

Church News of Columbia

By REV. J. C. WHITE

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH HAPPENINGS.

Our Sunday School last Sunday was an enjoyable affair, Dr. D. K. Jenkins and his two able assistants...

11:30 the vested choir marched in to the strains of "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing." Musical feature was superlative, the announcements all having been read by our faithful clerk Mr. Thomas Williams...

The pastor, Dr. J. C. White preached at the State Penitentiary at 8:30, he preached to the whole congregation both white and colored prisoners from the text: "A prayer of boundless faith." At 2:00 o'clock Dr. White read the Scriptures and had a short service with the five men from Charleston who are to die in the electric chair...

At 3:00 p. m., Pastor White motored out to Shandon Annex to Shiloh Baptist church, where he preached from the text: "Call on me in the day of trouble and I will deliver thee." There the Lord met his saints and we feasted on good things of God.

B. Y. P. U. services were held at 6:00 p. m. "A Boy who was raised in the Temple" was the subject. The Jubilee musical feature with Mrs. Medora J. White at the piano was an interesting feature as well as the financial contest between the boys and girls were indeed fine.

At 8:00 p. m., the Pastor introduced the Rev. Dr. M. T. J. Jones, who preached the greatest sermon it was ever heard in many a day. Dr. Jones is a preacher who studies his Bible. $78.00 was the collection.

Church Locals.

Mrs. Mureal, traveling agent for Morris College stopped over as the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. White last Sunday night.

Dr. J. C. White left Monday for Winston-Salem where he will conduct a two weeks revival for Dr. R. L. Fife at the Mt. Zion church of that city.

Capt. W. H. Cullery is ill at his home out on the Garner's Ferry road. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Miss Lucy Becker 2324 Washington St., left Monday for Morris College where she goes to take up studies in that institution.

Miss Larine Herrin goes to Kershaw where she will teach in the City school under Prof. L. C. Jenkins.

Mrs. Medora J. White is teaching at the graded school in Arthurtown this year.

Mrs. Elise P. King is again teaching in Leovy graded school in Kendalltown; and Mrs. Alma J. Hopkins is teaching in her same school at Colonial Heights.

Bro. John Stewart has been very sick at his home on the corner of Walnut and Penitentiary Sts., but is much better at this writing.

FIRST CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

The Sunday school was well attended with Supt. H. W. Harrison and his teachers at their posts and the lessons were taught with much enthusiasm.

For the morning service, the pulpit was graced by the Rev. A. W. Williams of the faculty of Benedict College. An eloquent sermon was preached by the pastor Rev. S. S. Youngblood to a large and appreciative congregation, who came out to greet him on his return from his vacation spent at the National Baptist Convention in Louisville, Ky., and other points of interest including Nashville, Tenn., Tuskegee Institute, Ala., and Atlanta, Ga. In Atlanta he was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. Turner. Rev. Youngblood reports a very pleasant stay and comes back to us much refreshed and ready to go about his duties. His report of the convention and other visits were very interesting.

The B. Y. P. U. was held at 6:30 and was as usual good and a splendid attendance.

The evening message: "The Three Aspects of God's Leading," brought us new light. Both the morning and evening sermons were instructive, screeching and indeed spiritual.

We see through the "Columbia Record," that the Governor received Rev. S. S. Youngblood and Rev. P. E. Watson, who are seeking to have two innocent prisoners saved from the electric chair, if it is thoroughly established that they are not guilty. We thank God for those whose motto is not self, but others. We pray that their innocence will be established. We are indeed pleased to have our pastor back with us.

BETHLEHEM A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

The Sunday school lesson was very interesting Sunday and interestingly taught by the several teachers of the school; after which Dr. Brogdon gave a very interesting review of the lesson for the benefit of the different departments of the school. Remarks by Prof. J. C. Jenkins, also Miss Isabelle Jackson, who has returned from her vacation at Philadelphia to resume her studies at Allen.

Dr. Brogdon did credit to the location, at 11:15, when he selected the 66th psalm for verse: "Come and see the works of God; He is terrible in His doings towards the children of men." From which was delivered a most splendid discourse that shall be as bread cast upon the water to return after many days. At the conclusion of the sermon Dr. Brogdon made mention and introductions of the visitors. Among whom was Mrs. Betha Hurst wife of Bishop John Hurst, who now resides at the Episcopal residence on First Taylor Street. Upon request Mrs. Hurst made remarks which seemed to have gained the deepest possible interest of the entire audience. She expressed herself as having enjoyed very much the sermon and services. We welcome her again and again, also Mrs. Grainger, of Chicago, Ill., Prof. and Mrs. Gwinn of Orangeburg and Miss Hattie Mae Parler and Miss Rose Bud Brown, who came to worship while waiting for their train enroute to Orangeburg, from New York City.

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

The program in the Christian Embassy was very good and attended by increasing numbers. The lesson was a Missionary one, and the Missionary committee of which Mrs. Blanche Tucker is chairman had charge. Mrs. C. A. Adams, president of the Local Branch of the Missionary Society was the principal speaker. She brought to the League a most splendid message on Missions filled with wholesome and worth while advice. The day's service closed at evening with another timely discourse by Dr. Brogdon far-reaching and strong in appeal to the unawakened as found in St. Luke 19:10: "For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

JOHNSON BRADLEY MORRIS FUNERAL HOME. COR. WASHINGTON & PARK STS. PHONE 3512. Experience means skill and ability—the reason why you can place utmost confidence in our ability to serve you best. Superior equipment, moderate cost, care in every detail assured.

Newberry News

The revival meeting at Bethlehem Baptist church started on last Sunday with the Rev. J. L. Goldson pastor. He will carry the meeting on the first week in order to get the members right and their house in order. On Sunday there was a high day at Bethlehem. Yes the revival has started. You are welcome to come and feast with us. The revival meeting has closed at Miller Chapel A. M. E. church. Rev. Jennings left on last Thursday for his home in Florida.

Although the storm was on when he left the parsonage, on Sunday past, Rev. J. C. Smart baptized twenty-two newly converted members. We had a warm time for awhile. At the evening session a short sermon was preached by the pastor and a literary program was rendered. Prof. Fred Pratt delivered an address. Subject: "What is Education." Paper Mrs. S. L. Moon. Remarks by Prof. U. S. Gallman and Bro. Robert Jones, on the Loyalty of the Church. The program was good.

Miss Etta Pratt is still on the sick list.

Mrs. L. M. Gilder is improving. She is up but not allowed to go out doors.

Mrs. Annie Robinson is on the sick list. She has been confined to her bed for one week.

The bride and groom were the guests of the congregation and members of Miller Chapel church on last Sunday.

The rural schools will soon open. The parents are asked to have their children ready.

Quite a number of students left here on Monday and Tuesday past for the State College and Morris college. The largest number that has ever gone from Newberry. The parents due credit for sending their children to college this year for it has been a hard year.

The farmers are very busy harvesting their crops. Cotton is opening and soon will be gone.

Rev. Wm. D. Rook has been confined to his bed. His members will be glad to know that he is some better.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912.

Of The Palmetto Leader, published weekly, at Columbia, S. C., for October 1, 1928.

State of South Carolina, County of Richland. Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Geo. H. Hampton, who having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the Publisher of the Palmetto Leader, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date by the Act of August 24, 1912, mentioned in the above caption, required by section 411, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are: Publisher, Geo. H. Hampton, Columbia, S. C. Editor, N. J. Frederick, Columbia, S. C.

2. That the owner is: Geo. H. Hampton, Columbia, S. C.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None.

GEO. H. HAMPTON, Publisher. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 27th day of September, 1928.

N. J. FREDERICK, Notary Public.

(My commission expires at the pleasure of the Governor.)

up. She gave a very interesting talk which we will always remember.

Remarks were made by some of the members to Miss Poinsette for her service and kindness during the seven years of the Club.

The next meeting will be Oct. 5, at the home of Miss Jackson Oak St.

THE W. H. & F. MISSIONARY CONFERENCE BRANCH CONVENTION, PIEDMONT CONFERENCE

The Piedmont Conference Branch Convention met in its nineteenth annual session with Mt. Zion A. M. E. church, McCormick, Sept. 6-7, 1928. The opening services were conducted by the vice-president, Mrs. W. E. Williams, the president, Mrs. R. J. Clark being off on a most sad mission, that of attending the funeral services of two of our beloved members in the persons of Mrs. Ella W. Byrd of Bradley and Mrs. Emma Wilson of Abbeville.

The testimonial services were spirited. After which the president arrived and perfected the organization with Mrs. Anna E. Chiles as secretary.

At 8:00 p. m., on Thursday evening the annual sermon was delivered by the Rev. B. J. Ramsey, presiding elder of the Abbeville District. The sermon was a masterpiece in thought and expression, and was accompanied by bold manifestation of the Holy Spirit. The welcome exercises were conducted by the Pastor of the local church Rev. K. H. Curry. Welcome on behalf of the Missionary Society, Sister F. Wideman; on behalf of the church, Bro. Jones; on behalf of the ministers Rev. K. H. Curry. Response on behalf of the Missionary Ladies, Mrs. Anna E. Chiles; on behalf of the ministers Rev. A. C. Sumpter of Greenville.

Notwithstanding the monster death had invaded our ranks, we had one of the best sessions in the history of our convention and our reports were good, and the spirit of love and unity prevailed.

On Friday afternoon, Dr. D. H. Sims, president of Allen University, delivered a masterful address on Education. The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. R. J. Clark; 1st vice-president, Mrs. W. E. Williams; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. S. J. Burgess; recording secretary, Mrs. Anna E. Chiles; corresponding secretary, Miss Hattie Perrin; treasurer, Mrs. A. M. Sims; Juvenile Supervisor Mrs. Ruth Massey.

Total amount collected during the session $861.40. The Presiding Elders Revs. B. J. Ramsey, J. W. Douglass, P. M. Gary and D. H. Johnson, all gave valuable assistance to the President and the convention. The Rev. Curry and his good members spared no pains in making it pleasant for us for which we thank them kindly.

PROMISE LAND NEWS.

Dr. P. M. Gary, presiding elder of the Greenwood District held the fourth quarterly conference for the year, with Mt. Zion A. M. E. church, Verner, Sept. 15, 16. Pastor in charge Rev. E. F. Johnson. The Presiding Elder opened with singing "O For a Faith that will not shrink," etc. After which he exhorted the conference to be steadfast in the faith, and also to unite their forces to one common end.

Bro. E. D. Chappelle was elected Secretary and all of the departments of the church made creditable reports. Sunday being Endowment Day, the Sunday school was alive in its rally for Education, led by the Supt. Bro. B. L. Wims, and the Sec. Mrs. Anna E. Chiles, they raised the sum of $14.42.

At 12:00 m. the Presiding Elder preached a soul stirring sermon, text Judge 1:24-21. Subject: "Self Preservation." The P. E., who is one of the best gospel ministers in the state, was at his best and the sermon was a masterpiece and was accompanied by the Holy Spirit.

The entire session was a success and much credit must be given our most able and efficient pastor, Rev. E. F. Johnson.

EMANUEL A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

Copes, S. C., Sept. 21. Sunday was a high day in our Zion. We were delighted to have with us our old friend Dr. E. P. Ellis, P. E. of the Lancaster District. He addressed the Sunday school at 10 o'clock and at 11 o'clock preached a soul stirring sermon.

The Finance committee was called by Rev. McCrae. A collection of $5 was taken. We hope the P. E. will call again shortly.

C. C. RUSSELL. Expert Mechanic on all Makes of TALKING MACHINES. With Columbia Music Co. PHONE 7586. 1608 Main St., Columbia, S. C. 666 Cures Chills and Fever, Intermittent, Remittent and Bilious Fever due to Malaria. It kills the germs.

DRAPERY AND CURTAINS. All Kinds Laundered in First Class. Prices Reasonable. All Work Done Promptly. MRS. ESTELLE BROWN, 121 Gervais Street, Columbia, S. C. PHONE 4045.

PROTECTION AGAINST ACCIDENTS, SICKNESS AND DEATH. The National Association of Life Underwriters. Offers to its members... SLEMON CARROLL, Grand Noble Secretary, 1119 WASHINGTON STREET, Columbia, S. C.

Mather Industrial School. Beaufort, South Carolina. A school which trains for useful Christian womanhood. Fourth grade through the tenth. Careful instruction in regular school subjects. Cooking, Sewing, Bible Study, Basket Ball, Base Ball. REASONABLE RATES. School opens September 10. Write for catalog and information to MISS LYDIA EDGERLY, Principal, Beaufort, South Carolina.

Hallman's Tonsorial Parlor. First Class Work. Courteous Service. All Types of Barbering Work Done. 103 Gervais St., Columbia, S. C.

BARGAINS In Used Typewriters. We have several Underwood, Remington, L. C. Smith, Corona and other makes which have been repaired and rebuilt. Sold with a guarantee. Monthly payments if desired. 1203 LADY ST. PHONE 7898. Typewriter Exchange COLUMBIA, S. C.

Quality Pressing Club. Dry Cleaning, Repairing, Altering and Dyeing. We are in business for your convenience and our living. A little co-operation would help. J. B. Dentley, Manager. Y. M. C. A. BUILDING, Sumter St. Phone 3861.