LOCKHART NEWS

Mr. Sims Thompson, an old citizen of this place, died last Wednesday. Mr. Thompson has been in failing health for some time. He leaves a wife, three daughters, three boys. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. A. Thompson, and the body was buried in Mt. Hopewell cemetery.

Rev. J. H. Coleman, formerly of South Carolina but now of Knoxville, Tennessee, preached at Lockhart last Sunday. He preached a great sermon. Everybody wants him to come back. Mt. Hopewell and Mt. Pleasant Baptist churches have called him arll we trust he will accept and return to South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Talley, son Clyde, and little grand son, of the Maplie Ridge community, motored up Sunday with Prof. and Mrs. Bogan, and enjoyed the sermon by Rev. Colçman. Mrs. Tally is the only living
