. C., spent the day in our city as the guest of Mrs. Rosa Nesbit.

Mrs. Addie Lyles spent the week-end in Savannah visiting her niece, Mrs. Albertina Hume, who was ill but was much improved on her return.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bascard announce the birth of a daughter, Teretha Leo, born December 2nd. Mother and daughter are doing fine.

Mrs. Harry Goodwin was hostess to Le Cerle Entra Nous Club on Thursday afternoon. The Games were played in a setting of roses and the Christmas spirit prevailed throughout the evening. Prizes were won by Misses Cornwell and Sutton and a salad course was served.

At St. Lukes P. E. Church on Hampton Avenue., Rev. J. B. Elliott will preach and administer the Holy Communion Sunday December 13th at 11:15 A. M.

AJAX CLUB NEWS

The Ajax Social Club held a special meeting Monday Dec. 7. The meeting was opened by the vice-president, Mr. Heyward Friday by singing "America" followed by the Lord's prayer. The minutes of the November meeting were read by the secretary, Mr. A. Rowe, after the opening performance and special business was dispensed with the usual suggestions and designs were then considered. Plans for the winter dances were made.

Mr. Henry Felder made an impressive talk about the kind and time the Ajax Socials should be given. Messrs. Starks, Adams and Gilliam also gave some forceful comments.

Mr. James Mitchell, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee was praised highly by the President for the effective way he carried out the entertaining program recently.

The Ajax Syncopaters are enjoying great success and are to play for the Radio Social Club's dance, Friday. It was decided before the adjournment of the meeting to meet at Heyward Friday's home on 1300 block of Blossom Street Monday, Dec. 7. James Wise, Reporter

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF BURIAL AID SOCIETY

Mrs. Susie Blake McKan attended the annual convention of the Christian Home Benefit Burial Aid Society at Johnson, S. C. December 3, 4, 5, and 6. They did much good for that city.

Many hundreds of dollars was collected and old debts paid off. Every one should be a Christian Home member, it helps you while you are in health, helps you when you are sick and buries you when you die.

We meet every 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month at Pinkneys Hall, Lodge No. 61

Mrs. Susan B. McKan, Financial Secretary, Mrs. Jessis B. Legge, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Corine Javis, Vice-president Mrs. Jessie Counts.

A CORRECTION

In our write-up of the death and funeral of Rev. T. B. Nelson, our reporter stated that Rev. Nelson was buried beside his father-in-law, the late Bishop W. D. Chappelle. This was a mistake, he was buried by his father and not his father-in-law.

NOTICE

The Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Victory Savings Bank will be held Friday Dec. 18th, at Frederick's Hall, 1331 Assembly Street, Columbia, S. C.

W. H. Harvey, Pres., G. C. Floyd, Cashier.

NOTICE

The regular monthly meeting of the Richland County Teachers Association will be held Saturday Dec. 19, at 12 o'clock at the Booker Washington High School.

Devotional exercises to be conducted by Dr. I. D. Davis and refreshments served by the faculty of New Howard.

There will be a continuation of the Methods and Presentation of Geography by Mrs. C. D. Saxton.

Teachers are asked to pay their annual dues.

Miss C. A. Jackson, Pres., Mrs. M. E. Dunmore, Chairman Program Committee.

NEWBERRY NEWS

Newberry, Dec. 10 The Columbia Annual Conference met in Miller Chapel A. M. E. Church Dec. 2nd, Bishop J. Albert Johnson of N. C. presided. On Tuesday evening at 7:30 a program was rendered by the talent of Miller Chapel Rev. E. P. Ellis master of ceremonies.

Greetings on the part of the mothers and housewives—Mrs. Carrie Floyd; Greetings on behalf of the Sunday School, Miss Ruth Stephens; Greetings on the part of the fathers - Prof. U. S. Galman; Greetings on behalf of the A. C. E. League, Mr. S. E. Martin; Greetings on behalf of the Educational Interest, Prof. R. F. Gladden; Greetings on behalf of the Denominations of the city, Rev. James A. Baten, A. M.; D. D. Remarks by Rev. Davis.

The conference assembled Wednesday morning 9:00 A. M. for business. Wednesday evening at 7:30 Rev. E. A. Adams preached one of his soul-stirring sermons. On Thursday evening the Rev. W. B. Bowler preached the Missionary Sermon. Friday evening 7:30 President D. H. Sims, addressed the conference on the work of Allen University.

The work of the conference was completed on Saturday at 1:30 P. M. A banquet was given in honor of the Bishop, members of the conference, visitors and all missionary workers by the ladies of Miller Chapel at the Hodge School building. The committee on entertainment is composed of 145 women. They served seventy-five preachers at one table, they had everything on this table that fly in the air that was eatable, everything that grow in the garden from pork salad up, everything to drink from water up to lemon punch.

Sunday morning 9:00 A. M. Sunday School opened with the Superintendent E. F. Floyd presiding Dean Alston of Allen University addressed the Sunday School. At 10:30 A. M. Bishop J. Albert Johnson preached a sermon from the book of Acts 3:6. The church was crowded to hear this wonderful preacher it was said among the hearers it was the best we ever heard.

Sunday night 6:00 P. M. Bishop W. W. Beckett arrived from one of his conferences in Mississippi in company with his daughter and one of the presiding elders of Miss. Rev. E. H. Coit, one of the general officers, preached the evening sermon.

Bishop Beckett told about the conference held in Miss. and how glad he was to meet with the Columbia Conference.

The appointments for Newberry District Presiding Elder, Rev. G. K. Lyles, Newberry Station; Rev. E. P. Ellis, Silver Street; Rev. T. F. Harper, Hannah Circuit; Rev. G. C. Glover, Prosperity; Rev. W. M. Thompson, Newberry Circuit; Rev. C. Brogden, Helena Circuit; Rev. O. A. Parker, Mt. Hebron Circuit; Rev. N. A. Rice, St. James Circuit; Rev. B. A. Lykes, Mt. Olive Circuit;

Rev. E. L. Lilliewood, Prof. W. M. Buchaman, the assistant Supervisor of Agriculture of Colored Schools was the guests of Mr. E. F. Floyd on last Thursday, they visited Mt. Bethel-Garmany school where agriculture is taught by Mr. Floyd, also the Brown School, and Hodge Graded School on Friday with Prof. Gladden, where agriculture is taught by Prof. Gladden.

Mrs. Julia Hudson passed away on last Thursday. She was vice-president of the Women Home Benefit Society. She was funeralized at Bethlehem Baptist Church Sunday afternoon by Rev. A. W. Brown of Tenn.

Mrs. S. T. Moon has gone to New York on a visit.

Every body is asked to come out to Miller Chapel Sunday to hear the new preacher.

CHESTER PARAGRAPHS

Mr. J. S. Standback, Prof. S. L. Finley, Mr. J. C. Channel and several others attended the Mason's Grand Lodge in Columbia this week.

Mrs. Lila Reed and little son of N. Y. City, are visiting relatives for several weeks.

The entire city was saddened when the news reached here that Mrs. Louise Stewart Moran of N. Y. City was dead, Louise left Chester about a year and a half ago. She was married in N. Y. to Mr. Theodore Moran. Just a few weeks, after leaving here. The remains were accompanied here by her husband, brother Joseph, her sisters Mrs. Johnnie Stewart, Misses Mary and Josephine. The funeral sermon was preached by her pastor Rev. W. M. Honor at Mt. Olive Baptist Church of which she was a loyal member. Rev. L. D. Sims also spoke and Miss Odessa Alpl read a paper. The Junior Choir of Calvary Baptist Church furnished the music. The floral designs were some of the most beautiful ever seen here.

Beneath a mound of flowers the body was laid to rest in Hebron Cemetery, with Undertaker J. Spann in charge. She left an infant 7 days old. Mrs. Moran was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stewart, Center Street.

After an illness of more than a year, Mrs. Lavlett Dixon died at the home of her grandmother on Ashford-St. All that loving hands and medical skill could was done but to no avail. The funeral sermon was preached by her pastor, Rev. J. S. Gilmore, of Rock Hill, S. C. Dr. Russell, of Rock Hill sang, "Face to Face" Her remains were interred in Hebron Cemetery. Her husband Mr. Harold Dixon, he mother, Mrs. Mattie Hemphill, her two little children, Edgar and Naomi and a host of relatives and friends survive her. Undertaker E. N. Isom was in charge.

Miss Minnie Walker, of Columbia and Mr. Willie Johnson attended the funeral of Mrs. Louise Moran, Monday.

The children of the Calvary Baptist Church Sunday School are rehearsing a Cantata, entitled, "Santa's Christmas Barrel" to be rendered Christmas night. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFadden new bungalow on Oak St. will soon be ready for occupancy.

Mr. Harvey McLurkin Oak St. is on the sick list.

SPARTANBURG NEWS

Sunday last was another beautiful day for Spartanburg and all over the city the bells were heard to toll.

Rev. T. F. Hall, pastor of the Majority Baptist Church is back in the city after making a business trip to New York. Dr. Hall left the city for New York Sunday night Nov. 29th and he was here Sunday to fill his pulpit. He reported a pleasant trip of it.

Dr. Williams, pastor of the Golden Street Baptist Church motored over to Fountain C. Sunday last to fill an engagement with the Mt. Zion Baptist Church after hearing Dr. Williams morning and night the officers went to themselves then after a few minutes talk they came back and put Rev. Williams before the house with more than 200 present and without casting a vote everybody voted for Rev. Williams as pastor for the Mt. Zion Baptist Church. Dr. Williams then came forward and thanked them for their vote. But he said that you all will have to give me some for I am not as a man out of a job, then he spoke of the Palmetto Leader and he said that it ought to be in every home in the state of South Carolina and many pledged Dr. Williams when he came back again that their hope was to be able to subscribe for the paper. Dr. Williams is thinking of coming to Columbia next Wednesday, if so, he will make his business with the offices of the Palmetto Leader and too he may stay a few days to look Columbia over.

Reporter

CLINTON NEWS

Mrs. Virginia P. Kennedy and son James, Jr., left for Plant City, Fla., Saturday 5th.

Rev. E. L. Lilliewood and family motored to Newberry to attend the conference last Sunday.

Mr. John Gary and Mr. Samuel Patterson left Tuesday 8th for The Grand Lodge meeting in Columbia, S. C.

We were very glad to have Bishop Beckett of Miss. to pass through the city, among those that met him were, Dr. Sims, President of Allen University, Rev. E. A. Adams, Pastor of Bethel in Columbia, and Dr. Mance of Columbia.

Rev. J. K. Lyles and Rev. Eddie Young returned from the conference Monday 7th.

Mrs. Anna Laura Harris of Phila., Miss Mamye Young of Laurens, Mrs. Francis Pucket, Mrs. Bell Whitmire and Mr. Joseph Young of Washington, D. C., attended the funeral of their sister Mrs. Sallie Ducket of Greenville, S. C., buried at the Methodist Church here Thursday 3rd.

Mrs. Margaret Gary of S. Bell Street was buried Tuesday 1st. The Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. Anna Henry Friday 4th.

All sewing that was completed was inspected by each member. An inspiring program was rendered and a delightful repast was served.

Tuesday 8th, the Trustees, Parents and Teachers met at the Clinton High School to organize an association for Emancipation celebration which will be Jan. 1st. Officers and a program committee were elected. We are planning to make this a day to be remembered by all that will attend. It will be the first held in Laurens County.

CAMDEN SOCIAL NEWS

A recently announced engagement of interest in Camden is that of Miss Dorothy Wolst to Mr. A. R. Levy. The

NELSON'S BEAUTY PARLOR

Hair Dressing of All Kinds.

Mme. Josephine Nelson, Mgr. 1317 Wheat St., Columbia, S. C.

marriages to take place on the 25. at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Mrs. Wolst received her education at Mother Academy and Claflin University. Mr. Levy received his from the city schools and State College. Both parties are prominent in the social circles of Camden.

Mrs. Geneva C. Mayhew, of Oyster Bay, N. Y. is visiting her mother here.

Mr. Phillip Brisbane arrived from Massachusetts for the winter season.

Services at the M. E. Church were well attended Sunday morning, the sermon was very instructive, it was Rev. B. P. Bradford farewell sermon before leaving for conference. Dr. Jacob Williams of St. Louis was in the city last week.

Miss Clara Brqvard entertained members of Queen Ester's Club at her home Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bolden of Union, was in Camden last week.

Mr. E. H. Dibble, reputed to be one of the wealthiest Negroes in the State retired from business, last week.

To reach the Colored people advertise in "The Palmetto Leader."

R. C. WILLIAMS & SONS

Incorporated

FURNITURE, RUGS, LINOLEUMS, SHADES

Phone 5815

1638 MAIN STREET

Columbia, S. C.

CAPITAL COAL CO.

RETAILERS OF

Clinchfield RED Ash Coal

621 Lady Street Phones 7134 3956

WANTED

A School Teacher, who can teach and play music. Must be a graduate and hold a First Grade certificate. Good position for the right teacher.

School near Columbia.

For further information, write

The Palmetto Leader

1310 Assembly Street

COLUMBIA, S. C.

Puncture Proof

Puncture Proof Inner Tubes Gas Savers and Carbon Removers, Guaranteed

The biggest bill is the gas bill, Gas Savers and Carbon Removers cut the gas bill 50 per cent.

Agents wanted in every County for both. Both fast sellers.

Write for Terms.

Liberal Commission.

C. B. JOHNSON

501-C. Markley St. Greenville, S. C.

WHOLESALE DIRECT TAILORS

Every garment is tailored to your individual measurements out of fast color, cold water shrunk, finest quality, all wool fabrics. Good fit, workmanship and service guaranteed.

Selling direct from maker to wearer at wholesale prices saves all in-between profits for your own pocket.

Suits and Overcoats $18.50, $22.50, $28.50 and $36.50

CUSTOM TAILORS SINCE 1899.

P. A. SMITH, Sales Representative, 1017 Washington Street, Columbia, S. C.