BY DR. J. C. WHITE

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS.

Miss Ruth Bynum, primary teacher in the New Howard School opened and closed the Sunday School last Sunday. Miss Bynum is an expert reader, accurate and of a pleasing disposition, she is the efficient Supt. of the Cradle Roll Department. At 11:30 a. m., the Rev. Dr. White our pastor, preached a most wonderful sermon on the subject of "God reversing the death sentence of Hezekiah." Zion was on fire with the Holy Spirit.

At 3 o'clock p. m., Pastor White and some of his faithful ones motored over to the Brookland Baptist where he met a warm spirited band of believers. Rev. Carl Benton, (white) assisted the pastor in the afternoon services. Here Dr. White delivered another great sermon, two members joined the Church.

Sunday night Dr. White preached the sermon of his life—continued and finished his famous sermon of Hezekiah. It was a great night in Zion.

Dr. White in Asheville—Our pastor is in Asheville this week preaching at the First Baptist Church for Dr. O. R. Gordon, he will return to-day, so as to fill his pulpit to-morrow. Benedict College Day at Zion.

Benedict College's whole student body will march in full array down to Zion tomorrow, where the pastor will preach a special sermon to them. Dr. White has asked the whole Church to bring a special offering for the college. Each graduate or former student is asked to give as well as every member and friend. Let Zion lead while others follow.

JONES CHAPEL A. M. E. Z. CHURCH

Quit number attended 11 o'clock service at Jones-Chapel and enjoyed a sermon full of thought accompanied with the Holy Ghost by the Pastor, Dr. A. E. Lomax. Many a heart was made merry to rejoice in the Lord Jesus. He preached from St. Matthew 16:23, "What will it profit a man to gain the world and lose his soul, or what will he give in exchange?"

At 6:30 the V. C. E. Society had a topic discussion by members and friends. The Society is alive and is steadily growing.

In the evening the pastor preached from Gal. 6:17, "For henceforth, let no man harm me for I have buried my body on the Lord Jesus." Subject, "Impossible."

Sunday March 7, Dr. J. C. Lewis our Presiding Elder will be present to hold his quarterly meeting on Monday night Mar. 8. He will preach Sunday morning, and possibly Sunday night. The public is cordially invited to hear this strong and noble preacher.

SIDNEY PARK C. M. E. CHURCH NEWS

The Sunday School is going at its best, since the membership drive has been put on and more classes added, the attendance has increased twice its number. A splendid lesson was discussed by the teachers.

At morning service we were favored with the presence of our Presiding Elder, Dr. B. E. Golphin, who preached a very instructive sermon from Exodus 14:16, "But lift up thine rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea and divide it; and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the sea."

At 6:00 p. m., the Epworth League was opened by the Pres. A short song service was held, after which a program was rendered under the auspices of M. Benj. Boozer. Mr. Foster made some very good remarks. He stated his points so clearly that went through the minds of the whole congregation. A special program is put on every Sunday for the League. All visiting friends are requested to be present.

The Choral Club is still in progress and renders beautiful music. They rendered the music for the Program at Second Calvary last Sunday evening, and was asked by Mr. Bryan to render a musical program at South Carolina College (white) last Sunday night, which they did.

On Monday night, March 8, the Rev. J. C. White of Zion Baptist Church will preach for us. Come out and hear him and his Jubilee Choir.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH

The Sunday School had quite a representative number of the Older Boys' Conference delegation Sunday morning. The study of the lesson was interestingly conducted by all the teachers after which Prof. T. H. Neal of Rock Hill, S. C. using the time for review, made us a splendid address. Mr. Bullock, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and Prof. Tobias, Seniors, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of America, were present and introduced to the Sunday School by the pastor.

At 11:15 a. m. to a packed audience the pastor in a few brief remarks presented Dr. C. H. Tobias, Senior Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of America to preach who after reading the 17th chapter of the 1st Corinthians, selected the whole chapter for his text, emphasizing love. Everybody was highly pleased and expressed himself as such after listening to such a wonderful discourse, asserted, "When Christ came upon the scene, He said to all mankind, A new commandment give I unto you that you love one another." Christianity has been many times hidden or obscured and nothing but the Love spoken of in this new commandment has been successful in clearing away the obstruction. The command is too simple," said Dr. Tobias, "We like complex things. This love works gently but nevertheless, effectively. The Christian religion works from within us as the silent forces in nature, finally, any religion that is not full of love is vain, futile and powerless."

The A. C. E. League service was very good, come to these services and learn to do by doing things.

Sunday night, Dr. E. A. Adams preached from Ezekiel 26 and latter clause of the 35 verse, sub. "The guarantees of God; 1st. His promise, 2nd. Gods power, 3rd. His purpose to save his people, 4th. He will provide." Beautifully explained and charging that in order for us to receive these there is so much required of us to do.

The Clubs and Boards are working in harmony with each other at their entertainments, which means success for all. The newly organized Club (The Trustees' Helpers) had quite a success Monday night. Help us to help each other Lord and we have a guarantee of success in every undertaking.

Ministers' Union

The Interdenominational Ministers Union met in First Calvary Baptist Church, Feb. 23, with Rev. E. A. Adams presiding. The devotions were conducted by Dr. G. T. Dillard, the Chaplain.

The meeting was well represented. Nearly all members were present, and a good spirit of Christian friendship was manifested throughout the session. The Union was graced with the presence of four visitors namely: Dr. H. W. Long of the Presbyterian Church, Cheraw, S. C.; Dr. I. B. Brown, rector of St. Luke Episcopal Church of the City to which he has been recently called; Dr. J. C. McMorris, a representative of the religious, educational department of the M. E. Church and Dr. I. H. Alston of Allen University, all of whom addresses the Union with befitting words.

The complete arrangement for the installation and banquet were effected in the Union Tuesday Feb. 24 at Sidney Park C. M. E. Church, at 8:45 p. m.

Dr. I. D. Davis, Master of Ceremonies, in a dignified and adept style, called the attention of the appreciative audience to the occasion.

The interdenominational choir of many voices, made up of members of several choirs of the City, rendered sweet and harmonious music for the occasion that cannot be excelled save by angels.

The ministers of the Union were dressed in uniforms, style black, which presented a graceful appearance to this intelligent congregation who looked on. Dr. N. S. Smith who was presented by Dr. I. D. Davis to preach the Installation Sermon, preached an electrifying and edifying sermon from the texts: 1st Cor. 9:16 and Romans 1:16.

The installation of officers was performed in grand style by Dr. P. P. Watson. The installed are: Rev. E. A. Adams, Pres.; Rev. H. W. Long, Vice-Pres.; Rev. A. E. Lomax, Sec.; Rev. W. E. Farmer, Treas.; Rev. H. E. Washington, Asst. Sec. and Rev. G. T. Dillard, Chaplain.

The repast which followed as the climax to the occasion, is almost beyond description. The basement of Sidney Park Church became the recipient of the happy souls of both ministers and professional men and women from nearly every walk of life, who marched from the main auditorium by orders of the grand Church, to find a table nearly a hundred feet long groaning under the weight of eatables of old Roman pastor of Sidney Park most every thing the heart could wish, provided by a committee of some of the best women in the world, with no exceptions. The feast was occasionally intersected with toast speeches by Drs. D. H. Sims, A. E. Lomax, G. T. Dillard, Mance, E. A. Adams and others conducted by the Master of Ceremonies. Everybody who witnessed the occasion expressed their delight of having been present, and returned to their respective homes singing God's praise.

Thus closed one of the most conspicuous banquets fraught with the spirit of christianity it has been ours to witness.

NEW BROOKLAND BAPTIST CHURCH.

Last Sunday was a great day at the Brookland Baptist church. The pastor, Rev. J. C. White, came over on time, and all were glad to see him. The pastor preached as if it were his last time. He chose his text from II Kings, 20th chapter and 2nd verse. Subject: "Studying among the Clerks." Shall the shadow go forward 10 degrees or go back 10 degrees. You should have been there while he talked with us by the way. Had you been there, you would have fully agreed with Romans 10:14-15 verses: How shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach except they be sent? I mean he is a preacher; and one whom we all believe was sent. At the close of his text he opened the door for joiners and two were added to our membership.

At 8 o'clock, Rev. J. M. Miles preached, and he did his best. His subject was: "Make a Joyful Noise." I tell you he made them all make a joyful noise. We are always glad to have him with us; as he is our own, and he can come home any time he likes. He is one among the best in the state Brookland thinks.

Mr. Henry Andrews Of Calhoun Falls Passes

Calhoun Falls, Mar. 1.—The many friends of Mr. Henry Andrews will regret to hear of his death which occurred Wednesday night at his home after an illness of two weeks. He was in the 63rd year of his age and had been in bad health for the past several years and confined entirely to his room and bed for the last two weeks.

He was a member of Springfield Baptist Church, and served as a Deacon for several years, was a good father and friend and a noble Christian gentleman. Funeral services were conducted at the Church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock by his pastor Rev. A. Ware. Interment was made in Springfield Cemetery.

Mr. Andrews is survived by his wife, Mrs. Polly Andrews, one daughter, Mrs. Sylvester Wiggdaway of Calhoun Falls, S. C., three sons, Wardell, Julius and Moses Andrews. The latter is on the sick list at this writing relatives to lament.

and two brothers Moses and Tom Andrews and a host of other relatives and friends to lament. His last words were: "Tell the Church to meet me in Heaven."
