

ALLENDALE NEWS.

Quite a large crowd attended the Excelsior Club meeting, which met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Best Wednesday evening. Two rooms of the home were beautifully decorated to entertain the many members and friends. An enjoyable program was rendered which reflected great credit to the program committee chairman, Miss Fannie Croft. A delicious ice cream and cake course was served by the hostess. The social part of the Club reached its climax by the introduction of many games from Misses Alean Ervin, Ruth Thompson, Dorothy Richardson and Mr. Lucius Singleton. These young ladies and gentleman are contributing much to life of the organization. The honored guests present were Mrs. Ida Fields, Mrs. Wright and Margaret Craig, Dea. Sanders Allen and Singleton were much interested in the financial part of the meeting and with such interest Mrs. Best received the honor banner of excelling all other meetings.

The Mt. Tabor church members and elder deacons are very proud of their young men deacons, in the persons of Mr. Joe Singleton, Le Roy Allen and Lawton. Mr. Singleton is contributing much in all the church work but now especially in the Sunday school.

Supt. Alexander was seriously injured last week at the electric plant, cutting all the fingers from his right hand. The Sunday school sends up its prayers and wishes for his speedy recovery.

The Rosenwald Day program at the Rosenwald school building was carried out very systematically Friday evening March 30. The meeting was largely attended, with trustees, patrons and students. Sincere efforts are made for the betterment of the school and the community conditions under leadership of teachers, Prof. Consee Ritter and Miss R. J. Thompson; and this meeting meant so much to them in the way of encouragement. Much preparation was made for the program, the building was decorated with flowers and flags sweet music was rendered by the students, and the address on Mr. Rosenwald, held the audience spell bound. The collection excelled other surrounding schools.

The dull season basket ball was played Monday, April 2, Allendale and Brunson. The Brunson players played their part, but were defeated by errors. Score 10-14 in favor of Allendale players. For Brunson; honorable mention Misses Luniella Allen, Susie Bowers, Julia Mae Robinson, Emma Lee-Bostie, Laura Belle Williams and Sarah Allen. Allendale: Misses Alean Ervin, Margaret Craig Pauline Robinson, Annie Howard, Lily Patterson and Ella Mae Ritter.
