Who Will Help?

Deserving Young Poet

Father Octavius Gadson, an inmate of a local Sanitarium, has compiled a book of Poems. He has shown wonderful ambition and will power in preparing these poems, as most of his writings was done while confined to bed.

He hopes, so he says, to write his name across the fair skies of the Literary World before he embarks on his solitary journey.

Everyone who reads this should procure one of his books, and show appreciation to a young poet, who has been handicapped by ill health in his work. The price of the book is 25c, by mail 30c. For sale at The Palmetto Leader office, 1310 Assembly Street, Columbia, S. C.
