

The "Old Gray" and The New Rider

By E. Philip Ellis

The dates of the electoral colleges of this State are fast approaching and this worthy cause of the church are anticipated with consideration at these meetings. These meetings belong to the church, so far as organization, deliberation and consideration are concerned, but no decent lay member would dare spurn the prayers and counsel of the ministry. Then being a constituted church meeting, the usual invitation "whoever will may come" holds good. Every pastor should see that a representative be elected and sent from every station, circuit and mission in the conference to represent that charge at the electoral college. Our last general conference has allowed 3 lay representatives instead of two, as has been heretofore and it has also made it possible for women to become representatives. In that it claims to be giving them equal rights. But when one considers that the men cannot become members of the Quadrennial Convention, it seems now that the women have more rights. I am in hearty accord with woman's suffrage in our church and yet I doubt seriously as to whether we have helped legislation in our church by adding women. But be it as it may, it is up to the men of the church to decide as to whether they are willing to sacrifice their chances in the church to the women of the church. I mean laymen. The election of women to the General Conference will in no wise interfere with the ministerial representatives. So brother laymen, it is up to you. I think however, that the women should be reasonable and considerate. Say for instance, a woman that has been elected to the Quadrennial Convention, ought support another worthy sister for the General Conference. She should not want everything when other women in the church ought to have their share. Let the laity have better open their eyes and look will to these things. "A hint to the wise, etc."

We shall have much to say in our given space in this paper along this many other lines from time to time. The capital city is quite jubilant over the great work that is to be started here soon on the Saluda dam. It will certainly help the laborers and enhance the business interest of our city. The crops in Santer, Kershaw, Lancaster, Chester and Richland counties are indeed prosperous and bespeak a great year's harvest. Let our people be grateful to God for his wonderful blessings. Frequent His Holy Sanctuary, pay your vows and receive blessings from our Heavenly Father.

The Lancaster and Columbia districts have recently closed successful district meetings. The older district members say they were the best in the history of those districts. Both of these districts are interested in each other. Both have a noble set of ministers and lay members of whom both presiding elders are proud. Dr. G. K. Lyles, presiding elder of the Newberry district addressed both of these conferences and made the right impression. Wonderful addresses were also delivered at both meetings by Presiding Elders T. J. Miles, R. W. Mance; President Sims, Revs. J. W. Shaw, N. A. Rice, L. G. Bowman, Prof. Green Jackson and Prof. E. M. Presley. Drs. Julius Holman, E. A. Adams and J. E. Beard were at their best on our educational subjects. Rev. Emanuel credit at our conference. propose to discuss later measures in church, race and fraternal orders. In that our educational interest will not be neglected.

We had a high day in Zion on the Allen Circuit on last Sunday. The spiritual tide was at its highest and our souls were set on hallowed fire. Mr. Frank McNeal from North Carolina joined the church at the close of the service. The church was proud of him. This brings our quarterly conference joiners to 42. Rev. E. P. Butler is styled the evangelist of the district. He is a successful pastor and a gospel preacher and is bound to succeed any where. He has a great set of men and women on this charge, some of whom are: Bros. W. J. Keith, E. D. Vaughn, J. P. Maple, W. R. Robinson, A. B. Ballard, Lucius Robinson, Jackson McElwane; Sisters Delia Robinson, Carrie McElwane, Betsie Robinson, Watie Keith, Julia McQuilena, Lena Thines and a host of others. You need not fear any failure from this charge and pastor.

This week-end will find us at the High Hill and Willow Grove Stations. We will preach for G. W. James at High Hill Sunday at 1:00 A. M. and for Rev. S. W. Fordham at High Hill Sunday night. Let the people pray for the presence of the Holy Spirit. "Let us advance on our knees."

The death of Rev. J. R. Parrott, after an illness of about six weeks, occurred Sunday afternoon. The funeral was very largely attended at his home church, Armenia. The procession was more than a mile long, and hundreds could not gain admittance into the church. Brief eulogistic remarks were made by several preachers and friends. Papers were read from representatives, who came from his church in Winston-Salem. The casket was banded with beautiful flowers. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Parrott, Washington Parrott, a little son, J. R., Jr., and several sisters and brothers. This was the first corpse to be in state in Undertaker J. E. Spang's magnificent new funeral home. In the beautiful chapel of this building, brief services were held at which time, three white friends spoke after which, the procession wended its way on the ten mile journey to Armenia for further funeral services. BENEDICT 8; CLAFIN 6

Hartsville, S. C., May 6—In a great exhibition game here today the Benedict Boys defeated the strong defenders of the Orange and Marion to the tune of 8 to 6. The Clafin Panthers with Butler on the mound and Blake receiving held Benedict to a shut out until the fifth inning and at the same time they made 5 runs. During the 5th frame as the result of a terrific rally, Benedict made 6 runs and then kept the lead to the end of the game. This marks the third defeat the Clafin has received out of a series of 11 games.

CLAFIN WINS FROM BENEDICT

Columbia, S. C., April 29—Clafin ended her historic base ball week by decisively defeating the Benedict "Baptists" on their own grounds by a score of 16 to 9.

CLAFIN LOSES TO ALLEN 7-2

Orangeburg, S. C., May 3—Before a large group of spectators composed of alumni, students and friends of both institutions, the Clafin Panthers were defeated in their lair by the Allenites of the score of 7-2. Smith, who pitched a stellar game for Clafin last week by defeating Allen 2-1, did not show his usual form in this game. The Allen sluggers obtained a lead of 4 scores in the first inning, which they kept throughout the game. Smith was replaced by Levy in the seventh after Swinton of Allen had made the most spectacular play of the game by hitting a four bagger with one man on base.

CLAFIN WINS FROM VOORHEES

Denmark, S. C., April 25—Levy got his first chance of the season in a pitchers' duel against the strong Voorhees aggregation and won for Clafin by a score of 6 to 2. That slow ball just was "too bad" for Voorhees while the drop from Washington held Clafin in many instances.

PAINE WINS FROM ALLEN

Augusta, Ga., May 7th—"Whip" Dye pitched one of the greatest games of his career Friday afternoon on Paine Field to win from Allen 5 to 4. The game was fast and thrilling from the start to the finish, being played in something less than one and one quarters hours. Paine got off with a bad start and outside of a four-bagger by Wiggins in the first frame, failed to score again until the sixth when a rally brought in four runs.

Allen drew the first blood. Swinton went to first on an error by Dean and advanced to third on a hard drive to left center by Koon, which was erred by Wiggins. Both scored on a single by Stone. The visitors' next score came in the fourth when a hard drive to centerfield by Peay resulted in a freak home run after the ball hit the ground, leaked through Wiggins hands, and made its way unconcernedly through a small hole to the outside of the fence. The last Allen tally was made when Kome reached first on a single, stepped to third on a fielder's choice.

Paine scored in the first when Wiggins slammed a homer over centerfield fence. A rally in the sixth brought in four runs. Singles by Dean, Pinckney and Roberts filled the bases. Dean ran in on an error. Wiggins singled sharply to centerfield and scored Pinckney. Roberts scored on a fly-out by Waller, while Wiggins crossed the plate on an error at second.

The remaining three innings were blank on both sides. After reviving the rally in the sixth, Scott got back into regular form and held the Augusta nine hitless. Dye got better and better as the game rolled on, and in the seventh, eighth and ninth he was absolute masher of the situation, rebuffing every effort of the Carolinians to hit and score for a winning margin.

PAINE WINS TWO FROM GEORGIA STATE

After winning one and tying one with the Jackson Tigers during the first part of the week, Paine ended up her week's tour in Savannah Friday and Saturday by impressively vanquishing Georgia State on her home grounds by the counts of 15 to 2 and 4 to 2 respectively.

The first game was a happy-go-lucky hitting ramage for the Paine sluggers. The profuse erroring of the Georgia State nin was taken advantage of in nearly every instance and Paine's one-sided margin was swelled considerably with unearned runs. On the other hand, the home team was held almost hitless by the superb pitching of Dye, who gave up only two hits and struck out eleven men.

Paine opened up the deluge in the first with three runs. Heavy hitting in the second accounted for four more. Paine took advantage of errors and wild pitching in the sixth frame and netted three tallies while the harvest ended in the eighth with five additional runs. A hit, a walk, and a fielder's choice were responsible for State's first run made in the seventh.

Three errors committed in the ninth accounted for the second score. In the second contest, Paine failed to show the great batting from exhibited the day before and the runs netted by the Augusta nine indicates a decidedly closer struggle.

A flock of runs in the first netted three runs for Paine at the outset. The hitting continued in the second and four additional runs resulted. Carpenter tightened down thereafter and held the Augusta nine scoreless for the remaining seven innings. A few scattered hits and errors accounted for State's two tallies. Dye was sent to the box in the seventh to relieve Cunningham, who was becoming wild, and sealed the fate of the Savannah boys until the close of the game.

SMITH PITCHES A ONE HIT GAME FOR A CLAFIN VICTORY 2-1

Columbia, S. C., April 28—It was a hot time for the contending champions when Clafin sent in Smith against the fast Allenites, who had not lost a game this season and when Clafin's ace allowed only one single across second base. All the "Medics" at their annual convention were thrilled and returned home having seen the finest exhibition of base ball that has been seen in South Carolina.

Scott, the Allen hurler was pitching some himself. It was a one hit game for Smith, while Scott gave up only five.
