POINTED POINTS BY GEORGE A. SINGLETON

The Wookly Text :--- Blested are those who wash heir roles that theirs may be the right to enter he gate: of the city .- Rev. 22:14.

The Weekly Thot :- "There is no road to right-Jusness that does not have the crassroad to unighteousness."-"Ted" Booth.

The Weekly Thot carries the writer back to deasant school days spent in Boston University. The quotation is from Edwin Prince Booth, schoolmate, classmate, friend; now a professor in the he great old school which took my feet out of the nire and clay.

While these lines are being written Bishop John Andrew Gregg, of Kansas City Kansas is abiding beneath the roof of the writer. The Bishop was President of Wilberforce and paid a visit to Bos. on. The writer was a student in the university and pastoring his first charge. President-Gregg was invited over to dinner. Mr. Booth was present. From that meeting a long and lasting friendship sprang up between him and President Gregg. Tonight as Bishop Gregg and the Pointed Pointer alkt of other days we gazed at Booth's photograph, and the writer seized upon the lines of he Weekly Thot.

Life scens to consist of a dualism. One said: Whenever a temple is erected to God the devil tects one nearby," "When I would do good evil s always present."

Socrates: "An unexamined life is not ' worth -No one will question this statement, Ex amination reveals the inconsistencies and flaws, The first step the physician makes is the diagnosis, Dr. R. R. Wright, Jr.; has definitely accepted Te task of presiding over the destinies of Wilberforce University. He has been selected by the executive Board. He will make good, is the wish id prayer of the church. His election will be the voit: of the Board of Trustees when it meets. Unil then he will edit the Christian Re-order. This 4. light and wise. We are interested in the church a whole. This writer plodges to do everything hal he can to bring success to the administration of the Acting President.

Bishop Gregg is invited to Springfield by the dimisterial Alliance to deliver an address or preach a sermon on the evening of the 21 at an open air mosting. It is a pleasure to have him the city. Sunday morning he will worship with he wilter. At the evening service the writer will introduce bim.

In 1928 the Pointed Pointer attended the General outerance in Louisville, and helpt to elegate Bishop Greng He has not forgotten it. Once more his writer says that men get up in the church and would by helping somebody else. Let us push, in the same why the writer-helpt Drs. Sims and Made Williams. They are now bishops in the hurch. Could name others.
