WATEREE A. M. E. CHURCH HOLDS FIRST QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

Rev. A. J. Holman Pastor

Rev. E. A. Adams, P. E.

The first quarterly conference was held at the above named church, Feb. 17. It is needless to say that this was one of the best conferences held in the history of Elder Adams. Everybody was a their post of duty on time Satur day at 3:00 o'clock.

S. S. was at 10 o'clock strictly. Sunday A. M. with the P. E. in structing in his usual way, which s good and full of inspiration. The pastor and P. E. ascended the rostrum and used for the oper was offered and Scripture was read from Ecc. 11:1-12 and hymr No. 223 was sung with spirit,

The P. E. came before an awaiting congregation and made all hearts burn while he talked to us out of God's word from Ecc. 11:1. "Cast thy bread upon the water Using for outlines: 1 The farmer's Life; 2, The Christian's Life. Indeed this text and these outlines left us all wondering what life we were living. We feel assured that there was not a screw left unturned. This conference left us all with food for life. The total collection for the day was $28.50. Look! Read and Heed! There will be an educational program here March 3, 1935, at 3:00 o'clock. Mt. Hebron Quartet will preached by Rev. Mauling of wishers make a round report. gram is in interest of the school.

Wellford, S. C .- Sunday School met at 10:30 with the superintentendent and teachers on duty as usual. The lesson was discussed with much interest after which the Rev. B. W. Williams gave a umely review.

The morning service was large ly attended. After a very live prayer service the Rev. B. liams of Seneca, S. C., delivered a wonderful message taken from St. Luke 15:17 subject, "The Way ward Boy and Girl That's Drunk on the Things of the World." At the evening service Rev Williams brought another strong message. His text was Danie 5:27. Subject "Taking Stock". BYPU met at 6:30 and carried out, a splendid program. The Juniors were in charge. The entire community was sad dened over the death of two of our elder people, Mr. Jesse Kilgo who was funeralized Monday and his wife, Mrs. Elsie Kilgo who was funeralized Friday of the same week. The bereaved family has our deepest sympathy.
