YORK NEWS

Mrs. M. E. Dunmore who held the principalship of Booker Washington Heights School of Columbia, S. C., for a number of years with respect, distinction and credit, is now the acceptable and worthy Supervisor of Negro Schools of York County. We wish for this smart and aggressive York County Negro Schools Supervisor, unstinting pleasure, and success in her valuable and necessary work while we heartily and wholly pledge her our undivided support and sympathy.

We are extensively apprized too, that Mrs. Dunmore is making fine headways in her new field and is well liked, and loved for her skill in managing her business.

Mrs. Monteith Suddie, South Carolina Tuberculosis Association Field Worker of 2025 Marion St. Columbia visited the Wesley M. E. Parsonage at York last week, in the interest of her work. Mrs. M. M. Simkin secured Mrs. P. M. Gibbs and appointed her as York County's Chairman of Christmas Seals sale. Mrs. P. M. Gibbs has already made her survey and shall begin the real canvas and sale of the stamps over the County after Thanksgiving Day.

It is to be remembered that each one cent Christmas Seal stamp sold and bought helps to expel and annihilate T. B. instantly. Buy now. Help to chase this death dealing disease from our group and eventually from the contour of the globe.

We still feel very apprehensive of the illness of sister Alice Willie who shows little signs of recovery. We are glad to report that sister Sanapher is much improved.

Harvest day was celebrated at Wesley M. E. Church by its members all day Sunday. A special sermon was preached by pastor, Rev. John C. Gibbs. At the night service the L. A. S. carried out nice and inspiring program. Mrs. Julia Adams was the Mistress of Ceremonies. Mrs. Lessie Hemphill read a "Thanksgiving Psalm, while Mrs. J. Adams offered the prayer. The quartet composed of Mrs. I. Wright, Soprano; Mrs. Brannie Moore, Alto; Mr. F. Farr, Tenor; and Rev. J. C. Gibbs, Bass, sang "To The Work." Mrs. N. Love read an excellent paper on "The Nobility of Labor." Mrs. J. Adams spoke on "The Meaning of Harvest" in an interesting manner. Mrs. P. M. Gibbs wrote fluently upon the theme, "The Spiritual Harvest. The shut ins and sick of the church were treated and prayed for by the Rev. J. C. Gibbs. The exercises met with favorable salutations and compliments.

Thanksgiving Day will be observed by all of the York people Thursday. Special services will be carried out at all of the colored churches.

We will be pleased to welcome and entertain the A. M. E. Zion Annual Conference Nov. 23 Bishop Jones will preside.

The L. A. S. will meet at the Wesley M. E. Church December 2. The president, Miss Bessie Wright. The famous rally for all purposes comes off at Wesley M. E. Church, Nov. 23.

Mr. Frank Davis is complimented for his splendid organized Sunday School.

Rev. DeLaine was at his best on Sunday with an appreciative audience in spite of cold weather. He also responded to an invitation by the Rev. E. P. Butler of New Zion A. M. E.
