THE MOST NOBLE NEGRO TEACHER

It is just here and there in life do we have a person making a real personal sacrifice for the public welfare.

When we think of her sacrifice it incites our admiration the more for she has labored year in and year out for nearly nothing.

She charges a small fee for tuition and never has been able to collect hardly a reasonable percentage of it, but she taught the children right in just the same.

During the session just ended when the public school was crowded out and could take no more children she packed them in her little school and helped to make up the deficiency as best she could and many of them were not able to pay at all.

Many years ago she turned her little cottage home into a school house and denied herself and husband the comforts of a home that she might be of special service to her people.

And more, she gives to the world this very year a son who will enter the teachers' profession as his mother. He graduates from Michigan University with the master's degree and will take up the life of self-sacrifice.

Surely this woman should not only be honored but have some reward. It would be an honor to her people in Union to show her some special act of appreciation. I hope it will be done while she can appreciate it.

May I say a word of our dear Bro. Tobin? He has been a faithful husband to a self-sacrificing wife, a thing that men seldom do. He would not only help to furnish the wood, coal and many other things when it was all out, but would do the many chores about the home and spared the wife that the good work might go on. He encouraged his wife in her work on the one hand and made his own deny himself many necessities on the other for the benefit of his people.

May the Lord bless them both and their family and may the good people of Union show their sympathy and appreciation in a substantial way that will help encourage them in their work.

-A. A. SIMS-

THANKS

I take this method of expressing my heartfelt thanks to Prof. A. A. Sims and his wife and the citizens of Union for the purse presented last evening.

I also thank all for the patronage given our school and again thank those who attended the closing exercises of the school.

I have been altogether surprised over this token of love and appreciation, and cannot now say more. I shall send the names of the contributors, with the amount to the Union Times also to the Palmetto Leader, published in Columbia, S. C.

Again I thank you and pray that God who remembers and watches over all will ever keep you in the "hollow of His hand."

Your very gratefully, Mary A. Miles Tobin, 20 S. Wallace St.

BOONES CHAPEL CHURCH HAS SUCCESSFUL RALLY

Laurens, S. C., June 12.—The rally at Boones Chapel last Sunday night was quite a success, and was witnessed by a number of persons from all of the churches in the city.

Despite the many things which broke in on the campaign for funds, the low morale of the people five months ago, aside from the membership's small numerical strength, $328.30 was realized in this rally.

Mrs. Sallie Blackstock, champion money collector, and Mrs. Annie Lou Owings received the first and prizes respectively for raising the highest amounts of money reported.

Aside from the many other distinguished visitors, Revs. J. C. McClellan and J. D. Boyd were present and throughout the campaign lent untiring efforts to all of us. The prizes, beautiful pearls and "ear-rings," were presented to Mesdames Blackstock and Owings by Revs. Boyd.

Mr. J. S. Hunter $5.10; Mrs. Eliza Watts $2.50; Mrs. Lavania Anderson $5.50; Mrs. May Gilliam $5.75; Mrs. A. C. East $12.80; Mrs. Emma Irby $2.65; Mrs. Leta Hailstock $5.00; Mrs. Mary Sullivan $40.00; Mrs. Lizzie Patterson $5.00; Mrs. Nonie Garlington $12.50; Mrs. Anna Putman $2.50; Mrs. Della Blakeley $19.55; Mrs. M. L. Witherspoon $17.05; Mrs. Sallie Blackstock $61.10; Mrs. Annie Lou Owings $40.50; Mrs. Sue Rice $2.75; Bro. Noel Williams $2.00; Rev. Witherspoon $25.00; public collection $5.60. Total $328.30.

Other reports have not yet come in. Dr. D. H. Johnson, presiding elder of the district gave us $5.00 and Rev. J. C. McClellan, approximately $8.00 for which we thank them. Aside from this splendid showing, Boones Chapel entertained to perfection the Laurens District Conference.

The distinguished visitors who were so highly pleased with the work here were: Dr. D. H. Sims, president of Allen University; Dr. E. P. Ellis, presiding elder of the Lancaster District; Dr. J. W. Douglass, presiding elder of the Greenville District; Dr. E. A. Adams, presiding elder of the Columbia District and Mrs. Adams; Drs. D. L. Witherspoon and Crawford, pastors of Allen Temple Greenville and Bethel, Anderson respectively and others.

A sumptuous repast, under the supervision and by the missionary ladies was had in honor of the members of the conference and visitors at Mrs. Sallie Blackstock Friday evening.

Under the soothing waves of sweet soft music rendered by Miss Claudia Robinson, who sat at the piano, veterans of the cross assembled in common relief from the anxiety of the work, and with chatting, laughter, greetings and rejoinders accepted the cream, tea, candy, salad, cake, etc., prepared by hands that know no relax.

To see that their comforts were complete, there were Mesdames M. L. nie Garlington, Della Blakeley, Barksdale, Alice Moore, Addie Hunter, Mary Sullivan, Mary Putman, Mary Parks. This will be repeated when the Conference League Convention convenes here some time in July. Popular Spring will again assist in serving as it did during the District Conference.

NEW YORK CITY LOCALS

Thursday evening there was an old fashioned Southern concert given at Little Mt. Zion Baptist Church by one of the auxiliaries known as the South Carolina club, with Miss Lottie B. Boykin as directress. Miss Boykin is vice-president of the same. It was quite a success.

Messrs. Dallas Davis and Ranson Cohen of Philadelphia, were weekend visitors the past week.

Mrs. Cassie Nelson is very ill at her home 52 W. 119th St.

Miss L. B. Boykin entertained at the residence of her sister, 2566 7th avenue, Monday evening. The following young men and ladies were present: Messrs. D. Davis, R. C. Cohen, Thomas Ross and George Cohen; Misses M. D. Woodard, Rachel Reynolds, Lolene Williams and Laura Boykin. Delicious course were served and everybody enjoyed the evening. They all happen to be South Carolinians.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of my dear husband, Willie Williams, who departed this life June 13th, 1926. As I loved you, so I miss you; You are always near; Loved, remembered, longed for always. Bringing many a silent tear.

REY. J. C. WHITE SOUNDS BUGLE CALL TO SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND B. Y. P. U.'s OF SOUTH CAROLINA

To the Sunday Schools and Baptist Young Peoples Unions of South Carolina, Greetings:

Just a little over one month from now, the greatest host of Baptist workers to be found in any State in the Union, will be assembled in Charleston, the old historic city by the sea, with the great Morris Street Baptist Church, Rev. J. C. Dunbar, pastor.

In my evangelistic labors, I have well nigh covered the State and I find that this Charleston meeting promises to be the greatest assemblage of Christian workers ever had by the Baptist in this State. The Piedmont, the middle section, western Carolina, the Pee Dee and the Coastal countries will all be there with full representation.

The State Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Convention is simply a big Bible school or religious methods and education, and is the biggest thing among the Baptist in this State.

Heretofore this convention attracted the attention of white and colored throughout the State, but this year one of the best educational programs together with the departmental groups, such as the ministerial department, the public department, the choir's group, the primary group, B. Y. P. U. group, kindergarten, the teachers and superintendents group, will function with expert instructors.

The Executive Board met at Benedict College, May 23rd and one of the most progressive programs will soon appear in the newspapers of the state. Entertaining music, great orators, tireless preachers will appear from time to time, as well as some of the timely topics you will hear.

I am hereby appealing to the Baptist ministers, superintendents, teachers, presidents and B. Y. P. U. workers to see to it that your school or union be represented in Charleston, July 13th-18th.

Representative Fee An Sunday School or B. Y. P. U. may represent by paying to the convention $3.00 for one delegate and an extra $1.00 for every additional delegate. Any Baptist in good regular standing in his or her church may become an annual member by paying one dollar.

Morris College In my annual message to the convention at Anderson, I recommended that our State Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Convention carry down to Charleston all money possible for the endowment of Morris College. We must raise $100,000 for this purpose.

I think it would be a reasonable amount that our convention would also $8000 for Morris College at this sessions.

In order to stimulate interest in this laudable effort, the board herewith is offering a prize in the form of a State Banner to the Sunday School bringing up the largest amount of money for all purposes, this is for endowment, beneficiary, missionary and other purposes.

The Board is offering a gold medal prize to the District Missionary who brings up the largest amount of money clear of all expenses.

Remember that your endowment money will have nothing to do with your representation money.

Let every school and B. Y. P. U. in the State make one strong pull for Morris College.

Benedict College The Baptist of South Carolina also pledged themselves to raise $50,000 more on the endowment of Benedict College and this convention adopted the plan. And I am hereby calling on all schools and unions to send up your Benedict College endowment fund. Blank space will be on our letter for Benedict College and a special committee will be appointed to handle all monies for Benedict College at the convention.

Our Beneficiary Fund Our convention adopted the beneficiary plan, this is, we took the progressive position, that we must aid worthy young men and women who were too poor to help themselves in college. So you will please note that item on filling your letter blanks.

Our General Field Director Our field director, Dr. Wm. Howard is leaving no stone unturned in getting things in shape for the convention. He deserves the unstinted support of all the pastor and the superintendents in this State. No better stronger, more orthodox man could be found than the Rev. Wm. Howard.

All of the Baptist churches of Columbia are planning to run one big excursion to Charleston one day during the convention.

Greenville Locals

The cheerful home circle club gave its annual reception Monday night at the Phyllis Wheatley Center. The occasion was enjoyed by a large number of returned students.

Mr. E. C. Murray, district manager of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, spent several days of last week at the company's office at Durham, N. C.

Mr. James Robinson, after spending several weeks at Newberry, S. C., has returned to his home here.

Mr. Thos. Johnson arrived in the city last week from A. and T. College at Greensboro, N. C.

Miss M. S. White was in Columbia last week for the Allen University commencement.

Mrs. Maude McClellan and Miss Mary Tiffin of Laurens, are attending summer school here.

The boys program given Monday night at Allen Temple, was very nicely rendered. The features included a trio by the Hattie Duckett Club, of which John Carey is star.

The moving week program given last week at Allen Temple proved fairly successful, very interesting exercises being held each night. Addresses by Miss Jones of Boston University and Rev. R. F. McDowell were some of the features. The march around the walls scheduled for last Sunday was called off on account of the inclement weather.

The Willing Workers and Ladies Aid Clubs met in joint session Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Lula Davis on Hudson St. After business, a delicious repast was served.

Although it was raining in torrents, a splendid number of loyal, true blue, all wool and a yard wide members of Allen Temple A. M. E. church turned out Sunday morning to hear the gospel of Christ as preached by His able messenger, Rev. D. L. Witherspoon. This service was very impressive.

In the evening a children's day program was rendered. Rev. W. R. Martin, a splendid young Baptist minister, was a welcome visitor. The usual Sunday School and League services were enjoyed.

Greenville's crack colored base ball Monday by the impressive score of 7 to 1. A large number of Asheville fans saw their club humbled by the fast stepping spinners.

The officers and teachers of Allen Temple Sunday School met Tuesday night at the comfortable home of Superintendent and Mrs. J. A. Johnson on Calhoun St. After the study period, Prof. and Mrs. Johnson entertained with a delicious course repast which included about everything that heart could wish on such an occasion.

The genuine hospitality was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. And take it from me, the Johnsons are past master in the art of entertaining and this grand and glorious occasion was no exception to the rule whatever.

"LITTLE OLD NEW YORK"

The June dansante given by the Carolina Exclusive Club, Tuesday evening, June 7th at the Renaissance Casino, was the outstanding feature of the season and the jolly following of one thousand of Harlem's and Carolina's members of the 400 circle gathered in reunion to celebrate on this auspicious occasion one of the liveliest evenings of a lifetime.

This being the best affair ever undertaken by this club, the committee didn't lose any time in making this the talk of "little old New York" the wonder city of the world and Harlem with the largest Negro settlement with one of the country's most beautiful palaces of pleasure.

Music was continuous with Vernon Andrade's ball room orchestra and June Black's harmony spillers. Singers and dancers from clubs Seno-Rita and Kentucky Inn entertained. This was one evening long to be remembered. A few out-of-town visitors seen at the dance were: Mr. J. Lewis and party, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. Champion and party, Meridian, Miss.; Mr. Levin and party, Hackensack, N. J.; Mr. R. Watts and party, Boston, Mass.; G. Quaker and party, Cincinnati, Ohio; B. T. Williams and party, Nashville, Tenn.; T. Anderson and party, Lincoln, Pa.; Misses Mary Palmer, Annie Haddens and a host of others.

dollar per day. An excursion has also been planned by the local churches of Charleston for all who will to see Atlantic Ocean on a boat excursion on Saturday afternoon of the convention.

"On to Charleston!" is our watchword.

Yours for the cause of Christ, J. C. WHITE, President State Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Convention, Columbia, S. C.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL AND B. Y. P. U. CONVENTION FIELD NOTES

By Wm. Howard, Sec.

On Thursday last the emissaries met at Zion Baptist Church, Columbia, and completed the program for the coming session of the convention to be held in Charleston. The program covers various phases of Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. work.

All is now ready for the sound of the gavel that will put the machinery in motion.

Thursday night we attended the revival service at Zion Baptist in Columbia, where the pastor is doing the preaching. It was good to be there. Dr. White has lost none of the fire that characterized his preaching. But he has gained in knowledge and experience which made hearing him all the more enjoyable. Truly he is a great preacher, which of course is what the reader already knows. Also the people of Zion are as fervent as ever.

A Visit to St. George

Friday night, June 10th, we spoke at Good Hope Baptist Church, St. George, Rev. J. W. Marshall, pastor.

A splendid audience was present and they showed keen interest in the work both by a liberal offering and promises of future help. Rev. Marshall is one of our most progressive pastors.

He has been pastor at Good Hope fifteen years during which time he has also held some of the largest churches in that section. He is a fitting example not only as a minister but as a business man, having accumulated considerable property for himself. Both he and Mrs. Marshall are teachers, the latter in the graded school at St. George. In Brother Marshall and the people of Good Hope denomination has an asset of which it may justly feel proud.

St. Helena Island

Sunday was spent with the Ebenezer Baptist Sunday School and Church, Rev. D. C. Washington, pastor. Prof. B. H. Washington, superintendent. Here we found a school manned by as intelligent officers and teachers as can be found in the State.

Their interest in the State work was as keen as found anywhere. Bro. Washington, pastor, called upon us to preach to preach, giving the entire day's collection included, to us. Selah do we find "so great faith in Israel."

Brother Washington is too well known to require introduction. He stands at the head of the old Ashley

In a previous article we stated that the fee for a Sunday School entering the convention was three dollars for one delegate and one dollar for each additional delegate. It should read three dollars for each additional delegate.

Association and is one of the main ones in the wheel of our denominational programs. Seldom have we found a group of young people with a more intelligent grasp of the scope and purpose of the life work and a greater willingness to help than those of St. George, St. Helena and Beaufort. We had time only to look in on the Sunday School at the Brick Church. Here we found Sister M. J. Chaplin, Dr. Bailey and others actively at work. We hope to visit them soon.

Sister Chaplin is known throughout the state as one of the missionaries who has done much for the evangelization. It is fitting to call that session "embracing holy St. Helena and Beaufort."

I found the "scrapen spot" of the State. The fertile soil, mild climate, making possible the cultivation of crops almost the year around, the beautiful view and the Atlantic Ocean hard by, teaming with their myriads of fish, from the public schools and the Penn Normal and Technical School giving education in each of every one; the churches, the way here to these things, with the new bridge spanning the Beaufort River, all include a great future for the people. Colored people we were informed, and the general portion of these islands.

At the African Baptist Church Beaufort Sunday night we spoke at the African Church, Rev. J. A. Wilson, D. D., pastor. Atty. J. I. Washington, superintendent. They gave us a liberal offering, several pledges and many were the expressions of good will for the work. Dr. Wilson is also president of the Robert S. Shafts High School of Beaufort. He is doing his work manfully, and is beloved of the people generally and first. Arit can in particular. We were entertained in his splendid home where the madam returns with grace and dignity.
