Called to perform a very sad duty.

Miss Ruth Green, the daughter of denly Saturday night and was buried Monday afternoon. She was an estimable young woman, which was attested by the overflow audience at the funeral service. Her school mates were pall bearers, and her class from the Colleton Training School attended in a body. A fing set of resolutions from the class was read by Mr. Jeff Thompson, and another beautiful resolution for the faculty. Dr. Horry preached a very forceful and consoling sermon.

Notwithstanding the sudden change in the weather, quite an audience was out morning and night Sunday to greet our new pastor. His morning sermon was quite befitting for the Sacrament service and the beginning of the new conference year. His text was 1st Cor. 5:7. Theme: "The new Lump." At the evening service, his subject was: "The unseen Forces Working for us." They are sermons large to he remembered. long to be remembered.
