Prominently displayed in the reception room and over the fern enclosed, however where the punch was served, the name of "Lois" was uniquely written in flowers. The guests were the superintendents, teachers, students and friends of the school. After enjoying a number of games an interesting program was carried out. In different words, but with ever the same sentiment, they spoke of the high esteem in which Miss Henry is held. IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Mrs. Ada Foster, who departed this life last May 26, 1927.

Mother left us at sunset, yesterday— crossing the great divide, With a fortitude that has graced none more fair, she took leave of life without fear.

Through weeks of silent suffering she looked calmly into the future, and did not falter; With a heroism born of her supreme faith in Jesus of Nazareth, She approached the end thrilling with her latest breath the high note of exultation—

As one who knocks at the gates of eternal morning. Had she been spared until October 26th next she would have rounded out three score years plus ten— A life to us so beautiful.

Shrouded in her robes immaculate, Asleep beneath a wilderness of flowers That fain would have kissed her eyelids to awakening; We sent her back to old South Carolina,

There beneath the pines, within the sound of the babbling stream which for more than forty years was to her the sweetest music.

We paused and breathed a prayer above the sod And left her to her rest and God. Heart sentiments of a devoted son, JAMES C. FOSTER, 585 West End Ave., New York City.
