NEW YORK CITY LOCALS

As the various schools and universities in the South are opening, a large number of students and teachers are leaving for the Southland.

Miss Bernice Byrd left this city to enter Allen University Tuesday.

Misses Margarite Woodward and Lottie Boykin, who have been visiting Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Canada, are in the city again. The young ladies reported a very interesting and pleasant trip.

The most unique and attractive affairs of the season was the birthday party given in honor of Miss Margaret D. Woodward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McClain at 225 W. 116 St. The apartment was beautifully decorated with roses and carnations. The blue lights gave the spacious living room the appearance of a garden in the moon light. All that were present enjoyed themselves. The guest of honor received many beautiful and useful gifts. Mr. Walter Huber played sweetly for the occasion.

MRS. RUSIE HOLMAN TENDERLY LAID TO REST

Monday, September 12, at 10 o'clock, P. M. at Emanuel A. M. E. Church, amid sorrowing friends and relatives of the deceased, the remains of Mrs. Susie Holman, wife of Rev. Julius Holman was interred at the new cemetery. Mrs. Holman was a devoted mother, who ever wore a smile, and the two years of her association with her husband in the past, she had won the hearts of the people, as shown in eulogistic tributes from her last illness.

She had scarcely seen a well day since their sojourn at the work, but whenever able, she would try her husband's side cheerfully, and whatever there was in her power for the good of all.

The funeral arrangements were in charge of the officers of the church, and our ever courteous Mr. Bradley of Johnson and Bradley cooperated in beautiful fashion. Dr. E. A. Adams, P. E. of Columbia district, delivered the funeral oration, assisted by Dr. B. H. Sims, President of Allen University, and Revs. L. G. Lowman, who offered a very fervent prayer. Rev. Dunlap read the testimonials. Addison lining the first hymn. Touching remarks were made by Dr. Ellis, P. E. of the Lancaster district, Dr. Miles, P. E. of the Kingslee district, and Dr. J. E. Beard, Pastor of Bethel A. M. E. church, here.

Other ministers present were the Revs. W. R. Bowman, N. A. Rice, B. E. Lyles, W. R. Burgess, John Gibson, and Rev. Perry of Connecticut, and others.

Dr. Adams used these words: "In my father's house, there are many mansions, etc." The discourse was most beautiful.

The floral offerings were many and showing how extensive the work of the family was. The pall bearers were Dean Thompson, Leon Egan of Allen University, B. S. Jackson, Wm. Thomson, Willie White and Mr. Burton of Emanuel and a brother from Newberry, Rev. Johnson's former work.

ARTHUR TOWN NEWS

Rev. H. W. Walker had the honor of introducing Rev. Frank Adams as the speaker of the hour. He preached a wonderful sermon, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Walker organized a divinity church, at 8 o'clock the church was filled to its capacity, and Rev. Nathaniel Harrison preached his last sermon. He chose for a text from the Ninth chapter of Job. He preached a real spiritual sermon. He surprised the audience. We were blessed to have with us two sisters, Mrs. Zora Pilegrim and Zion Hill C. For information see Henry Hall.

A CORRECTION

Dr. Julius Blaine Rowe, son of the deceased Jacob P. Rowe of Leesville is a practicing dentist in Greenville, S. C., not Pittsburg, Pa.

The success was remarkable. We are bound for success as long as we have such a leader as Rev. H. W. Walker in such a Rally.

The total raised was $233.50. Henry Hall and Wesley Hunter are running their last Colored Excursion of the season to Winston-Salem, N. C. For information see Henry Hall or Wesley Hunter.
