ly and worthy of praise.

Again at -8 o'clock Rev. Dixon preached a most wonderful sermon from the subject: "Self Denial." As result of the powerful sermon one lady took advantage of the opportunity and joined the church. The members and friends of the above named church were glad to see Mrs. Maggie Young out after being confined to her bed for several weeks.

BETHEL A, M. E. CHURCH NOTES

A full school of boys andgirls was present Sunday morning to hear of and study the life and work of the young King Josiah. After which school was entertained by Misa Eliabeth Reese, demonstrating a chart composed of pictures representing Bible quotations. FIRST CALVARY CHURCH NEWS

Sunday School was attended by a large number of girls and boys who received helpful discussions on the life of Josiah, a young but fearless king, who discharged his duties and to it that hisi people obey the law ofo God. At 11 a. m., we were greeted by the pastor, Rev. S. S. Youngblood, who has been away attending the : Natioonal Convention. We listened to a report from the Convention and learned that such men as Dr. Modecai Joohnson, Kelly Miller, Judge Harris and Grand Exalted Ruler Wilson delivered addresses. We were proud to learn that of the Carolina stands 19th and First Calvary leads in South Carolina in givng to foreign missions. After the report we listened to a very helpful sermon from Deu. 8:2: "And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord led thee these forty yars in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove to thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldst keep his commandments or no." The pastor stressed the point that we hould be mindful of the blessings God has given us and not be ready to grumble all the time.

We are indeed grateful to Rev. T. I. Duckett who served us during the absence of our pastor.

WILLING WORKERS MEET

The Willing Workers Board of Sid-ney Park C. M. E. Church met at the hospitable home of Mrs, Cornelius Trapp, 419 Taylor street on Wednesday, August 3, at 6:00 o'clock. Meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. R. A. Taylor. After devotions the recording secretary, Mrs. Jessie Legge read the minutes of the previous meeting which were adopted. After the roll call a program was rendered. The Willing Workers quartet gave a selection, Miss Rosena Johnson, a solo and Mrs. Rebecca Scott a recitation. Mrs. Trapp served delightful salad, iced tea, ice cream and cake. Meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Alice Johnson on Hampton street, Aug. 17th. We enjoyed the presence of three visitors: Mrs. Martha Thompson, Mrs. Rebecca Johnson and Mrs. Hudson.

JUNIOR USHER BOARD OF 1ST. CALVARY CHURCH.

The Junior Usher Board of First Calvary Baptist church held its week ly meeting at the home of the president Mrs. Marie Lewis. The meeting was carried on in its usual manner. We were greatly benefitted by the helpful remarks made by Miss Rachel Nesbitt who is leavisg soon for Anderson where she serves as teacher. After the meeting a delicious course was served by the hostess. All persons present reported an enjoya-ble evening.
